Scope and Content

The Records of Individual Student Organizations provide perspective on student life at La Salle from the 1880s to the present. The collection consists of founding documents, meeting minutes, agendas, scrapbooks, flyers, events programs, and other promotional materials created by student organizations on campus. Each organization's file has varying amounts of these types of materials.

The collection includes records of both active and inactive student groups, as well as records of some that were recently founded.

Preferred Citation note

Records of Individual Student Organizations (UA.01.049), La Salle University Archives, Connelly Library.

Separated Materials note

The records of La Salle Music Theater, La Salle Singers, The Masque, fraternities, and sororities were separated from the main collection of student group records. The records of each of these groups have been treated as individual collections. Please contact the Archives for access.

Arrangement Note

Files are arranged alphabetically by organization name.
