Records of the Admission Office (UA.01.004), La Salle University Archives, Connelly Library.

Scope and Content

The Records of the Admission Office are comprised of departmental reports and publicity materials used to recruit prospective students. The collection is arranged in four series. The Annual Reports series contains annual reports, report drafts, and correspondence related to the production of the annual reports. The Publications series contains publicity materials such as brochures, newsletters, flyers, and campus maps. These materials were produced to offer prospective students information about academic offerings and campus life at La Salle, as well tuition and financial aid information and advice about the admissions process. The Events series contains flyers, programs, and agendas for events organized for prospective students. The Financial Aid series contains documentation of Financial Aid Office policies and procedures and reports.
