

4-29-1983

Faculty Bulletin: April 29, 1983

La Salle University

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.lasalle.edu/faculty_bulletins

Recommended Citation

La Salle University, "Faculty Bulletin: April 29, 1983" (1983). Faculty Bulletins. 18.
http://digitalcommons.lasalle.edu/faculty_bulletins/18

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the University Publications at La Salle University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Faculty Bulletins by an authorized administrator of La Salle University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact careyc@lasalle.edu.

Awards and Grants:

Colhocker, Brother Lawrence J., F.S.C., instructor, education, has been awarded this year's Damian Connelly Grant for the purchase of a microfiche reader and a collection of microfiche documents in education.

Donnelly, Gloria, director, nursing, will receive Villanova University's Alumni Achievement Medallion of the College of Nursing at Villanova's commencement on May 14, 1983.

Wine, William David, assistant professor, English and communication arts, has been awarded a summer grant toward the completion of his full length play, "The Tube."

Offices Attended:

Vogel, Dr. Robert M., assistant professor, education, has been elected board president of the Neonatology Task Force at Albert Einstein Hospital. The task force involves development of parent support groups, community awareness of the intensive care (neonatology unit) services and fund raising activities.

Wolf, Zane Robinson, assistant professor, nursing, has been elected to the board of directors of the Southeastern Pennsylvania League for Nursing.

Miscellaneous:

Flubacher, Dr. Joseph F., professor, economics, has been honored by a former student, Thomas R. Swartz '60, now a professor at Notre Dame. His book, "The Supply Side; Debating Current Economic Policies," (with Frank J. Bonello and Andrew F. Kozak) is dedicated to Dr. Flubacher for his outstanding teaching.

Workshops:

Jogelkar, Dr. Prafulla, associate professor, management, has been invited to conduct a workshop on, "The Application of Management Science Concepts and Techniques to the Operations of Nonprofit Social Services Agencies" at the June 1983 conference of Nonprofit Management Association in Denver, Colorado.

Kane, Dr. Joseph A., professor, economics, with Everett Frank, Bruce MacLeod and Lynn Miller have conducted a series of eight half-day workshops on "Management Problem Solving" for participating executives in the Social Service Agency Management Education and Development (SAMED) Program sponsored by the Applied Research Center of the School of Business Administration. Dr. Kane and Lester Barenbaum also presented day-long seminars on "Management Information Systems for Social Service Agencies," on April 13 and 19. These are part of a series of forty seminars, workshops and conferences sponsored by the SAMED Program during the course of the academic year for executives of social service agencies.

Soven, Dr. Margot, assistant professor, English, conducted a workshop on "Evaluating Writing Programs," here at La Salle on April 9.

Vogel, Dr. Robert M., assistant professor, education, presented a series of workshops for the Society of Crippled Children - Easter Seals, entitled, "Parenting Your Handicapped Child."

Wine, William David, assistant professor, English and communication arts, presented a two day workshop on "Transactional Analysis" at the New Jersey Department of Human Services in Vineland in December. In January he presented a two day workshop on, "Interviewing and Counseling" at the New Jersey Department of Human Services in Trenton, and a two day workshop on "Transactional Analysis" at Mercer County Community College.

Recent Publications:

Blumenthal, Dr. Bernard, professor, foreign languages and literatures, will have his essay, "Claire Goll's Prose" appear in a future issue of Monatshette.

Chaganti, Dr. Radharao, assistant professor, management, has had his article, "Strategies of Profitable Versus Not-So-Profitable Small Businesses," appear in the Journal of Small Business Management. His "Competition and Small Business Strategy" will appear in the proceedings of the Eastern Academy of Management, 1983. In addition Dr. Chaganti's "Corporate Strategy and Public Policy in the Context of Economic Development," appeared in the proceedings of the Pacific Division of Academy of International Business, 1982.

Fallon, Dr. Robert T., professor, English, has published "Trials of the Interdisciplinary: A Review Article," in Milton Quarterly, 16, (March, 1983).

