CONCERT AND LECTURE SERIES

October 2, 1992

TO: The Campus Community

FROM: Gerald J. Johnson, Assistant Provost for Administration

May I take a moment to remind you that although the Concert and Lecture Series is suspended for this academic year, there is a modest fund available to assist individuals or departments who wish to present programs of a cultural or educational nature such as the C&L normally presents.

The C&L Committee remains in operation and has already provided funding to one of the programs of Relationship Week and approved funding for a program by Cuban author Rolando Morelli, sponsored by Dr. Trovato of the Foreign Languages Department. The Committee has also approved funding for an annotated concert of Renaissance music by Pan's Fancy sponsored by the Honors Program.

If you wish to request funding for a program, the Committee requests a written proposal outlining the type of program to be presented, the amount of funding requested, and the expected benefit for either a specific audience or the campus at large. If you have any questions about programs you might want to present to the Committee, please contact me in the Provost's Office (Administration Center 315, telephone extension 1065).

Thank you.

Women's Studies Program

September 29, 1992

Dear Colleague,

On behalf of the Women's Studies Board, I am pleased to invite you to participate in a half-day workshop (9 AM - 1 PM) with Dr. Caryn McTighe Musil on developing curriculum and pedagogical approaches in women's and multicultural studies, to be held on campus on Monday, November 2.

Although this date is our Fall "break" holiday, we selected it in keeping with the majority opinion of those surveyed last year who preferred a day without class for such an activity. Those of us who know Caryn as a former colleague are certain that this will be a dynamic and productive workshop. Now a Senior Research Associate with the Associate of American Colleges, Caryn has just published the result of three years' research on Women's Studies and student learning in institutions of higher learning across the country. She was on campus last spring to conduct a workshop with the NEH faculty development seminar.

There will be some reading required before the workshop which we will forward to you immediately if you choose to attend. Please detach and return the bottom portion of this letter to me by October 8. Since this workshop is funded by the Provost's office, we want to make this opportunity available to as many people as possible; however, the nature of the workshop demands that numbers be limited to ensure everyone's full participation, therefore, places in the workshop will be reserved on a first-subscribed basis. We hope you can attend.

Cordially,
for the Women's Studies Board,

Barbara C. Millard
