LA SALLE UNIVERSITY'S WEEKLY INFORMATION CIRCULAR

September 11, 1992

To All Faculty:

The Sheekey Writing Center in Olney 203 offers free individual tutorials and workshops to help La Salle students, whether they be incoming freshmen, soon-to-graduate seniors, or graduate students, with their writing, reading, and study skills. The Center's services address the varied tasks and types of papers that students are asked to write across the disciplines. In addition, the Center provides assistance with resumes and letters of application to professional schools. However, students can take advantage of the Center's services only if they know about them. If you would like your students to learn more about the Writing Center and its range of services by having someone from the Writing Center speak briefly to your class, please contact the Director of the Writing Center, Dr. Mary C. Robertson, at X1299 to make arrangements.

Campus News is distributed weekly to foster communication and encourage information sharing among University departments. Articles submitted are the responsibility of their authors alone and do not imply an opinion on the part of La Salle University or the Department of Mail and Duplicating Services.

RE: SECOND TIME AROUND FAMILY LITERACY PROGRAM

The Urban Studies Center will be implementing a new intergenerational literacy program partially funded by the Pennsylvania Department of Education this Fall. The Second Time Around Family Literacy Program will provide basic skills and tutoring support for families headed by grandparents and caregivers other than parents, who live in West Oak Lane and whose children attend the Joseph Pennell School (located at Ogontz and Nedro Avenues).

The program will be interviewing prospective families during the last two weeks in September and the program will begin in early October. Fifteen families will be served by this important project. Since this is a demonstration project with a one-year commitment to start, we would be receptive to input from La Salle Community members wishing to collaborate with us on an evaluative component for the program.

Two La Salle students have joined the program's staff at the Urban Center recently: Gina Mullen, a junior Social Work major; and Laura Loder, a sophomore and recipient of the La Salle Community Service Grant. We are very excited about this new program and welcome those in the La Salle Community who would be interested in working on the Second Time Around Family Literacy Program to call Stephen Kopec at the Urban Center, x1187.

Nonprofit Management
Development Center

TO: The Campus Community
FROM: Karen Simmons, Director, NMDC, 210 College Hall
RE: NMDC News

NMDC provides individual and group management training to Executive Directors, Managers and Board Members of Delaware Valley arts, cultural, environmental, social service and social justice nonprofit organizations.

PERSONNEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please join us in welcoming three people to LaSalle NMDC:

- Mary Olson has joined the NMDC staff as Program Associate, after six years of consulting with NMDC on a free-lance basis and teaching Finance in the School of Business.
- Jayne Oasin graduated from NMDC's 1984 Management Training Program. At that time she was Executive Director of the Bucks County YWCA, and she went on to become a trainer in New York. Jayne returned to La Salle last year to do consulting with NMDC, and she has joined our staff as a Program Associate.
- Gerald Kaufman recently left his position as President and CEO of New Jersey's Center for Non-Profit Corporations, and he is now enjoying his new consulting assignments with some quite interesting NMDC clients.

Everett Frank is no longer a full-time staff member at NMDC, but he is doing lots of consulting work with NMDC clients. Messages for Everett can be left with NMDC, as he comes in for weekly meetings.

FALL 1992 PROGRAMS

We expect to provide intensive consulting and training to 300 nonprofit Executive Directors and their Boards of Directors this year, through the following programs:

Seminar Series, which includes 17 seminars on traditional nonprofit management topics such as strategic planning, fundraising, Board relations, and personnel issues.

Executive Director Discussion Groups on more timely issues, including outcome funding, nonprofit ethics, and new Board models.

Management Training Program (MTP), a comprehensive 10 session program for Executive Directors. Our Camden Arts MTP is now underway, and a general MTP is tentatively scheduled for spring 1993.

Board Matching Project, a new project designed to match nonprofits in need of Board members with LaSalle alumni, faculty and staff. If you're interested in serving on the Board of a local arts, social service, social justice or environmental group, we'd love to hear from you.

Customized consulting: Through a combination of grants and fees, we provide custom-designed organizational consulting and training sessions. Our newest clients include Cecil B. Moore Residents' Association, Children's Aid Society of Montco., Congreso de Latinos Unidos, The Homeless Advocacy Project, The Lighthouse, The PA Association of Nonprofit Organizations, The Pearl S. Buck Foundation, Speaking for Ourselves, St. Gabriel's System, Travelers' Aid Society, United Humanitarians and West Chester Area Senior Center.
