SOUP

Christina Puntel, the author of soup, is a senior Elementary/Special Ed major. Last year she was the producer for the One Acts. Christina would like to thank Mom, Pop and family, K.C. and Siobhan (for the story), and M.B.

A. Raymond Bossert III is the director of this show; he is a junior English Lit major. He is the author of two Young Playwrights winning plays for 1996 and 1997. He thanks Michelle, Christina, Bob, Erica, Carey, and Jaime.

Erica Lawson plays the role of Suzanne. She is a junior English major and has been in Pippin and With My Regrets here at La Salle. Singing is also a favorite hobby. She gives thanks to her family and friends.

Jaime Lynn Longo is Ruth in the show. As a junior English major, she was recently in the Masque show Lysis-irata, and in the past has acted in a variety of productions. She thanks Mom, Dad, Janine, and Michael.

Carey Reed, a sophomore Spanish major, plays Amanda. She has had much experience in theater, namely in the Masque's Guys and Dolls and Pippin. Carey sends out her thank-yous to the girls on Uber Street and on 3rd George.

Robert Scott, a.k.a. Steve in the show, is a freshman Communication/English major. He has been in over a dozen theatrical performances in high school and at La Salle. Additionally, he is the coordinator of the La Salle Committee to End Homelessness.

THE MIRAGE

Chris Lilienthal, The Mirage author, is a senior English major. He has performed in Masque productions such as Lysistrata and Guys and Dolls. He gives thanks to the director (Jason), Producer (Michelle), and cast (Elizabeth, Ben, Bonnie, and Alex).

Jason Adamo, a senior Psychology major, is the director of The Mirage. Currently he plays El Gallo in the upcoming Masque production The Fantasticks. He thanks his family, friends, Chris Lilienthal, and especially Elizabeth, Bonnie, Alex, and Ben.

Elizabeth Anderson plays the role of Karen. As a 1975 La Salle graduate (her major was Psychology), she has been involved in many productions, including one directed by Dan Rodden himself. Elizabeth thanks her sister Yolanda Anderson.

Bonnie Clawson, a sophomore Psychology/Communication major, plays the character of Donna. Bonnie has had much experience in acting. During her theatrical career at La Salle, she has performed in many Masque productions including Pippin and Guys and Dolls.

Alex Groff plays Roger in the show. As a junior English major, he has been in Lysistrata with the Masque, as well as the Channel 56 film With My Regrets. He also enjoys writing Celebrity Sonnets for the Collegian.

Ben Kerr portrays Albert in The Mirage. He is a junior Communication major, and has been involved in theater in a variety of ways. Recently he performed in the Masque's Lysistrata. He thanks God, Mom, Dad, family and friends for encouragement.
