FROM THE ENROLLMENT SERVICES OFFICE

THE 1992 LA SALLE FRESHMAN

- > This year freshmen come from 20 states and 16 foreign countries. 59% are from Pennsylvania and 20% from New Jersey.
- > Two-thirds of the freshmen are resident students.
- > 55% graduated from a Catholic high school, down from 61% four years ago.
- > 80% of the class describe themselves as Catholic.
- > 52% are female. This year marks the first time in La Salle's history that a majority of the new freshmen are female. This trend is likely to continue with the advent of the generic nursing program in May.
- > 43% live more than 50 miles from campus, up from 35% four years ago.
- > 39% of the freshmen come from families earning more than $60,000 per year, up from 30% four years ago.
- > 77% are receiving some form of financial aid. The average financial aid award for these families was $9,122.
- > 36% are related to La Salle graduates (sons, daughters, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, etc.).
- > 14% are minorities, up from 7% four years ago.
- > The most popular majors among new students are biology, accounting, and communication, in that order. In recent years, there has been rising interest in the sciences, declining interest in business with interest in the arts holding steady.
- > The average SAT score of the freshmen granted a regular acceptance intending to major in the sciences is 1140, in the arts 1027, in business 1000 and in nursing 990. Overall, the SAT average for all freshmen -- those granted a regular acceptance and those granted a provisional acceptance -- is 1004.
- > 80% of the women and 72% of the men graduated in the top two quintiles of their high school classes.

TO THE TREE OF LIFE”

A performance of Southern Folk Cultures’ sustenance in the struggles for a better life in Appalachia, the sea islands of South Carolina, and the 1960’s Civil Rights Movement.

“In my estimation, Guy Carawan has done the most important and most sensitive work in the field of folk music in the United States in the past 20 years. Instead of just writing books and making records, instead of just singing, he and his wife have gone to the problem areas, to the face of the culture, to the creators with patience, with love, with wisdom, have helped them towards the realization of themselves and their cultural heritage.”

Alan Lomax

“Guy Carawan is truly one of the foundation blocks of the continuity and renewal of mass interest in the traditional music of the American people. With the exception of Pete Seeger, there is no other performer so in touch with American folk music and so conscious of its relationship to the rest of the world.”

Gary Cristall,

Artistic Director Vancouver Folk Music Festival
