

9-1975

Explorer News: September 1975

La Salle University

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.lasalle.edu/explorer_news

Recommended Citation

La Salle University, "Explorer News: September 1975" (1975). La Salle Alumni Association Explorer News. 30.
http://digitalcommons.lasalle.edu/explorer_news/30

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the University Publications at La Salle University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in La Salle Alumni Association Explorer News by an authorized administrator of La Salle University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact careyc@lasalle.edu.

EXPLORER NEWS

BICENTENNIAL ACTIVITIES

La Salle College has been officially recognized by the American Revolution Bicentennial Association as a participant in the Bicentennial Colleges and Universities program. Our calendar of activities, not yet complete, began with the raising of the Bicentennial flag on September 4. (This will be recorded in the next issue of LA SALLE magazine.)

Bernard Peiffer will discuss "Jazz in Europe: America's Musical Influence" on September 30 at 12:30 P.M. in the College Union Theatre. That same evening the Bernard Peiffer Jazz Trio will appear in concert in the theatre at 8 o'clock.

On October 14, soprano Victoria Villamil will present "A Program of American Song from 1759 to the Present" at 12:30 P.M. in the C.U. Theatre.

Dr. Murray Friedman will analyze "The Tribal Basis of American Life" on November 4 at 12:30 in College Union Room 307. On November 6 Patricia Carbine will consider "The Status of Women in the Bicentennial Year" at 12:30 P.M. in the Theatre.

On Sunday, November 9, the entire campus will be open from 1:00 to 5:00 P.M. for the Bicentennial Open House sponsored by the Student Government. A Colonial Soldiers' Encampment will be featured.

Continued page 2, column 1

DOWNTOWN CLUB TO HEAR MAYORALTY CANDIDATES

Charles W. Bowser, Esq.

The Downtown Club will begin its thirteenth season of luncheons in center city on October 16 with two of Philadelphia's mayoralty candidates as guest speakers.

Councilman Thomas M. Foglietta, the Republican candidate, and Charles W. Bowser, an Independent, have agreed to appear on this occasion, it was announced by Club Chairman Terence K. Heaney.

An attorney and urban consultant, Mr. Bowser is managing partner of the law firm of Pechner, Sacks, Dorfman. He attended Philadelphia public schools and received his LL.B. degree in 1957 from Temple University. He served as executive director of the Philadelphia Anti-Poverty Action Committee from 1965 to 1967 and as Deputy to Mayor James H. J. Tate, 1967 to 1969. From June of 1968 until April of this year he served as executive director of the Philadelphia Urban Coalition

Councilman Thomas M. Foglietta

Councilman Foglietta, now serving in his fifth term, was the youngest person ever elected to Philadelphia City Council when he was first elected in 1955 at the age of 26. He attended St. Joseph's College, Temple University Law School and the University of Pennsylvania's Fels Institute of Law and Government. A three term minority floor leader, he also practises law with the firm of Foglietta and Ziccardi.

The luncheon will be held in the Rose Garden of the Bellevue Stratford Hotel, Broad and Walnut Streets. Tickets are $6.50 per person and may be obtained through the Alumni Office.

BICENTENNIAL ACTIVITIES

continued from page 1

Dr. John C. White of the Theology Department will discuss "Religious Revolution: Inter-religious Struggle and Cooperation in the United States" on November 13 at 12:30 P.M. in the Theatre.

Through the Urban Studies Center, La Salles is co-sponsoring a "Great Issues in the American Experience" program Co-sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities, Philadelphia '76, Inc., the Northwest Interfaith Movement, the Clergy of Greater Germantown, The Greater Germantown Alliance and the Germantown Historical Society, programs on these great issues will be offered at various sites in Germantown during the year.

Topics include: "Finding Security for Change" at the Church of the Brethren, 6611 Germantown Avenue, from 3 P.M. to 6 P.M. on October 19; "The Politics of Pluralism" at the First United Methodist Church of Germantown, Germantown Avenue and High Street, 3 P.M. to 6 P.M. on November 16.