Goedkoop, Dr. Richard J., assistant professor, English and communication arts, has had his essay, "Another Approach to Faculty Internships," published in the Spring 1983 edition of Feedback.

Kelly, Dr. Geoffrey B., professor, religion, will have his American Academy of Religion paper on Bonhoeffer's ethical hermeneutics appear as a chapter in a forthcoming book on Bonhoeffer.

Kerlin, Dr. Michael J., professor, philosophy, had his Op-Ed essay on the 100th anniversary of the death of Karl Marx published by the Philadelphia Inquirer on March 14, 1983.

McCann, Dr. John J., associate professor, foreign languages and literatures, has had his story, "On a Bugle with Tassels," appear in the Fall, 1982 issue of Karamu, a literary review published by Eastern Illinois University.

Newton, Dr. Judith, associate professor, English, has edited (with Mary Ryan and Judith Walkowitz) "Sex and Class in Women's History," which will appear with Routledge and Kegan Paul in June.

Stow, Dr. George B., professor and chairman, history, has had his article, "Richard II in Thomas Walsingham's Chronicles" accepted for publication in the January, 1984 issue of Speculum. He has also published the following reviews: Michael Gervers' The Hospitaller Cartulary in the British Library (Cotton MS Nero E. VI), in the Canadian Journal of History, 17 (1982), 517-19; Hans-Eberhard Hilpert's Kaiser und Papstbriefe in den Chronica majora des Matthaeus Paris, (Stuttgart; Klett-Cotta, 1981), in American Historical Review, 88 (1983), 102-03.

Guest Appearances:

Boyll, Suzanne, counseling psychologist, attended the American College Personnel Association in Houston, Texas. She is the chairperson of Commission VIII-Wellness, which is committed to Health enhancement on a broad holistic basis within the college community.

Brownstein, Dr. Leonard A., associate professor, Spanish, was the keynote speaker at Holy Family College in October at their "Foreign Language Day;" the featured speaker at the Twelfth International Bilingual/Bicultural Education Conference in Washington; attended open hearings at the Department of Education in Harrisburg and spoke about Philadelphia's need for bilingual professionals. Dr. Brownstein read his paper, "Nuevas Direcciones en Programas Avanzados de la Enseñanza Bilingüe," at the University of Puerto Rico. He has also been appointed by Brother President to serve as college liaison with Hispanic Concerns staff at the U.S. Education department.

Chaganti, Dr. Radharao, assistant professor, management, spoke on "Strategies of Small Businesses" at the North-East AIDS conference, and on "Human Service Agencies in the 1980's: Environments, Strategies and Performance," at the 1983 national meetings of the Academy of Management.

Dallery, Dr. Arleen, associate professor, philosophy, lectured on, "The Value of Meaningful Work," at Wilson College in Chambersburg, Pa. under the auspices of the Invitational Humanist program of the Pennsylvania Humanities Council. She has been invited to deliver her paper, "Professional Loyalties" at the Conference of Applied Philosophy, and to be Associate of the Greater Philadelphia Philosophy Consortium.

Tutors Needed

The La Salle/Community Tutoring Program, initiated as a result of last December's conference on College/Community cooperation, is seeking faculty volunteers to tutor neighborhood elementary-school children. Call Robert Miedel (951-1358) for more information.

Devlin, Dr. Joseph, lecturer, religion, gave a lecture, "American Culture and the Catholic Family" at the Diocese of Scranton's annual convocation on Religious Education. He also acted as a respondent to a paper on social justice and the Catholic Hospital at the annual workshop of the Catholic Hospital Association of America. He was a participant in a pioneering Jewish-Christian-Muslim dialogue sponsored by Temple University. Dr. Devlin was a panelist on the question of Justice and the Tax Law on Channel 6's People to People program. He has also recently given two lectures on, "The Meaning of Passover to Jews and Christians," at a Camden Diocese Adult Education program.

