

9-1971

Explorer News: September 1971

La Salle University

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.lasalle.edu/explorer_news

Recommended Citation

La Salle University, "Explorer News: September 1971" (1971). La Salle Alumni Association Explorer News. 46.
http://digitalcommons.lasalle.edu/explorer_news/46

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the University Publications at La Salle University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in La Salle Alumni Association Explorer News by an authorized administrator of La Salle University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact careyc@lasalle.edu.

ALUMNI CHAUVINISTS PLAN LAST ANNUAL STAG?

Will October 1, 1971 mark the last annual Alumni Stag Reunion?

Will this last bastion of Explorer male chauvinism be infiltrated by a vanguard of La Salle alumnae, augmented perhaps by militant undergrad coeds?

Make the annual autumnal beer-bust and find out!

Alumni President Robert J. Schaefer, in one of his first official acts, appointed Edward (Ted) Groody, '53, chairman of this year's Stag Reunion Committee. Groody (who now prefers to be referred to as Marshal) has met with his all male committee to mobilize the action and he vows to outdraw the Rev. Carl McIntyre on this occasion.

Not to be outdone by previous committees, this year's committee is lining up outstanding door prizes, sports films, etc.

The beer will begin to flow at the usual hour - 9:00 p.m. The draught beer is provided for the $3.50 admission charge, as are the popular peanuts, the shells of which everyone enjoys dropping on John Veen's Ballroom floor. Mixed drinks and hot dogs, with or without sauerkraut, again will be available for purchase.

Tickets for the Stag may be purchased by sending a check for $3.50 for each ticket desired to the Alumni Office, La Salle College, Phila. Pa., 19141. Checks should be made payable to the La Salle College Alumni Association.

Now is the time for all good La Salle men to exercise their prerogatives. Tell the wife alma mater needs you. Respond to Marshal Groody's call:

Explorers unite! Celebrate your Androcentrism! Call a Classmate! Close ranks on October 1! See you at the Stag!

DOWNTOWN CLUB OPENS WITH LONGSTRETH

Since many alumni live or work in Philadelphia, there is great interest in the local mayoralty contest this year.

Although efforts to secure Democratic candidate Frank L. Rizzo as a Downtown Club quest speaker were unsuccessful, chairman Al Avallon, '54, has announced that Republican candidate Thatcher Longstreth will inaugurate this year's series. He will address the Club on September 29 at the Tony George, 17th S. Bank Street.

Longstreth will be introduced by fellow Republican and La Salle basketball paragon, City Controller Tom Gola.

Longstreth was Executive Vice President of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and City Councilman-at-Large, both of which positions he resigned to seek the nomination last Spring. Longstreth, who ran for mayor unsuccessfully against Richardson Dilworth in 1955, was educated at Princeton University ('41), where he made honorable mention as an end on the football team. He served in the Navy during World War II and worked as an advertising executive in Philadelphia from 1946 to 1964, when he was named managing director of the Chamber of Commerce.

Reservations are necessary and may be made by sending a check ($5.00 for each reservation) to the Alumni Office, 20th & Olney Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa. 19141. Checks should be made payable to La Salle College

SCHAEFER REVEALS PLANS FOR 1971-'72

As announced in the summer issue of La Salle magazine, Robert J. Schaefer was elected President of the Alumni Association at the May 19 meeting of the Alumni Board of Directors.

Elected with him were: Joseph J. Sweeney, '54, Executive Vice President; James J. Kenyon, '63, Vice President; Gerald P. Ginley, '54, Secretary; and John McNally, '64, Treasurer.

Elected to the Executive Committee were: James Costello, '66; J. Russell Cullen, Jr., '60; Gerald Lawrence, '61; William Oakley, '67; Robert E. Boyle, '58; Joseph D. McNamara, '56; and Vincent A. Morelli, '63.

Also included on the Executive Committee are the past five (5) presidents of the Association: James I. Gillespie, '55; Daniel E. McGonigle, '57; Francis X. Donohoe, '55; Daniel H. Kane, '49; and Harry J. White, '54.

James Kenyon subsequently resigned as Vice President to devote his full attention to the Basketball Club. A special election to fill the vacancy is planned for the September meeting of the Board.

Schaefer wasted no time in making his committee appointments for the coming year. In addition to Ted Groody, mentioned above as Chairman of the Stag Reunion; other chairmen named were: Richard H. Becker, '50, Admissions Committee; Daniel E. McGonigle, '57, Annual Fund Council; John J. Zaccaria, '53, Awards Committee.

James J. Kenyon, '63, will continue with the Basketball Club and Alexander L. Avallon, '54, will chair the Downtown Club.

The Hall of Athletes selections will be made by James V. Covello, '52, Ira Davis, '58, and Peter E. Walheim, '60; while John J. Lombard, Jr., Esq., '56, will continue to head the Higher Education committee.

The Nominations Committee will be chaired by Daniel H. Kane, '49, and the newly formed Travel Committee will be chaired by Magnus J. Schaebler, '22. James Barry, '48 and Robert R. Davis, '60 will remain as co-chairmen of the Urban Affairs Committee.

Schaefer met with his new Executive Committee on June 15. At that time the committee endorsed the efforts of the previous regime in seeking full voting representation on the College Board of Trustees and authorized the new president to continue to press for this recognition.

On this occasion, the Executive Committee heard Schaefer outline his hopes for the year. To beef up the sadly depleted association treasury, he suggested a summer theatre party at La Salle Music Theatre. This was unanimously endorsed by the committee and held on August 17 in cooperation with the Downtown Club and the Alumni Medical Society.

He also suggested the cancellation of the Alumni Spring Reception, and the institution of a Las Vegas night during the winter. After discussion, these proposals were endorsed by the Executive Committee and will be considered by the full Board of Directors at the September meeting.

