La Salle University's Entrepreneurship Institute proudly presents...

Rev. Robert A. Sirico

Co-Founder/President

The Action Institute for the Study of Religion and Liberty

Monday, February 7, 2005

1:00 PM ♦ Entrepreneurship, A Noble Vocation

7:00 PM ♦ The Morality of Enterprise

Dan Rodden Theatre

La Salle University - Student Union Building

1:00 PM ♦ Entrepreneurship, A Noble Vocation

Father Sirico draws upon theology, philosophy, and history to outline the contours of the entrepreneurial vocation and its relationship with the deeper Christian message, one that affirms incomparable dignity of the human person and the betterment of the world through human work. This presentation offers a moral, intellectual and inspirational affirmation of enterprise.

7:00 PM ♦ The Morality of Enterprise

Approaching the question of business 'from within,' Father Sirico will demonstrate how recent business scandals are really a betrayal of the very nature of enterprise and its worthy calling. He proposes a virtue-based ethics approach, as opposed to the moral relativism that poses as business ethics in many academic circles. The logic of enterprise, Fr. Sirico argues, requires transparency, honesty, and virtue.

Join us for a dessert reception immediately following the 7:00pm presentation in the foyer of the Theatre.

Rev. Robert A. Sirico is co-founder and president of the Acton Institute for the Study of Religion and Liberty, a non-profit, non-partisan, free-market educational organization. Since 1990, the Acton Institute has been on the forefront of educating future religious leaders about the principles of the market economy as encapsulated in Pope John Paul II's 1991 social encyclical Centesimus Annus.

Father Sirico's writings on religious, political, economic, and social matters have been published in a variety of journals and newspapers, including, the Journal of Markets and Morality, New York Times, and Wall Street Journal. Sirico has been called upon by CNN, ABC, the BBC, NPR, CBS' 60 Minutes, and other members of the news media for statements regarding economics, civil rights, and issues of religious concern, and has been quoted in both domestic and international news publications.

DSA Meeting Minutes

DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS: Student Affairs Committee

Meeting Date: December 14, 2004

Members Absent: Joseph Cicala (chair), Kevin Martin, Erin Oakes

1. It was explained that Dr. Cicala was ill and that Dr. Neubauer would be chairing the meeting. Dr. Cicala asked that the committee in his absence discuss the CAS Self Assessment Guide results concerning Career Services.
2. The members of each sub-committee gave a brief summary as to their research on their assigned CAS (Council for the Advancement of Standards) areas for examination. The information reported by each committee was fairly consistent with the other committees' findings. The summaries revealed that each committee was impressed by the depth and variety of services being provided by Career Services as well as the investment and dedication of the Career Services' staff. However, it seems that students underutilize Career Services and that many students (in particular graduate students) were not aware of the services that are being offered. A discussion ensued as to how Career Services might market what they have to offer in ways that would increase usage by students. Each committee was asked to send an electronic version of their findings to Dr. Neubauer by the end of this week so that she may put together a unified report.
3. Dr. Neubauer updated the committee on the status of making changes in certain over the counter products being sold in the Campus Store that lend themselves to misuse and/or abuse, namely Vivarin, Sominex, and No Doz. Dr. Neubauer reported that this issue has been in discussion in the Health Advisory Committee from both a philosophical and health point of view. The former involves the 'messages' we give to students by selling products whose sole purpose is to keep someone awake or to put them to sleep; the latter involves the unhealthy impact the use of these OTC drugs have on one's health. It was reported that Ms. Oleksiak, Associate Director of Health Services and Co-chair of the Health Advisory Committee has brought these concerns to the attention of the Vice President for Business Affairs, at whose discretion is any action in this regard. Those present for our meeting today feel these products warrant further discussion.

Respectfully Submitted By:

Lane B. Neubauer Ph.D.
Director of Health Services