Donnelly, Gloria, director, nursing, gave the following presentations: "Education for the Registered Nurse," Hahnemann Hospital in February; "Nursing Theories; Who Needs Them?" at the Pennsylvania Nurses Association; Key Note address at the Medical College of Pennsylvania Clinical Update Convention here in Philadelphia.

diRoccaferrera, Dr. G.M.F., professor, management science, presented a paper entitled, "A Graphical Smoothing Linear Trend Forecasting Model" at the 1983 Northeast American Institute for Decision Sciences meeting. He was the chairperson of the Operations Research series of presentations at the meetings organized by Drexel and Temple Universities, in Philadelphia.

Ellis, Brother Patrick, F.S.C., Ph.D., president and professor, English, will address the graduates of St. Francis College, Ft. Wayne, on May 7. He will speak at the awards banquet of the Philadelphia Catholic Forensic League on May 9. Brother is currently serving on an ad hoc committee to structure an Urban Affairs Council for the Greater Philadelphia First Corporation. Brother Patrick also chaired the middle states decennial visit to St. Peter's College, Jersey City.

Fallon, Dr. Robert T., professor, English, presented a paper, "Faculty Development: Programs and Proposals," at the Faculty Development Symposium held at Pennsylvania State University in March.

Harty, Dr. Kevin J., assistant professor, English, was chairman of the Middle Scottish Literature section at the annual meeting of the Northeast Modern Language association in Erie, Pa. At the parallel meeting in Erie of the International Courtly Literature Society, Dr. Harty also delivered a paper, "Codes of Courtly Behavior in Chretien de Troyes' Le Chevalier au Lion: Yvain, Gawain, the Lion, and the Serpent."

Hennessy, Dr. Arthur L., associate professor, history, spoke to the Southampton, Pa. Travel Club on the "Soviet Union Today." He was a talk show participant on radio station WIP on the subject of pornography and the law, and on WCAU he was interviewed by Maxine Schnall on the same subject.

Horiuchi, Yoshihide, instructor, marketing, has been listed in Who's Who in Aviation and Aerospace, 1983.

Hornum, Finn, chairperson, sociology, presented a paper entitled, "Coping with the Fear of Crime Through Neighborhood Organization," co-authored with Zebulun Casey, adjunct instructor in sociology-criminal justice, at the annual meeting of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences in San Antonio, Texas in March. The paper is based on research on the fear of crime in the Germantown, Logan, Olney and West Oak Lane area neighboring La Salle.

Jogelkar, Dr. Prafulla, associate professor, management, served as the track coordinator for Management Science/Production Operations Management at the Northeast American Institute for Decision Sciences (AIDS) conference. As a track coordinator, he obtained referee reviews for over fifteen manuscripts, reviewed several of them personally, and decided which to accept for the conference. Dr. Jogelkar (with professor Tavara of Beaver College) also presented a paper entitled, "Application of Queuing Theory to a Nonprofit Referral System," at the AIDS conference. He is also (with Dr. Hamburg of the Wharton School) scheduled to present a paper entitled, "Models of Resource Allocation to Cooperative Research and Development: Policy Implications" at the TIMS/ORSA meeting in Chicago.

Kelly, Dr. Geoffrey, professor, religion, was the featured speaker at the annual Bernard E. Olson Scholars' Conference on the Church Struggle and the Holocaust. Dr. Kelly's paper, "Dietrich Bonhoeffer and the Church Struggle; The Possibility of Jewish-Christian Reconciliation" will be published in the Proceedings Volume. It was hailed at the conference as a landmark in the improvement of Jewish-Christian dialogue in the light of the events of the Hitler era. Dr. Kelly also gave a talk entitled, "The Passion of God in the Death of Jesus," as part of the lenten series sponsored by the Episcopal Diocese of New Jersey. Dr. Kelly will also lead a panel discussing the recent documentary on Bonhoeffer by Trinity Films at the College Theology Society convention in June.

Kerlin, Dr. Michael, professor, philosophy, chaired a session on the language of analogy at the 1982 meeting of the American Academy of Religion in New York.

