NARRATOR RELEASE FORM
DEED OF GIFT

The purpose of the History 650 class interviewing project at La Salle University is to document the history of La Salle University and its neighborhood. An important part of this effort is the collection of oral history interviews with knowledgeable individuals from all walks of life. In order for your interview(s) to be placed in the Connelly Library and Archives for future historical use, it will be necessary for you to sign this gift agreement. Before doing so, you should read it carefully and ask any questions you may have regarding its terms and conditions.

I, _____, do hereby give to the La Salle University Library and Archives all right, title or interest in the recorded interviews conducted by _____ on _____.

I understand that these interviews will be protected by copyright and deposited in La Salle University's Library and Archives for the use of scholars. I also understand that the audio/video recordings, transcripts, logs, field notes, photographs, and other associated materials may be used in public presentations including but not limited to digital archives accessible on the internet, audio and visual documentaries, multimedia presentations, exhibits or articles. In return, La Salle University Library and Archives grants to me a nonexclusive license to utilize my interview(s) during my lifetime.

CHECK ONE:

- Audio/video recordings, transcripts, logs, photographs and field notes may be used without restriction
- Audio/video recordings, transcripts, logs, photographs and field notes are subject to the following restriction(s):
