— CASTING NOTES —

Tonight's show is the product of a lot of hard work on the part of many students connected in one way or other with Theatre La Salle or The Masque and we are very proud of the quality which has come from them in such short time. Most of the production staff and cast come from the freshman class and the following names will be around for several years to come.

DON WHISTED (Benedick) is known to all Summer Music Theatre patrons for his outstanding work the past three years; KATHY MOLLER (Beatrice) is a sophomore majoring in English and who hopes to enter the law profession upon graduation; JIM O'TOOLE (Claudio) is a new face on the La Salle stage; GARY BRUBACH is best remembered for his role in last year's MASQUE production of AFTER THE RAIN; "UNCLE" BOB JANN is the president of the MASQUE, a brother of Alpha Psi Omega dramatic fraternity, and hopes to teach in Alaska upon graduation in June; RALPH BATMAN has been a theatre major at Penn State for the past two years and is now an English major at LSC; KEVIN FLYNN has played in numerous shows in the Lehigh Valley area since he was ten years old; NANCY LAPERGOLA, a cute Speech and Drama freshman, was a prize winner at the N.C.F.L. tournament in poetry and prose interpretation; JOHN CONNOLLY is a sociology-history major, but likes to act (Pelican!); KEVIN KELLY was an apprentice with the New Jersey Shakespeare Festival in 1970; GERRY FUREY was a soloist for the W. Penna. regional chorus before coming to La Salle; ROSEMARY O'HARA and OLGA HOWARD are two of the cutest girls we ever could've gotten to dress our stage; GEORGE BARNETT, JOE HICKEY, JIM WRIGHT, BOB WALLACE, JOE URBANIK, STEVE WOODS, EMILE GRECO, and KEVIN CAMPION are the rest of our troupe and add a delightful splendor to our stage. To these and all the people who work behind the scenes we are deeply thankful and shout ENCORE!
