RE: NO SMOKING IN THE HOLROYD SCIENCE CENTER

Many of you will have already seen the new signs on the entrance doors and inside the Holroyd Science Center indicating that the entire building is a no-smoking area.

This action was taken following a strong recommendation from all of the academic departments located in the building. We had intended to make a public announcement prior to installation of the signs. However, technical problems led to a long delay in the production of the signs, and when we learned that they were ready, we decided to have them installed immediately. We apologize for any confusion this may have caused, but effective immediately, the policy is in effect, and we request the cooperation of everyone who spends time in the building in observing the policy.

Thank you.

Dear Faculty and Staff:

The Masque of La Salle would like to invite all faculty and staff to our preview performance of Edward Albee's Everything In The Garden on Thursday, November 14 at 4 PM. The preview, our final dress rehearsal, gives faculty and staff a chance to attend a performance if it is inconvenient to see an evening show.

As always, all faculty and staff are entitled to two complimentary tickets, and I would encourage everyone to take advantage of this opportunity. Tickets can be reserved by calling the Masque box office at 951-1410. Regular performance dates are November 15, 16, 17, 21, 22 and 23. Curtain time is 8 PM. The Masque appreciates your support.

Yours Very Truly,

Jennifer Curran
President
The Masque of La Salle

Pew Fall Seminar Lecture

All faculty, students, and friends of La Salle University are invited to attend the lecture sponsored by the Pew fall seminar:

Liberal Education, Writing, and the Postmodern Condition

James Berlin
Professor of English, Purdue University

Postmodernism is a term that covers a collection of theoretical concerns, debated within the university today, as well as a range of economic and cultural conditions in the larger society. This talk will explore the relationship of school and society within a postmodern frame particularly as it is appearing in discussions of the liberal arts curriculum. Special attention will be paid to the role of postmodern reading and writing practices in the arts and sciences and the consequences for college students.

Tuesday, November 12, 4:00
College Union Bldg, Room 217

A Reception will follow

Please help us plan refreshments by returning the tear-off:

(This lecture may be especially appropriate for students. If you plan to bring a class, please let us know.)
