Vol. VIII
Number 3

Jan. - Feb., 1974

O Wind,

If Winter comes, can Spring be far behind?

The quad is serene in its mantle of white and silver. . . basketball is king. . . meetings abound: Downtown Club, chapters, professional groups. . . Reunion committees prepare to bring together as many of their classmates as can be lured back to campus to mark their sundry milestones.

DOWNTOWN CLUB OFFERS

2 JOINT LUNCHEONS

Downtown Club Chairman Magnus J. Schaebler has announced plans for the eighth annual joint luncheon with the alumni of St. Joseph's College on January 29, the day before the big game. Also announced were plans to repeat the joint luncheon with Villanova alumni, first held last year, on February 19.

The friendly bread-breaking with the arch-rival "Hawk" will take place at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel, Crystal Ballroom, at 9th and Chestnut Streets at "high noon". Coaches McKinney and Westhead will offer their often divergent views of the upcoming game, prizes will be awarded and the stage set for the seventy-first meeting on a basketball court of teams representing the two institutions (The series stands at 35-35!)

Tickets for the luncheon are $6.00 and may be procured by sending a check payable: La Salle College to the Alumni Office, Phila., PA 19141

The luncheon with Villanova alums will be held on February 19 at the Penn Center Holiday Inn. The Wildcat's new head coach Rollie Massimino will be a guest speaker along with Paul Westhead. Tickets for this luncheon will be available also through the Alumni Office.

BASKETBALL CLUB NEWS

The Alumni Basketball Club is to be congratulated on another very successful charter flight — this time to the "Big Sun" tourney in St. Petersburg, Fla. (People already are asking about a trip to New Orleans and the "Sugar Bowl" next December.)

Club President James J. Kenyon announced three more major activities for the season, which are open to all alumni and friends of the College.

In connection with the St. Joseph's game on January 30, the Club will hold a pre-game dinner at Cavanaugh's, 32nd and Market Streets, starting at 6:00 p.m. A steak dinner and a ticket to the game are offered for $10.00 per person.

For the Sunday afternoon February 3 game with Temple, the Club will feature a post game buffet dinner at Cavanaugh's, plus a game ticket for $10.00 per person.

The sixth annual Awards dinner to honor Coach Westhead and his '73-'74 Explorers will be held on Sunday, March 31, 1974 at the Shack Restaurant, 7133 Roosevelt Boulevard.

Tickets for these events may be obtained through the Alumni Office — 848 - 8300, ext. 421.

Miscellany

New York Chapter will lunch at Pepy's Pomme Souffle 157 E. 55th Street on January 25. Guest will be Ada Steinmetz '74, former Rhodes scholarship candidate. . . Alumni Veep Joe Gindhart, '58, is organizing a committee within the Law Society to honor newly elected La Salle men on the bench. . . Pittsburgh Chapter President Tom Gillespie, '61 is planning a reception to follow the Duquesne game on February 17.

CONCERT AND LECTURE PROGRAM

Brother Emery C. Mollenhauer, Vice President for Academic Affairs, has announced the concert and lecture series for the coming semester. Alumni are cordially invited to attend all programs. (Except as noted, all programs are presented in the College Union Theatre).

All-time basketball great, former coach and former Philadelphia city controller Tom Gola, of the Class of '55, will appear on Wednesday, January 23 at 1:30 p.m. to discuss "Philadelphia Politics in 1974."

The President's forum will be held on Monday, January 28 at 12:30 p.m. in Olney Hall, Room 100.

On Wednesday, February 6 at 1:30 p.m. poet Anne Sexton, Pulitzer prize winner in 1966, will offer a reading.

Kenneth Carstens, executive director of the International Defense Fund for South Africa, will detail some of the work of his organization at 12:30 p.m. on February 18 in Olney 100.

In cooperation with the College Union committees, the film Here are Ladies starring Siobahn McKenna will be presented on February 25 at 12:30 and 6:00 p.m.

Jessica Savitch

KYW-TV's New Jersey bureau chief and week-end anchorperson Jessica Savitch will discuss some of the problems encountered by "A Woman in the Media" on March 13 in Olney 100 at 1:30 p.m.

Jerre Mangione, professor of English and head of the creative writing program at the University of Pennsylvania, will discuss "Growing up Sicilian" at 11:30 on March 18 in Olney 100.

On March 20 The Lindback Executive Lecture Series will feature Theodore H. Mecke, Jr., vice president of the Public Relations Group of Ford Motor Company and a member of the College's Board of Trustees.

Pulitzer prize winning historian James Thomas Flexner will offer "The True George Washington" on March 25 in Olney 100 at 12:30 p.m.

The second President's forum of the semester will be open for questions and discussion of campus issues on April 30 at 1:30 p.m. in Olney 100.

Charles G. Simpson, Chairman of the Governor's Task Force on Energy and retired vice-president and general manager of UGI, will be the second guest of the Lindback Executive Lecture Series on April 8 at a time and place to be announced.

On April 17 the La Salle Singers, under the direction of Mr. Gail Poch, will present a varied program of classical and contemporary selections in their 1:30 p.m. concert.

EDUCATORS PLAN GALA MARCH 22

The La Salle College Education Alumni Association will hold a Grand Reunion on campus on Friday evening, March 22. All alumni and alumnae engaged in the field of education are cordially invited to attend.

The affair will be held in the College Union Ballroom from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Education Alumni President Francis J. Hoban expects that many alums involved in public, archdiocesan and private schools will be on hand for the festivities. Committees are being formed and are contacting La Salle people in the city and in the Pennsylvania and New Jersey suburbs. It is hoped also that alumni teaching in colleges and universities will be able to attend.

Along with the opportunity to renew acquaintances and meet new friends in education, there will be entertainment, dancing, refreshments and prizes.

For tickets contact the Alumni Office, 848 - 8300, ext. 421, or return the form below.
