Re: Enrollment Update

The final University-wide enrollment numbers are on the attached chart. Some additional highlights are as follows:

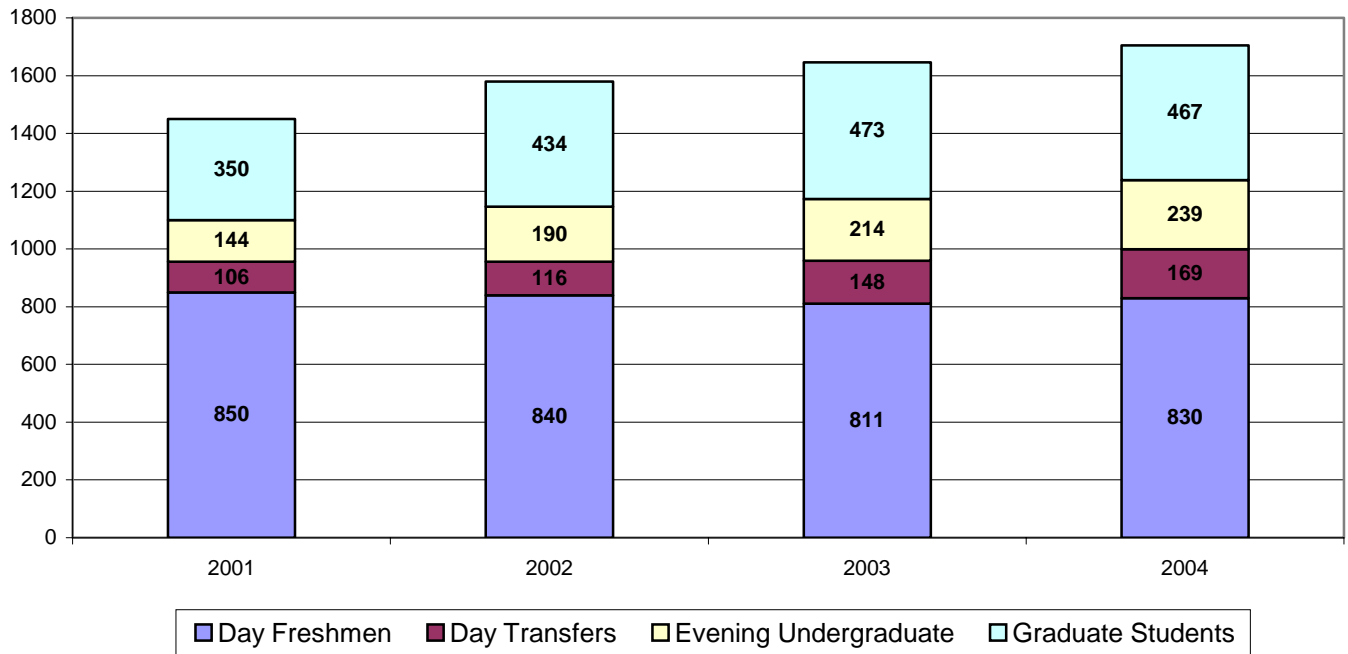

- This semester's total enrollment is the highest since 1990.
- The total number of new students this semester – day, evening, and graduate combined – is a 23% increase over four years ago.
- Undergraduate freshman classes over the last four years have averaged 833 students.
- Racial or ethnic minorities account for 20% of the new freshman class, up from 14% four years ago.
- La Salle students come from 37 states, the District of Columbia, and 26 foreign countries.
- Undergraduate enrollment in the School of Nursing (day and evening combined) has increased 159% in the last four years.
- The number of graduate students enrolled this semester is the largest in La Salle history.
- The four largest departments in the University based upon the number of student majors account for 44% of the student enrollment.