BASKETBALL CLUB FEATURES NEW MEMBERSHIP PLANS

The Alumni Basketball Club, under the chairmanship of James J. Kenyon, '63, has recently announced that there will be two types of membership for the '71-'72 season.

The $10 Associate (blue) category entitles members to the following: a 1971-'72 La Salle College Basketball Handbook; free refreshments at all club meetings (6); and the monthly newsletter during the basketball season entitles members to all the benefits given the Associate members plus: free admission to the Awards Dinner (value - $7.50); preferential seating at the dinner in addition to free patron listing in the official dinner program (value - $5); an autographed photograph of '71-'72 varsity basketball team; and preference on all sale of tickets to games, club trips and socials.

The $25 Executive (gold) category

If you wish to join this year's club send that check, in the appropriate amount, to the Alumni Office, La Salle College, Philadelphia, Pa. 19141. Your membership card will be mailed directly to you.

Plans now call for a heavy schedule off the court as well as on it. A complete list of the activities surrounding the Explorers' '71-'72 campaign will be mailed to the membership in September

Kenyon and his committee are hopeful that many more alumni will join the ranks of the "blue" or "gold" this year!

CONCERT AND LECTURE SERIES

Brother Emery C. Mollenhauer, Vice President for Academic Affairs, has announced the concert and lecture series for the coming semester.

Alumni are cordially invited to attend all programs. (Except those noted, they begin at 12:30 p.m.)

Kenneth Woodward, general editor of the religion section of Newsweek, will consider the subject of Catholic identity in his talk "Growing Up Catholic" on September 14. John Simon, drama critic for New York Magazine, will discuss some aspects of the critic's function in his talk, "The Critic and Public Taste" on September 16.

On September 21, Stanley Kauffmann, film critic of The New Republic and author of A World on Film, will examine the crises in creation and criticism of motion pictures in his lecture "Looking at Films." Neo-romantic poet, Richard Eberhart, will read and comment on his own poems on October 7.

Senator William Proxmire will appear at 8:30 p.m. on October 25. Chairman of the Congressional Joint Economic Committee in the 92nd Congress and a ranking Democrat on the Senate Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee, Senator Proxmire has been an outspoken critic of waste in federal spending. He will speak on

"National Priorities: Dollars and Sense."

Dr. John Reumann, Professor of New Testament and Greek at the Lutheran Theological Seminary, will examine "Ecumenism: Dead or Alive?" on October 26. On October 28, Joe D. Jamieson, Special Agent in Charge of the Philadelphia Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, will discuss the purposes and nature of the Bureau.

Underwater archeologist, Dr. George F. Bass will discuss developments in his field on November 4. On November 9 Elizabeth Sewell, Professor of English at Hunter College, will lecture on "Lewis Carroll: Alice After 100 years."

On November 18, Kenneth Adam, visiting Danforth lecturer, will speak on "The Media and Government: Friends or Foes?" at 12:30 p.m. and "What Does McLuhan Mean?" at 8:30 p.m. Mr. Adam formerly wrote for the Manchester Guardian and subsequently headed the BBC Television network. On November 23, "Modern Sculpture and Beyond", will be the topic of John Tancock, Associate Curator of the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

Concerts to be offered include: The Philadelphia Chamber Soloists on September 30 at 8:00 p.m.; The Academie String Quartet on

Sen. Proxmire

J. Simon

October 21 at 8:30 ; and Charles Castieman, violinist, on December 2 at 12:30 p.m.

Panels planned are: The President's Forums on September 9 and December 9; "Graduate School: Is It Worth It?" on September 23; "Conscientious Objection" on October 19; and "La Salle and the Palestra" on November 11.

On October 5, there will be an exhibit on the Quadrangle of works by students in the College's Art Program.

In the College Union: Watercolors by Bohdan Osyczka will be exhibited September 5-22; oils by Mary Schweitzer may be seen October 1-31; and paper collages by Jean Olds will be featured October 5-22.

COLLEGE UNION FEATURE FILMS:

September 17 & 18

BOB & CAROL & TED & ALICE
6:00, 8:00, 10:00 p.m.

October 1 & 2

RACHEL, RACHEL
6:00, 10:15 p.m.
THE CARPETBAGGERS
7:45 p.m.

October 8 & 9

PSYCHO
6:00, 10:10 p.m.
TOPAZ
7:55 p.m.

October 16 & 17

ANNE OF THE THOUSAND DAYS
6:00, 8:45 p.m.

October 22 & 23

MY LITTLE CHICKADEE
6:00, 8:45 p.m.
BELLE OF THE NINETIES
7:30, 10:15 p.m.

November 5 & 6

ELVIRA MADIGAN
6:00, 8:00, 10:00 p.m.

AWARDS DINNER

SET FOR

NOVEMBER 19

The annual Alumni Awards dinner will be held on Friday evening, November 19 in the College Union Ballroom, it was announced by John J. Zaccaria, '53, chairman of the Awards Committee.

The change from last year's February date was made possible when the Homecoming dinner dance was moved this year to the Spring by the Alumni Board of Directors.

On this occasion the 30th annual Signum Fidei medal will be awarded. Also membership in the Alpha Epsilon Alumni Honor Society will be conferred on those members of the Senior class who qualify.

OPEN HOUSE – NOVEMBER 21

The annual campus "Open House" will be held on Sunday afternoon, November 21. The entire campus will be open to the public and many departments and clubs plan exhibits and demonstrations of interest. The Tap Off Rally will conclude the festivities and preview the 1971-72 varsity basketball team with an intra-squad scrimmage.

LA SALLE COLLEGE
ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
20TH STREET AND OLNEY AVENUE
PHILADELPHIA, PA. 19141