Scope and Content

The bulk of this collection is comprised of reports generated by the La Salle University Student Counseling Center. It includes both annual reports and reports on a study conducted throughout the 1960s and 1970s entitled, "Report on Entrance Credentials: Predictors of Attrition and Academic Success." These studies were conducted by the Counseling Center with the help of student workers. The study compared admissions credentials, such as test scores and high school grades, of undergraduate students and to their academic performance as undergraduates at La Salle.