Department	Number of Majors
• Nursing	993
• Psychology	635
• Communication	595
• Education	500

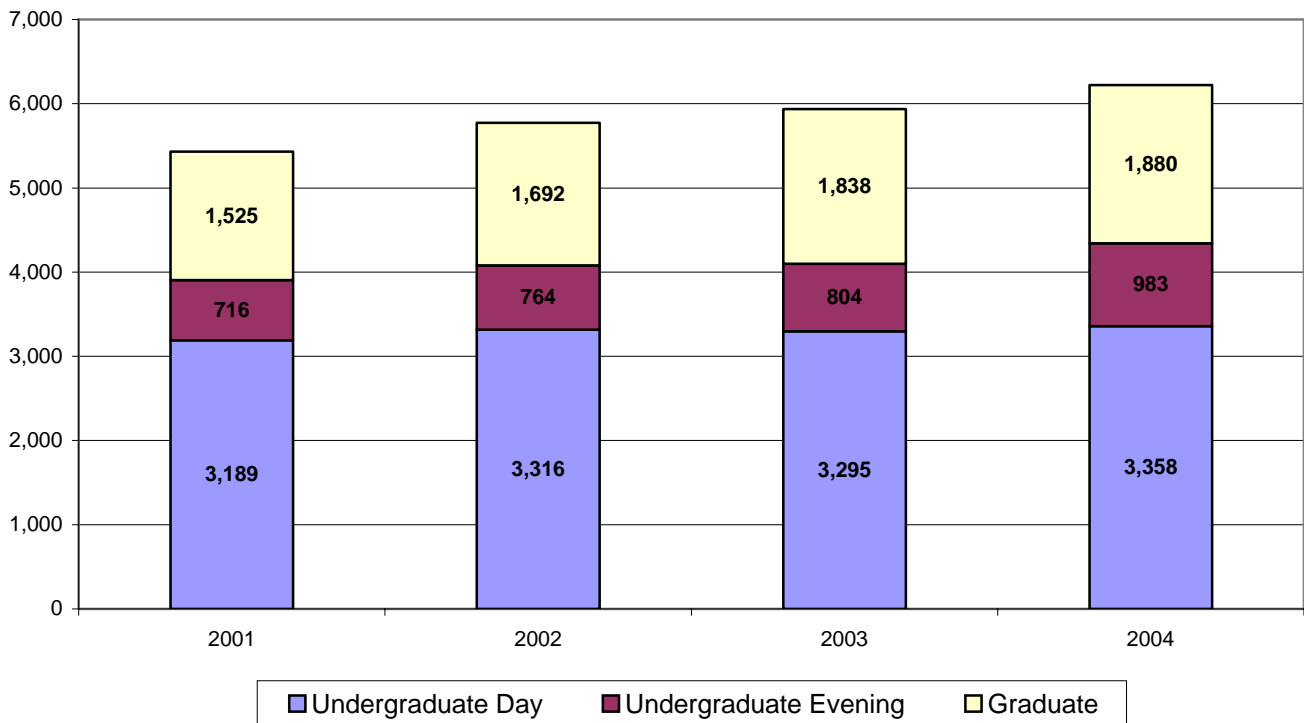

- The percent of La Salle day students who report that they are the first in their families to attend college: 37%.
- The percent of La Salle day students from households whose total income is below the national median ($42,400): 24%.
- The percent of La Salle day students who qualify for a Pell Grant, the federal grant program for undergraduate students from low or lower-middle income families: 20%.
- The Student Financial Services Office will process more than $76 million in aid from all sources: state, federal, private, and institutional scholarships, grants, loans, and work-study.

Procedures for Submitting Items for Inclusion in the Campus News

All information must be submitted electronically as text by selecting a web form located in the Campus News channel in the mylasalle portal (located in the Staff Services Tab).

- Accompanying graphics may be submitted separately in the following manner:
 - via e-mail to the campusnews@lasalle.edu. The article title must be included in the subject line of the e-mail.
 - via 1/4 floppy disk or CD
 - will be limited to one per article, unless a specific need for additional graphics is articulated. (EX: If La Salle and another organization partner for an event, the logos of both La Salle and the partnering organization would certainly be permissible.)
- PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING: Graphics submitted may be resized to fit the document layout. Logos, signatures, and other graphics that are likely to be used frequently can be kept on file for future use. Please add a comment to this effect when you submit your graphic.

If you have any questions or need assistance...

We realize that the community is being asked to work a bit differently in terms of submitting articles to be included in the Campus News.

By supplying standard web forms for your use, we are attempting to create efficient processes that will make it easier for you to submit articles. For example, employment postings will be automatically routed to the appropriate individuals in Human Resources for review prior to being sent to the Campus News.

We very much appreciate your patience and your cooperation with these new procedures.

If you need assistance with submissions, please contact Jim Sell at 215-991-3615 or jsell@lasalle.edu
