Words to the Wise

The African American Students League has survived another year. We really need to say thank you to our officers for their hard work and dedication.

Mary Thomas, who was often discouraged always managed to come through for us. She has represented us on different committees, while trying to keep the AASL interesting.

Tracey, our vice, managed to get a ticket from campus security while running countless errands for us during Open House.

Gina, who managed being secretary of our organization while president of the Black Residents Support Council not only did agendas, but also "legwork" for different activities.

MaryAnn was not only responsible for fliers being everywhere, but also worked hard with the other officers on making sure that activities were planned.

The officers could not have done this alone. Dietrich, James and Michael, thanks for being at most of the meetings and being on the committees.

Of course, we must also thank Ms. Carvahlo, our sponsor, for watching over us and making sure that no major mistakes were made.

We would also like to thank everyone who has attended a meeting, or an activity, or said an encouraging word. We really appreciate you.

Good luck on your finals and have a great summer !!

This and That

Lift Every Voice

Hurtful Words...

by Kahana Chin

There is a world within the True World.
The world of the few, the Group.
I hear the children playing.
Laughter, giggling...those common sounds.
Then a small cry is heard that the world of the few...the sound of that lonely outside child.

I know why the laughter was so gleeful;
It was from a subtle demon,
Hurtful Words.

The Anti-Christ of all joyful talking...

Bitter, stinging-do you hear that child's heart beating from over there?!

To that child, the demon's laughter turn the world upside down forever!!

Thanks to our 1990-1991 officers for a job well done!!
