To: The Campus Community

From: Ray Ricci

The Lasallian Leadership Institute (LLI as it has come to be known) will soon begin another three-year cycle of training and workshops. LLI, you may recall, is the national formation program, begun nine years ago, for teachers and administrators working in Lasallian schools.

The goals behind the program are to strengthen the commitment to the Lasallian mission and to integrate the Lasallian heritage into the lives of faculty and staff. The program is designed to give a framework so that participants can exercise leadership for mission in their respective institutions. Hundreds of faculty and administrators from schools and childcare agencies across the country have thus far participated in the program, including 15 members of the La Salle University community.

On behalf of Brother Michael, I am pleased to announce that the following faculty will be participating in LLI IV beginning in July, 2006: Gerry Ballough, Biology; Dave Cichowicz, Chemistry; Nancy Jones, ISBT; Lynne Texter, Communication; Jeanne Welsh, Accounting; and Deb Yost, Education. They have added this program to their very busy personal and professional lives, and for that, I am sincerely grateful.
