The Black Student League of LaSalle functions to promote cultural and historical awareness through academic and social interaction. Members and non-members are encouraged to take advantage of the B.S.L resources and participate in its activities.

It is our goal that The Ebony Voice be the voice of the black community at LaSalle. We ask you to take advantage of our newsletter by submitting articles, editorials, poetry, etc... which will be of interest to all.

We hope that this first issue is a major step to a long and continuous journey for knowledge and true understanding.

LIFT EVERY VOICE I Don't Cry Because I Know

In the pages of his story books, his story is not told.
On television the media has our story sold.
The newspaper only prints what sells,
which most likely are lies.
That is what it tells.
If you want to understand an African's life,
look into his child's eye,
captured in a world destined to die,
as clear as the sun on the stream.
Never to see further than his face.
Never to find his dream.

- T. Lenoire