All programs are free and the public is invited to attend.

The Philadelphia Bar Association, in cooperation with La Salle College Music Theatre, will stage the play "1776" in the College Union Theatre over three week-ends starting April 23, 1976.

CONCERT AND LECTURE SERIES

Other programs of possible interest to alumni, sponsored by the Concert and Lecture Series, have been announced by Brother Emery C. Mollenhauer, Vice President for Academic Affairs. All are at 12:30 P.M. in the College Union Theatre, unless otherwise noted.

Dr. Arthur L. Hennessy of the History Department will examine "The Role of Women in Mao's China" in College Union 307 on October 2.

Philadelphia Bulletin columnist Rose De Wolf will review our legal system and "The Best Defense" on October 7.

On October 16 Michael Dann will consider the revolution in communications technology and its social and economic impact in his topic: "The Wired City - The Wired Person - Both are Coming".

Samuel Hazo will offer a poetry reading on October 21.

On October 28, in co-sponsorship with the Philosophy Department's series on Morality and Social Reconstruction, the Concert and Lecture series will present Robert Johann on "Persons and Values".

SUBURBAN CLUB TO HEAR WESTHEAD

The Suburban Luncheon Club, initiated last Spring, will open its first full year of operation on October 1 with head basketball coach Paul Westhead as guest speaker. The luncheon will begin promptly at 12:30 at the Valley Forge Hilton's Paine Room. Pre-luncheon drinks will be available at the adjacent "Sign of the Sun."

Originally scheduled to meet with the club last April, Coach Westhead was unexpectedly called out of town and was unable to appear at that time. This possibly fortuitous turn of events may mean the coach will be better prepared to offer the assembled alumni his prognostications on the eve of a new season.

Westhead enjoyed his most successful season at La Salle last year, finishing with a record of 22 wins and 7 losses, winning the Dayton Invitational, the Sugar Bowl, the East Coast Conference and the "Big 5" championship before falling to Syracuse in the N.C.A.A. playoffs.

Luncheon tickets are $5.50 and may be obtained by sending a check, payable: La Salle College, to the Alumni Office, La Salle College, Phila., PA 19141. Guests of alumni are welcome to attend.

JOURNALIST TO ADDRESS WASHINGTON CHAPTER

The Washington Chapter of the Alumni Association will sponsor a luncheon for area alumni and their friends on October 22 at a location to be announced.

Guest speaker will be Lawrence M. O'Rourke, Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin. A native Philadelphian (St. Thomas More High School and Villanova University, '59), O'Rourke has been an accredited White House correspondent for over ten years and has traveled in recent years with Presidential parties to such places as the Soviet Union and China.

Two years ago Mr. O'Rourke proved to be a most interesting speaker when he appeared at a Downtown Club luncheon in Philadelphia.

The luncheon, which is priced at $5.00 per person, will start at Noon. Reservations are necessary and may be made by sending a check (payable: La Salle College) to the Alumni Office.

"EVENING IN LAS VEGAS" SET FOR OCTOBER 11

HAYMAN HALL OPENS NEW SEASON

An alumnus, an alumna, or a spouse of an alumnus/a may obtain, through the Alumni Office, a membership card to use the facilities of Hayman Hall. The charge is $15.00 for the year and two recent photos 1¼" x 1" must be supplied with the application. For application or additional information call Mrs. Anne Hughes in the Alumni Office, 848-8300, ext. 421.

* * * * *

Anyone interested in the formation of an alumni basketball league is asked to contact Joe O'Donnell, the director of Hayman Hall, at 848-8300, ext. 456.

CLASS OF '75 ELECTION

Members of the Class of '75 balloted during the month of August and elected twelve representatives to the Alumni Association's Board of Directors. Proportional representation entitled the Day school to nine representatives and the Evening Division to three.

