Good Friday

● Leo Brady

All other days have happened, scattered
Like shot against the target Time, a mock
To meaning, vagrant. They have not mattered
More than the gestures of a broken clock.
Haphazard, random, casual days to dot
The calendar in black and be or not.
But this day is and was and had to be
And is in letter and in spirit red.
This day was doomed to dawn. Eternity
Decreed the sowing, planned the harvest: bread
Inevitable. This day, as wood,
Is stable. Thus we call this Friday good.
