RE: Honors Convocation: October 2, 2005

You are cordially invited to attend the 2005 Honors Convocation in the Gola Arena of the Hayman Center. The ceremony begins at 3:00 p.m.

Dean's Lists students will be recognized at this event, the Faculty Distinguished Scholar award will be given, and an honorary degree will be conferred upon:

Jane Golden

Director, Mural Arts Program
City of Philadelphia

If you can attend the Convocation and wish to march in the procession, please report to the Concession area on the Mezzanine level of the Hayman Center for vesting. Please report by 2:30 p.m.

The marshals for the procession will assist you in forming the line of march in this order:

- Instructors
- Librarians and Assistant Professors
- Associate Professors
- Professors
- Department Chairs
- Administrators

Following the Convocation, a reception will be held in the Blue and Gold Commons of the North Residence Hall complex. The entrance to the Commons is directly across Olney Avenue from the entrance to the Hayman Center parking area.

Thank you.

The 2005 Edition of the Annual Security and Safety Report is Now Available

La Salle's Security and Safety Department is committed to assisting all members of the University community in providing for their security and safety.

One of our responsibilities is the annual publication and promulgation of security and safety-related information. This information for 2005 is now available both in a brochure and on the La Salle University Web site.

The Report contains information on campus security and personal safety, including crime prevention, crime-reporting policies, and other important matters relating to security on campus. It also contains statistics for the three previous calendar years on reported crimes that occurred on campus, in certain off-campus buildings property owned or controlled by the University, and on public property within or immediately adjacent to or accessible from the campus.

If you would like a copy of the brochure, you may obtain one on the main campus at Security and Safety's Headquarters or the office of University Communications, and at the Bucks County Center's front desk, or you can request that a copy be mailed to you by calling 215.951.1083. You may locate the online version at www.lasalle.edu/security.

If you have any questions, please contact Director of Security and Safety, Arthur Grover, phone # 215-951-1675

Please join the Division of Student Affairs as we welcome Ms. Melinda Massaro to our University Life staff in the role of Programming Coordinator. Melinda earned both her Bachelor of Science in Sociology and her Master of Science in Student Personnel Administration at the State University of New York College at Buffalo. She has worked in various areas of Student Affairs and also has worked internationally in the People's Republic of China.

Chief among Melinda's responsibilities is to lead the Division in fulfilling the mission of the Late Night La Salle initiative, now in its third year. This mission is to make available quality late night entertainment during students' prime social times, namely 10:00PM. to 2:00AM on Friday and Saturdays nights. Late Night La Salle provides opportunities for students to gain experiences in programming, leadership development, and responsible social interaction. In cooperation with the Athletics and Recreation Department, many of the Friday night events are held in the Hayman Center. Saturday night events are often held in the La Salle Union. On many occasions, Late Night La Salle sponsors transportation and partial funding for events happening in Philadelphia. For more information about how to get involved with Late Night La Salle, or to contact Melinda, please call her at 215.951.5165, or stop by the Programming Center in La Salle Union 307.

I hope you will all welcome Melinda to La Salle University.

Two of the three great monotheistic (Judaism, Islam, and Christianity) religions celebrate an important feast during the coming week. We join together in praying to the ONE GOD that all of us will treat each other as sisters and brothers, children of a loving GOD.

ROSH HASHANAH Rosh Hashanah is the first and second days of the first Jewish month of Tishrei. It marks the beginning of the Jewish New Year. The celebration of this holiday is marked with solemnity, as it is the day on which the whole world is judged for the coming year. Rosh Hashanah is the birthday of the world, as it was on this day that G-d created Human Beings on the 6th day of creation. Every year, on this day, Jews proclaim G-d as the one and true King. This year, (2005-2006/5766) Rosh Hashanah, begins on Monday evening, October 3, 2005, and continues through Wednesday night, October 5, 2005.

RAMADAN 1426 / 2005: The Muslim Month of Fasting Ramadan is the ninth month of the Muslim calendar. It is during this month that Muslims observe the Fast of Ramadan. Dates for Ramadan 2005 are 05 October thru 03 November. Ramadan is a special month of the year for over one billion Muslims throughout the world. It is a time for inner reflection, devotion to God, and self-control. Muslims think of it as a kind of tune-up for their spiritual lives. Ramadan commemorates the month the Holy Qur'an was revealed.

Christian, Jewish, and Muslim Leaders wrote the following prayer. Consider praying it during the coming week.

Eternal God, Creator of the universe, there is no God but you. Great and wonderful are your works, wondrous are your ways. Thank you for the beautiful variety of your creation. Thank you for the many ways we affirm your presence and purpose, and the freedom to do so. Forgive our violation of your creation. Forgive our violence toward each other. We stand in awe and gratitude for your persistent love for each and all of your children: Christian, Jew, Muslim, as well as those with other faiths. Grant to all and our leaders attributes of the strong: mutual respect in words and deed; restraint in the exercise of power; and the will for peace with justice for all. Eternal God, Creator of the universe, there is no God but you.
Amen.

Education Conference: What the Best Teachers Do

November 5th, 2005

La Salle University

What makes a great teacher great? Who are the teachers, students remember long after graduation? The short answer is--it's not what teachers do, it's what they understand. Lesson plans and lecture notes matter less than the special way teachers comprehend the subject, and value human learning. The best teachers know their subjects inside and out--but they also know how to engage and challenge students in order to provoke impassioned responses. Most of all, they believe two things fervently: teaching matters and students can learn.

Sign up for a day of exploration and entertainment as we look at what the best teachers do. This exclusive one-day workshop will take place on November 5th, 2005 on the La Salle University campus.

- 8:00-9:00 Check-in with continental breakfast
- 9:00-11:00 Key-note speaker
- 11:00-12:00 Box lunches and book signing
- 12:00-1:30 Break out sessions

Keynote Speaker:

Kenneth R. Bain (Ph.D., University of Texas at Austin, 1976) is founding Director of the Center for Teaching Excellence at New York University. His scholarship includes an interest in teaching and learning issues. Internationally recognized for his insights into teaching and learning, and for a fifteen-year study of what the best educators do, he has presented invited workshops at more than one hundred universities in recent years--in the United States, Canada, Europe, Asia, Africa, and Australia. His learning research has concentrated on a wide range of issues, including deep and sustained learning and the creation of natural critical learning environments. His recently-published book What the Best College Teachers Do. (Harvard University Press, 2004) won the 2004 Virginia and Warren Stone Prize for an outstanding book on education and society.