Elected to represent the Day division were: Diane Bones, Maureen Conley, Sarah Green, Robert Mancuso, Patricia McDermott, Marianne Salmon, Dominic Salvatori, James Spaziano and Rita Urwitz.

Evening representatives elected were: William James, Michele Kaczalek and Joseph Kane.

They will commence their two year terms at the Alumni Board meeting on September 24.

The Alumni Association's 5th annual "Evening in Las Vegas" will be held on Saturday evening, October 11 from 9:00 p.m. 'til 1:00 a.m. on campus in the College Union Ballroom.

The committee, under the co-chairmanship of Ted Groody, '53, and John Fallon, '67, has put together another very attractive package for just $25.00/couple or $13.00 for those who wish to come alone. Included in the price will be an open bar, an elaborate buffet, dancing and $1.00 in free chips/person.

The games will include chuck-a-luck, horseracing, over and under, roulette, blackjack and others. Doorprizes will also be given out on the occasion.

Due to the rise in attendance figures from 198 persons in 1972 to 347 last year reservations for this year's Monte Carlo Night must be made in advance and no one will be able to purchase tickets at the door. To assure a reservation prepare a stamped, self-addressed envelope and mail it, along with a check or money order in the proper amount payable: LA SALLE COLLEGE, to the Alumni Office.

Additional information may be procured by contacting the Alumni Office at (215) 848- 8300, ext. 421.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES OFFICE INFORMATION

This spring, La Salle College established a new office which will serve the special needs of the College community under the direction of John Veen, '59, who served as the Union Director for 16 years. Among other things, he will be administering an expanded travel program.

The following tours are available through the Special Activities Office:

1. Disney World - Nov. 26-30 $159.00 & $30.00 adults, Children, 12 or under only $119.00 & $30.00 Eastern Air lines, Carlton Hotel, Phila. departure, all first class.

2. Cruise on Queen Elizabeth II - Dec. 9-13 $260.00 to $305.00 total cost. except $8.00 Nassau head tax.

3. Hawaii - Dec. 27-Jan. 4 $389.00 & $60.00 Princess Kaiulani (delux room, New Tower Bldg.) American Air Lines, Phila. Departure, many extras.

4. London - Jan. 3-Jan. 10 $279.00 plus 15% and tax and service, expect a Phila. departure, British Air lines, International Hotel. All first class includes some meals, tours, show tickets, extras.

5. Acapulco - Jan. 4-12 $399.00 & 15% 9 days and 8 nights, Marriott Hotel on the Beach - includes most meals and many extras. Phila. departure.

6. Ski tours - Prices stated is total no extra tax and service charge. Price varies with number per room. All tours leave directly from La Salle College.

A. Vermont - Jan. 9-11 from $64.00

B. Massachusetts Jan. 30 to Feb. 1 Mt. Tom from $64.00

C. New York State Feb. 13-15 from $64.00

D. Canada March 2-7 staying at a super delux hotel in Quebec estimated total price including meals plus extras is $119.00

This information is subject to change. For information on each tour call VI 8 8300 ext. 312, or write La Salle College, Special Activities Office, Phila., Pa. 19141.

ALUMNI CALENDAR

ALUMNI BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING: COLLEGE UNION BUILDING	SEPTEMBER 24
SUBURBAN LUNCHEON: VALLEY FORGE HILTON	OCTOBER 1
ALUMNI TRIP TO IRELAND DEPARTS	OCTOBER 5
"EVENING IN LAS VEGAS": COLLEGE UNION BALLROOM	OCTOBER 11
DOWNTOWN CLUB LUNCHEON: BELLEVUE-STRATFORD HOTEL	OCTOBER 16
WASHINGTON CHAPTER LUNCHEON	OCTOBER 22
ALUMNI BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING	NOVEMBER 12
ANNUAL AWARDS DINNER: COLLEGE UNION BALLROOM	NOVEMBER 21