MELVIN FLOYD TO RECEIVE SIGNUM FIDEI MEDAL

Melvin Floyd, who has successfully combined the careers of policeman and minister in working with Philadelphia's juveniles, will be awarded the thirtieth annual Signum Fidei medal for "contributions to the advancement of Christian principles" on November 19. The presentation of the Alumni Association's highest award will be made by Robert J. Schaefer, '54, President of the Association, at the annual Awards dinner that evening in the College Union Ballroom.

On This occasion also, alumni service awards will be conferred and the Alpha Epsilon Alumni Honor Society will induct members of the class of 1972.

This year's medalist has served on the Philadelphia police force for twelve years while completing his studies for the ministry at Philadelphia College of the Bible in the evening. He has worked with the Juvenile Aid Division, the Narcotics squad, and Gang Control. Reverend Floyd is the co-producer and star of a film "On Patrol for God" which has been shown to over 90,000 students in assembly programs during the past year and a half.

An assistant pastor of Faith Fellowship Baptist Church in the West Oak Lane section of the city, Reverend Floyd has been cited numerous times for his involvement with the city's youth and for his commitment to fostering better race relations.

Selected by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as Philadelphia's Outstanding Young Man of the Year for 1968, he was named one of the Ten Outstanding Young Men in America by the Jaycee's national organization in 1969. Also in 1969 he was chosen one of Ten Outstanding Policeman in America by the International Chiefs of Police. Most recently he was named Volunteer of the Year by the Delaware Valley Council of Volunteers.

Awards Committee Chairman John J. Zaccaria, '53, has announced that tickets for the Awards dinner are $7.00 per person and may be purchased at the Alumni Office.

The La Salle College Alumni Association "Signum Fidei" Medal derives its name from the motto of the Brothers of the Christian Schools — "Sign of Faith." It is given to recognize personal achievements in harmony with the established aims of La Salle College and the objectives of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, and is awarded annually to a person who has made "most noteworthy contributions to the advancement of Christian principles."

The medal has been awarded each year since 1942. Recipients have included: Bishop Fulton Sheen, R. Sargent Shriver, Senator Eugene J. McCarthy and Rev. Leon Sullivan. Last year's recipient was Lisa A. Richette, Esq., author of The Throwaway Children.

OPEN HOUSE SET FOR NOVEMBER 21

The annual Open House, which was moved to the fall last year and combined with the Tap Off Rally, will be held this year on Sunday afternoon,

November 21. The entire campus, featuring displays by student clubs and organizations, will be open from twelve noon until five p.m.

Of particular interest this year will be Olney Hall, the new classroom building which will be open to the public for the first time. The popular science

BASKETBALL NEWS

The 1971-72 edition of La Salle College Basketball will feature a rugged twenty-five game schedule, highlighted by the Explorers' participation in the Husker Classic at Lincoln, Nebraska (December 17 & 18) and the ECAC Quaker City Tournament at Philadelphia (December 27, 28 & 30).

Second year coach Paul Westhead's five will highlight their road show with contests against Western Kentucky at Bowling Green, Ky. (January 13), Loyola of the South at New Orleans (January 15), and Duquesne University at Pittsburgh (February 20).

The La Salle quintette will appear in Madison Square Garden against Hofstra December 4, travel to Miami for a first-ever meeting with Biscayne College (February 15), and renew acquaintance with Holy Cross at Worcester, Mass (February 12). In 1949, in their only previous meeting, La Salle defeated Holy Cross, 63-61. Opponents for the Husker are Baylor, Idaho and Nebraska Universities.

On the home front, the Explorers will confront Notre Dame (February 5) in the initial meeting between the two schools. Other colorful Palestra opponents include: Niagara (December 8); Tulsa (December 11); and Syracuse (February 20).

La Salle will also face super tough Big Five foes, St. Joseph's (January 5), Pennsylvania (January 26), Temple (February 2), and Villanova (February 26) at the Palestra.

Quaker City Tourney entries in addition to the Explorers are: Boston College, Fairfield, Manhattan, Massachusetts, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Villanova.

"DOO-RETT" NITE HIGHLIGHTS CALENDAR OF EVENTS

On December 10, 1971 the Basketball Club, under the chairmanship of James J. Kenyon, '63, plans to honor the greatest per game scorer in La Salle College History.

Yes, Ken Durrett leads the Cincinnati Royals against the Philadelphia 76'ers in an N.B.A. contest following an exhibition at 7:00 p.m. by the kings of court comedy – the Harlem Globetrotters.

Kenny's personal appearance in the Blue Line Club at the Spectrum will highlight the late night reception in his honor. All Alumni and friends are welcome, and the $3.00 admission cost will include hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar.

Tickets for the reception as well as for the twin bill can be procured by returning the attached reservation blank along with a check or money order or simply calling the Alumni Office at VI 8-8300 ext. 421 or 422.

Reservation deadline for the game and/or reception must be made by November 22.

The Basketball Club is looking for a big alumni turn-out to give Kenny the ROYAL welcome that he deserves.

Other club activities surrounding the Explorers' new season are listed below. For additional information on any of these functions, simply call the Alumni Office.

ONE FULL GLORIOUS WEEK IN . . .

Sunny

Italy

Where there really is something for everyone to do and see. Steeped in history, rich in art, bursting with music, sunshine and beauty, spiced with good food and wine, Italy welcomes you to the vacation adventure of the year!

5 days and nights

Rome!

A world in itself — cosmopolitan, warm, gay and hospitable. No other place in the world offers so many historically exciting sights to see in one city. The incomparable St. Peter's Square and the Vatican, the Bernini statues, the ruins of the Forum, the Piazza Espagne with its colorful spanish steps, The Catacombs, The Pantheon, the fabulous Villa Borghese gardens, the art masterpieces of Michelangelo, Titian and Leonardo Da Vinci, the Colosseum, the fountain of Trevi at night — the romance and magnificence of Rome's great past permeates the city and you are a part of it all!

3 days and 2 nights in the

Romantic South

NAPLES! POMPEII! SORRENTO! CAPRI!

A short ride via air-conditioned motor coach down the "Highway of the Sun" takes you to sunny Southern Italy. Olive trees and vineyards, impossibly steep slopes, cascades of brilliant flowers, sheltered bays and pastel hued fishing villages are all a part of the carefree South. Meet the gay animated Neapolitans of Naples, the south's bustling central harbor. Walk through the awesome ruins of Pompeii and visualize life as it was almost two thousand years ago . . . bargain hunt in the quaint shops along the narrow harbor streets of Sorrento . . . take a scenic hydrofoil ride to the tiny island of Capri — romantic paradise of tropical trees and plants rising high above the clear, blue-green Mediterranean.

YOU'LL ENJOY DELUXE HOTELS THROUGHOUT YOUR STAY

Whether you stay at the Cavalieri Hilton, Hotel Excelsior or other famed hotel, you'll find yourself in one of Rome's most elegant and luxurious hotels — and only minutes away from the heart of the great city. In the South your hotel is either the Hotel Tramontano or the Grand Hotel Riviera which are picturesquely set in the heart of one of Italy's most beautiful cities, Sorrento. Your rooms throughout your Roman Carnival are luxurious with private bath and air-conditioning.