Lambert, J.V., assistant professor, psychology, and McBride, D.K., presented their paper, "Survey of Human Factors in Logistics/Maintenance Issues," at the 1983 meeting of the Department of Defense Human Engineering Technical Advisory Group, held in El Paso, Texas in March.

Mihalich, Dr. Joseph P., professor, philosophy, was one of five local authors honored at the 36th annual Authors Luncheon of the Catholic Librarians Association of Philadelphia in March. He contributed the thematic address on institutional responsibility for intercollegiate athletic programs at the national meeting of the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators in Toronto in April, and was a speaker on the philosophy of sports in a Colloquium on Social Philosophy at Penn State University. He was a guest lecturer in Temple University's College of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance, and will conduct a seminar session in Temple's Graduate School of Sports Administration in June. Dr. Mihalich was also a guest recently on Bob Vetrone's sports radio talk show.

Miller, William P., president, C.B.C., was a guest lecturer on, "The Consortium Approach to Urban Revitalization," at the Urban Studies Department of Rutgers University, Camden. He has also been appointed a member of the Economic Recovery Task Force established to advise mayoral candidate W. Wilson Goode.

Mollenhauer, Brother Emery C., F.S.C., Ph.D., provost, served as "mentor" for the Middle States Evaluation visit of the Oneonta College of the State University of New York from April 10-13. "Mentor" is a new designation for Middle States team visits; a mentor is second in charge and is assigned to an evaluation team when a chairman of a team has no experience in chairing such a visit.

Molyneaux, Brother Gerard, F.S.C., Ph.D., associate professor, communication arts, spoke to students at Hallahan H.S. on careers in communication. He also appeared on "Sunday Night" on WFIL with David Madden. The topic was, "Bad News in the Electronic Media."

Perfecky, Dr. George A., associate professor, Russian, has been invited by professor George G. Grabowicz, chairman-elect of the department of Slavic languages at Harvard University, to present a paper entitled, "The Final Linguistic By-Product of an English Translation of the Bykhovets Chronicle," at the fourth-coming annual meeting of the Permanent Conference on Ukrainian Studies, which will be held at Harvard in June. In addition Dr. Perfecky has been invited by Professor Michael Bruchis of the Russian and East European Research Center at Tel-Aviv University to present a paper on the status of Ukrainian at a session entitled, "Language Problems in the non-Russian Republics of the USSR" at the Seventh World Congress of Applied Linguistics, to be held at Brussels, Belgium, August 5-10, 1984.

Schreiner, Dr. Frank, associate professor, psychology, served as guest speaker at the March 23 Security Officers Association dinner held here at La Salle. The topic was "Assertiveness Training and Conflict Management for Security Officers."

Seltzer, Dr. Joseph, associate professor, management, will be a visiting professor of management of Seaver College of Pepperdine University this summer. He has conducted first level supervisory training programs for SEPTA under the auspices of the Applied Research Center and will present a seminar on "Leadership" to members of the student affairs division of La Salle. Dr. Seltzer will attend the annual meeting of the Organizational Behavior Teaching Society as a member of the board and will present a workshop entitled "Sharing Short Experiential Exercises."

Seydow, Dr. John, professor, English, chaired the "Literature and History" section at the northeast Modern Language Association annual convention in Erie, April 14-15.

Soven, Dr. Margot, assistant professor, English, delivered a paper entitled, "Evaluating the Writing Program at La Salle College: Implementing the CCCC Guidelines," at the annual Conference of College Composition and Communication. She also chaired a panel on "Academic Literacy: Writing and Reading in the Academic Community."

Sullivan, William M., associate professor, philosophy, presented a colloquium at Bryn Mawr College in February. The topic was "Character, Culture and American Democracy."

Vogel, Robert M., assistant professor, education, presented a paper entitled, "Microcomputers and Other New Technologies in Graduate Teacher Education" to the 1983 national conference on higher education for the American Association on Higher Education held in Washington, D.C. in March.

La Salle College Faculty Bulletin Volume 21 April 29, 1983 Number 4 Published by the News Bureau for the faculty and staff of La Salle College four times a year, in October, December, February, and April.