La Salle MBA Student Receives National Recognition

CINDY JONES, a full-time MBA student at La Salle, has received one of only twenty-five 1994 National Black MBA Association Scholarships awarded by the national office in Chicago, IL. Cindy is the first La Salle student to receive this prestigious award in the eighteen year history of La Salle's MBA program.

To be consider for the scholarship, applicants must be enrolled full-time in an MBA program and are required to write an essay concerning the following topic: A North American Free Trade Plan for African Americans: Developing Economic Linkages as well as submit copies of their graduate and undergraduate transcripts. Cindy will be attending the 16th Annual National Black MBA Association National Conference in San Francisco, CA in September to formally receive her scholarship award.

Cindy, a north Philadelphia resident, received her bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina and her M.Ed. at the University of Georgia. She worked as a mathematics teacher in North Carolina and Georgia prior to beginning at La Salle.

While working to complete her MBA degree at La Salle, Cindy is heading the organization of a new, not-for-profit, alternative, secondary school in a lower socio-economic area of north Philadelphia. Cindy had received strong support for this effort from former mayor Wilson Goode and members of the La Salle and Philadelphia communities.

Congratulations Cindy, from the La Salle community!

UNIVERSITY COUNCIL

Summer Workshop
June 23 and 24, 1994

HIGHLIGHTS

Guests: Dr. Joanne Barnett; Dr. John Rooney; Dr. Stephen Thorpe.

I. REPORT OF THE MIDDLE STATES SELF-STUDY MISSION REVIEW GROUP

Council reviewed the Mission Review Group report with the Group's Chair, Dr. John Rooney.

Council approved a motion stating that Council accepts the finding of the Mission Review report, as clarified by discussion with the Group's Chair, that there is no inconsistency between the Mission statement and the University's current program and practices nor do there appear to be any emerging programs or directions not addressed in the Mission statement.

II. STRATEGIC DIRECTION STATEMENT DRAFT

Extensive discussion of the draft statement led to numerous suggestions which will be incorporated in another draft of the statement.

III. PROPOSED STRATEGIC PLANNING AND BUDGETING PROCESS

Council reviewed the draft final report from the consultants on the University's planning and budgeting process and their proposal to integrate those functions.

After discussion, Council unanimously approved a motion accepting in principle the planning and budgeting process draft final report, accepting Council's central role in the proposed process, and endorsing the establishment of the position of Coordinator of Planning and Budgeting.

IV. HANDBOOK CHANGES

Council approved the addition of an alternate member to the Tenure and Promotion Appeals Committee. The alternate will serve only in cases where an appellant and one of the regular Committee members are from the same department.

Council approved changing the deadline date for the Tenure and Promotion Appeals Committee report to the President to a date not to exceed fifteen working days after the first class day of the Spring Semester.

Council approved the following revision of Section VIII. A. on page 51 of the Handbook:

A. The decision not to renew the contract of a full-time faculty member for reasons of performance (whether an untenured, tenure-track faculty member or a faculty member officially defined as "non-tenure track") is made by the President on the recommendation of the Provost, Dean, and Chairperson, after they have considered the vote of the members of the department or of the faculty members of the departmental board. The Chairperson shall hold a meeting with the full-time members of the department or of the departmental board to review the performance of the faculty member in question, and a secret ballot regarding the contract renewal shall be taken among those present. The Provost, Dean, Chairperson, and the faculty conducting the review should be informed by, at minimum, a mini-dossier of teaching evaluations, exams, syllabi, service activity listings, scholarly papers, as well as other information that the untenured faculty member would like to submit in support of his/her case.

Council's first regularly scheduled meeting of the 1994-95 academic year will be on Friday, September 16.

WHY NOT BECOME A PATIENT INSTRUCTOR?!

What do patient instructors ("standardized patients") do?

-they may teach interviewing, communication and/or information-giving skills by learning a role, portraying it to a medical student, then providing feedback to the student about the manner in which the interview was conducted.

-they may teach physical examination skills by learning the correct method of the a particular segment of the examination, having the medical student conduct the exam, then providing feedback to the student about the manner in which the exam was conducted.

-they may learn how to assess skills of students to determine the level of competence the student possesses.

-they get PAID! Our program pays $7.50/hour for training, and from $12.50 - $20.00/hour when working with medical students. Most programs are Monday-Friday in the afternoon.

Although we cannot promise you will have regular weekly hours, (AS THIS IS NOT A FULL-TIME OR EVEN A PART-TIME POSITION) we can assure you will enjoy helping future physicians learn how to become more effective health care providers.
