MAIN CAMPUS ROAD CLOSURE AND PARKING RESTRICTION

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 12 THROUGH MONDAY, AUGUST 17

The repaving contractor has informed the Security and Safety Department that due to recent excessive temperatures, and those predicted for the remainder of this week, the time period of the road closure will have to be extended throughout the upcoming weekend so that the asphalt can harden sufficiently before use.

Therefore, the roadway that runs between the Mail and Printing Office- extending to the end of the parking stalls that are located across from the baseball field- and the roadway that runs perpendicular from the back of the East stands up to the Central High School fence will be closed for pedestrians and vehicular traffic until Tuesday, August, 18.

Crossing Boundaries: Helping Students See the Connections Between Core Courses

Friday, September 11: 1:00-2:00 p.m.
Union Building: Room 301

All faculty teaching Core courses are invited to attend a Meeting on helping students see the connection between Core courses. Madeleine Viljoen and Carmen Vendelin of the Art Museum will take part in the discussion. This is the first in a series of follow up meetings to the Summer 2009 NSSE Workshops.

The next meeting: "Helping Students See the Connections Between Core Courses and the Major" is scheduled for Friday, October 2: 1:00-2:00 p.m.

Faculty who taught in the Doubles program will be invited to share assignments. Although the Doubles have been suspended, we can still connect Core courses through several strategies:

- The approach of different disciplines to the similar questions,
- Practice in good writing, critical thinking, and speaking skills in all Core courses,
- Introducing "High Impact" activities in Core courses.

New Materials will be Distributed
