LA SALLE COLLEGE FACULTY BULLETIN III

THE EXPLORER

The response to the yearbook so far has been far below expectations. The staff has raised to date almost $2000 of the $4000 quota which must be raised before the deadline of November 10. This leaves $2000 to be raised by Wednesday. If the quota is not met on time THERE WILL BE NO YEARBOOK. All books must be paid for before any contracts can be signed with a Publisher or Photographer. Any personal remarks which the Professors can make on this subject will be appreciated.

Should any faculty members wish to purchase a yearbook it would aid the drive considerably.

HOLY WATER FONTS

It has been suggested that holy water fonts be installed in the various classrooms of the College. The suggestion is certainly a laudable one. Consequently, the Director of Properties has proposed to honor on a first-come, first-served basis those requests which are made for particular rooms or offices. Please address your request to Brother Paul, Director of Properties.

MID-TERM GRADES

The mid-term grades are to be submitted by all members of the faculty to the Dean's Office no later than 4:30 P.M. on November 30. One yellow Instructor's Report Sheet for each class section is required. One yellow Failure Report Card should be included for each failure listed.

REMEDIAL COMPOSITION

Members of the faculty are requested to submit to the Dean's Office the name of any student who gives evidence of serious need for Remedial Composition (English 010). Course Advisers are also urged to recommend this course at pre-registration time to any student who needs it.

MUSIC APPRECIATION

The one-hour course in Music Appreciation (Music 301-302) will be continued during the spring term. Father William Sailer is the instructor.

NEW COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT

Dr. Domenico DiMarco will conduct a two-hour course in the History of Modern Art (History 330) in the spring term. History of Ancient and Medieval Art (History 329) will be given in the fall term. Junior or Senior standing is required for these courses.

ABSENCES

All students are expected to attend classes regularly. Cumulative absences of more than two weeks or consecutive absences of more than one week in any course are regarded as excessive. The instructor of the course will deal with such cases in accordance with the circumstances which necessitated the absence and will notify the Vice-President's office in either case. A student who is absent to excess and without good reason is given a grade of "F". Attendance is noted from the first regular class meeting regardless of the time of registration.
