Continuing Professional Education

August 14, 1991

Dear Colleagues:

We would like to extend a sincere thank you to all the departments who assisted us with the many details involved in conducting Continuing Professional Education's summer programs.

The grant funded children's Why I Should Be Proud to Live in Philadelphia completed its five week program on Friday, August 9 with a pizza party in Backstage. When the children were not on field trips around Philadelphia, they were receiving language instruction in their summer classroom in Neumann Lounge and enjoying the grounds on the South Campus.

August 9 was also the culmination for the adult English as a Second Language program which brought students from Spain and Argentina, as well as Korean and Vietnamese students who currently live in the Philadelphia area. This group spent five weeks studying the English language and cross-cultural strategies, and traveled from New York to Washington as part of their study program.

In cooperation with the Philadelphia Police Department, La Salle hosted the fourth class of D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) instructors which consisted of 21 officers who will return to their local police departments and conduct D.A.R.E. classes for children.

Each of the groups was very pleased with their La Salle experience and we look forward to conducting all three programs in the summer of 1992.

Sincerely,

Sue McCullion
