THE ONE HUNDRED AND FOURTH COMMENCEMENT

Sunday, June 4, 1967

four o'clock in the afternoon

CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

GLORY LA SALLE

Above Explorers valiant here under thine eyes
Thy blue and gold banners unfurl in the skies;
Here armed, thy scions standing await thy command,
Thou fortress of faith in our God and our land;

CHORUS:

La Salle, La Salle, thy glory, thy triumphs we praise;
Thy name in song, forever we, thy sons, shall raise.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS
LASALLE COLLEGE, 1967

It is a pleasure for me to extend my best wishes as you complete your college education.

You are graduating into a society in which you will be warmly welcomed. Our country has never had so great a need for highly educated men and women. Never have young Americans moved from the college campus into a world offering so broad a range of opportunities for individual fulfillment and contribution to the welfare of humanity.

Your generation of students has been distinguished by its fresh and vigorous concern for the quality of American life and its commitment to American democracy. Perhaps the greatest opportunity awaiting you is the challenge to make this a life-long commitment.

Today, Americans from every walk of life are striving together to shape a society that can offer a meaningful and rewarding life to all its members. Never have so many of our countrymen been so deeply dedicated to eradicating the old evils of ignorance, poverty, and bigotry from every corner of the land.

Through your years of study, you have prepared yourselves for positions of leadership in this quest for a better America.

I congratulate you, and urge you to take full advantage of that opportunity.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Lyndon B. Johnson". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.
