Subject: 1991 Tax Changes
Date: January 2, 1991

Social Security Taxes: Both the employer and the employee Social Security tax rates will remain at 7.65% for the 1991 calendar year. However, the 7.65% will be broken down into two separate tax rates and applied to two different taxable wage bases as follows:

- 6.2% will be applied to a taxable wage base of $53,400
- 1.45% will be applied to a taxable wage base of $125,000

Your paystub will reflect the combined total taken out for both tax rates in the "Social Security Tax" column.

Federal Withholding Taxes: The Internal Revenue Service has issued new federal withholding tax tables and rates effective January 1, 1991. The new tax rates will be 15%, 28% and 31%. The value of a single withholding allowance has increased from $2,050 to $2,150 for the 1991 calendar year.

Your paycheck dated January 8, 1991 will reflect these changes.
