LaSALLE COLLEGE EXPLORER NEWS

THE "STAG" STRIKES BACK!

After a one year hiatus the annual Stag Reunion returns to alumni calendar on September 6, by action of the Alumni Board of Directors.

Although the '72 Stag was billed as "the last annual. . ." sentiment among Board members (mostly male) was strong enough to dictate a return of the popular "beer bust."

The "Stag" will not be limited to men, but no one has suggested a suitable name change so, for the present at least, the "Alumni Stag" it will be.

Chairman Julius E. Fioravanti, Esq., '53 (also Vice President of the Alumni Association) is pleased to announce that the taps will be turned on at 9 p.m. on the 6th and the $4.00 admission charge entitles you to as much beer and pretzels as you care to have. Hot dogs and sauerkraut will be available for purchase, as will be mixed drinks.

There will be sports films, prizes, cards for those wishing to play a friendly hand or two, and NO SPEECHES.

Tickets may be purchased by sending a check for $4.00 for each ticket desired to the Alumni Office, La Salle College, Philadelphia, Pa. 19141.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST ALUMNI

The second meeting of La Salle Alumni in the Pacific Northwest will take place in Seattle on September 25 at the Holiday Inn's "Top of the Inn" across from the Sea-Tac Airport. Cocktails at 7 p.m. will be followed by dinner. Wives are invited. Bill Kummerle, '61, is coordinating (call 442-1034).

ADMISSIONS COMMITTEE

Bernard Rafferty, '48, chairman of the Alumni Admissions Committee, has issued a call for volunteers to help with this year's program.

Alumni willing to contact prospective students or to make themselves available to provide information on their own professions should contact Alumni Director Jim McDonald by writing or calling the Alumni Office (215) 848-8300, ext. 421.

CONCERT AND LECTURE SERIES

Brother Emery C. Mollenhauer, Vice President for Academic Affairs, has announced the concert and lecture series for the coming semester. Alumni are cordially invited to attend all programs. Unless otherwise noted, the programs are at 12:30 p.m. in the College Union Theatre.

- September 19 — President's Forum, College Union 301
- September 26 — Renee C. Fox, Professor and Chairman of Sociology at the University of Pennsylvania will speak on "The Courage to Fail: A Social View of Organ Transplants and Dialysis".
- October 8 — Dennis Clark, Executive Director of the Samuel S. Fels Fund and author of several books and numerous articles on urban problems and urban history discusses the history of "The Irish in Philadelphia" and its relation to the problems of modern Ireland.
- October 10 — State Senator Charles Dougherty, topic to be announced.
- October 24 — Russell L. Ackoff, Silberberg Professor of Systems Sciences, University of Pennsylvania, topic to be announced.
- November 12 — Monroe Levin and Cameron McGraw, piano-duettists, perform a four-hand repertoire on one piano rather than the usual two piano format. The Washington Post called their performance "one of the season's most completely enjoyable and stimulating concerts."
- November 14 — Charles C. Price, Benjamin Franklin Professor of Chemistry, University of Pennsylvania, discusses the remarkable progress in understanding the origin and evolution of the universe and of life and some of philosophical and pragmatic concepts which flow from these new insights in a talk entitled "Evolution and Order."
- November 19 — Richard Howard, poet, critic, and translator, will give a reading from his poems. Mr. Howard's Untitled Subjects received the 1970 Pulitzer Prize for Poetry.
- November 26 — The debut concert of La Salle's new resident musical group, 8:00 p.m.
- December 5 — The President's Forum, College Union 301.

ALUMNI USE OF HAYMAN HALL

New procedures — Effective September 4, 1974

All alumni cards for Hayman Hall issued prior to September 4, 1974 become invalid as of October 1, 1974.

New membership cards will be issued during the month of September. Those holding cards are asked to exchange them for the new ones during that month.

The revised annual fee charged will be $15.00 for new members. However, if the alumnus or alumna has a current pass expiring during the year, he or she will be required to pay a pro rata share of the yearly fee. For cards expiring during the first third of the year, October 1 through January 31, 1975, the fee will be $10.00; for those expiring February 1 to May 31, 1975, the fee will be $5.00; for those expiring June 1 through September 30, 1975, there will be no charge.

The new cards will be laminated, include a photograph of the holder and will be renewable each year in September.

To obtain the new card an alumnus should come to Hayman Hall, have his photo taken, fill out the record card and pay the required fee. Information regarding the dates on which the alumnus can complete the requirements for admittance can be procured by phoning either the Athletic or Alumni office, (215) 848-8300, ext. 456 or 421. A recent photo 1¼" x 1" may be supplied by the alumnus. However, there will be no additional charge for the photo service. If the alumnus has a pass, he will retain it until his new one is ready; if not, he will be issued a temporary one.

Anyone applying for a card after September will have to call the Alumni Office for the necessary form and make his own arrangements for the I. D. photo.

A new feature enables an alumnus or an alumna to obtain an additional regular membership card (at the $15.00 rate) for a spouse.

Complimentary visitor's passes for out-of-town alumni and one-time users will be available at the Alumni Office during normal business hours Monday through Friday. If there are any questions on new procedures, call the Alumni Office, 848-8300, ext. 421.

LAS VEGAS NITE - OCT.12

The Alumni Association's fourth Las Vegas Nite has been scheduled for Saturday evening October 12 in the College Union Ballroom, it was announced by Alumni President John J. McNally, '64. McNally has named John P. Gallagher, '62, chairman of the planning committee.

The popular event seeks to re-create the famed gambling capital on campus for the enjoyment of alumni and their friends. Various games of chance, including roulette, dice and black jack, will be featured and door prizes will be awarded. An orchestra will provide music for dancing or listening.

The $20.00 per couple charge includes an open bar (9 p.m. to 1 a.m.) a buffet and $2.00 worth of chips to start the evening.

Tickets may be procured at the Alumni Office, La Salle College, Philadelphia, Pa. 19141.
