From the Office of the Provost

Office of the ProvostApril 19, 2005

Dear Colleagues,

I ask you to join me in welcoming Dr. Charles K. Barletta as the founding Dean of the College of Continuing and Professional Studies. Chuck began work at La Salle on April 1.

Dr. Barletta comes to us from Syracuse University where he was Dean of Continuing Education and University College. Prior to assuming the dean's position at Syracuse, Chuck had spent over twenty years in continuing education in several institutions. He received his Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration from Michigan State University and has ties to the Christian Brothers as a graduate of Christian Brothers Academy.

Dr. Barletta has been very successful in program development and corporate relations and we look forward to the leadership he will bring as La Salle recommits itself to the "adult" learner. Welcome, Chuck.

Dear La Salle Faculty and Staff,

PEER Educators would like to invite you and your pets to “Kissing and Petting” – a PEER Educator Stress Buster Week event – Thursday, April 28th from 4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. to be held on the main quad (rain date: Friday, April 29 3:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.). If you would like to bring your pet, please contact either Brad Himmelstein (x2539 or himmelb1@lasalle.edu) or Mary Tramel (x2511 or tramel1@lasalle.edu). You can also contact Dr. Lane B. Neubauer- advisor of PEER Educators (x5157 or Neubauer@lasalle.edu) for more information. Water and dog treats will be provided and we ask that all dogs be on a leash during the event.

It has been well documented the impact that pets have in relieving stress. Heart rate and blood pressure decreases during stressful events when pets are present. We invite you to share the company of your beloved pet with our students to help decrease the stress of final exams which begin the following week.

We look forward to seeing you and meeting your pets on April 28th.

Sincerely

Brad Himmelstien

DSA Meeting Minutes

Division of Student Affairs

Student Affairs Committee Meeting—March 15, 2005

Members Present: Joseph Cicala (chair), James Brightman, Katie Daniels, Ricardo Johnson (for Leo Schwartz), Evelyn Klein, Kevin Martin, Lane Neubauer, Michael Nicholas, Erin Oakes, Patrice Oppliger, Rejeanne Richard, Nikki Schwartz.

Members Absent: Margaret McCoe, Leo Schwartz.

1. Mr. Martin led us in a moment of prayer and reflection.
2. Members were reminded that our next and final scheduled meeting for the semester will be on April 20, 2005 at 1:00 p.m. in Union 310.
3. Members were briefed on a security concern in Sts. Edward and Francis Halls and the status of the University's responses to/resolution of the concern. The emerging nature of the situation precluded the sharing of some of the details. (There also was an advisory notice to the residents of Sts. Edward and Francis Halls and the situation was resolved in a timely manner.)
4. Dr. Cicala shared with the members the brief discussion regarding our Council for the Advancement of Standards (CAS) study of Career Services at the most recent Council of Deans meeting. The academic deans and other members of the council were asked by the Provost to share their own impressions of Career Services work and their schools' and departments' working relationships with Career Services. Dr. Cicala and Mr. Lamorte will include information received in the final version of the study document and, more importantly, in the formulation of future action plans.
5. Discussion centered on those sections of our CAS study of University Ministry and Service (UMAS) that have been completed and submitted to date, in preparation for our forthcoming discussion with UMAS staff at our April meeting. A good portion of our discussion pertained to the perceived degrees to which UMAS, in its campus ministry functions, serves the needs of Catholic students and students of other faiths. Members agreed that the results of the needs assessment/student survey conducted by UMAS in spring 2004 will be critical to our study of UMAS and to the development of future action plans.

Respectfully Submitted By:
Joseph J. Cicala, Ph.D.

Advisor Search Announcement

We seek an advisor for La Salle University's student newspaper, The Collegian. This is a part-time, academic year position.

The advisor actively advises the editors and staff on all aspects of professional journalism; creates and maintains a professional environment within which the editors and staff can produce a newspaper that will most effectively serve the university community; establishes procedures for staff recruitment, training, and promotion; assists with business and managerial matters; and serves as liaison for the Student Press Committee (of which the advisor is a member) in its post-publication reviews of The Collegian or, when requested, pre-publication reviews.

It is most desirable that the advisor be a full-time member of the faculty or administration of La Salle University. Consideration also will be given to part-time faculty or staff members and to full-time journalism professionals or advanced graduate students. The advisor should be able to work with students who have varying levels of ability and interest and should be (or become) knowledgeable about the university's people and programs. The advisor should have experience with and skill in the publication of a student newspaper and should be familiar with the legal and ethical issues related to the student press at a private Catholic university.

The advisor is appointed by the Provost upon the recommendation of the Dean of Students and the Student Press Committee, and is compensated with a competitive stipend.

Letters of application, accompanied by appropriate supporting materials, or inquiries may be directed to:

Joseph J. Cicala, Ph.D.

Procedures for Submitting Items for Inclusion in the Campus News

All information must be submitted electronically as text by selecting a web form located in the Campus News channel in the mylasalle portal (located in the Staff Services Tab).

- Accompanying graphics may be submitted separately in the following manner:
 - via e-mail to the campusnews@lasalle.edu. The article title must be included in the subject line of the e-mail.
 - via 1/4 floppy disk or CD
 - will be limited to one per article, unless a specific need for additional graphics is articulated. (EX: If La Salle and another organization partner for an event, the logos of both La Salle and the partnering organization would certainly be permissible.)
- PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING: Graphics submitted may be resized to fit the document layout. Logos, signatures, and other graphics that are likely to be used frequently can be kept on file for future use. Please add a comment to this effect when you submit your graphic.

If you have any questions or need assistance...

We realize that the community is being asked to work a bit differently in terms of submitting articles to be included in the Campus News.

By supplying standard web forms for your use, we are attempting to create efficient processes that will make it easier for you to submit articles. For example, employment postings will be automatically routed to the appropriate individuals in Human Resources for review prior to being sent to the Campus News.

If you need assistance with submissions, please contact Jim Sell at 215-991-3615 or jsell@lasalle.edu
