MEMO TO: Campus Community

DATE: July 31, 1995

It is my pleasure to announce the appointment of Gregory Bruce as Dean of the School of Business Administration effective August 1, 1995. After considering more than 40 résumés from a national search, the Search Committee arranged a full day of interviews for each of several external and internal candidates. At the end of this process, the Search Committee recommended Greg Bruce. I concur with this recommendation as does Br. Burke.

Greg became Director of the MBA Program at La Salle in 1981. Subsequently in the mid-1980's he served as Associate Dean of the School of Business Administration. During the past academic year, Greg also served as Coordinator of Planning and Budgeting for the University. Greg has provided leadership in many areas of SBA activity including: the writing of the AACSB Accreditation Self-Study Report, developing the MBA Program at Delaware Valley College, and the expansion of SBA partnerships with the business community. Greg is also Chairman of the Board of Directors of Horizon House, a $20 million agency serving the mentally disabled population. In addition to his MBA from La Salle Greg has a BA in Philosophy from St. Mary's Seminary and University and an MS in Education from Eastern Illinois University.

Please join me in congratulating Greg on his new position.

Finally, I want to extend my sincere appreciation on behalf of the Campus Community to the Search Committee, under the Chairmanship of Les Barenbaum, for the very thorough and rigorous search it completed. Members of the Committee, in addition to Les, are: Paul Brazina, Steve Meisel, Barbara Millard, Richard Mshomba, James Talaga, and Jeanne Welsh.

Campus News is distributed weekly to foster communication and encourage information sharing among University departments. Articles submitted are the responsibility of their authors alone and do not imply an opinion on the part of La Salle University or the Department of Mail and Duplicating Services.

As Greg Bruce assumes the position of SBA Dean, Les Barenbaum will be completing his tenure as Interim Dean, a position he has held for the past nine months. On behalf of the Campus Community, I want to express sincere thanks to Les who stepped into the vacant position of Dean on very short notice last November.

Les brought to his administrative work a clear and focused sense of responsibility, a strong vitality, and always new ways of looking at issues. He impressed all those who worked with him and was instrumental in moving many issues forward to completion. His presence on various University Committees will be missed.

Please join with me in thanking Les for his many contributions as Interim Dean and for the quality of his work in that position.

FROM: Barbara C. Millard, Dean
DATE: August 2, 1995
RE: NEH Summer Stipends

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20506

Summer, 1995

SUMMER STIPENDS
AWARDS: $4,000
(or $4,750 for projects requiring travel)
DEADLINE: 10/2/1995

Application forms are available for review in the office of the Dean of Arts & Sciences.

ELIGIBILITY

The Endowment has several rules involving eligibility for Summer Stipends. These include:

- 1) Recipients of NEH Summer Stipends in 1992 or after cannot apply for a 1996 NEH Stipend.
- 2) Degree candidates can apply only if they have completed all work, including any kind of requirement for an oral defense of the dissertation, by October 2, 1995.
- 3) A person who has received a major fellowship or research grant in the academic year 1993-94 or after is not eligible to apply. A "major fellowship or research grant" is a postdoctoral award of at least $10,000 that provides support for a continuous period of time equal to at least one term of the academic year (for example, a quarter or a semester); that enables the recipient to engage in scholarly research, personal study, professional development, or writing; and that comes from sources other than the recipient's employer. In this regard, sabbaticals and grants from a person's own institution are not considered major fellowships, nor are stipends and grants from other sources supporting study and research during the summer.

SELECTION AND PROCEDURES

- 1) Except in the case of exemption noted below (see item 3), applicants teaching in colleges and universities must be nominated by their institutions.
- 2) Each college and university in the United States and its territorial possessions may nominate three members of its faculty for the Summer Stipends competition. No more than two of the nominees may be in the early stages of their careers, i.e., junior nominees; no more than two may be at a more advanced stage, i.e., senior nominees. For the purposes of the Summer Stipends program, academic applicants at the rank of assistant professor or instructor who are at comparably early stages of their careers will be considered junior nominees. Those holding the rank of associate professor or professor will be considered senior.

3) Academics with appointments terminating by the summer of 1996 and others not employed by colleges or universities are exempt from nomination and may apply directly to the NEH.

4) Nonfaculty college and university staff members are eligible for the Summer Stipends program and may apply without nomination provided that they will not be teaching during the 1995-96 academic year. They should send their applications directly to the NEH.

5) Please note that nomination by an institution does not mean that institutions are being judged in the competition; only individuals are. The nomination requirement is designed to promote the distribution of awards to excellent scholars at a variety of institutions.

6) Please circulate these materials to faculty who teach in the "humanities" as identified on page one of the brochure: "language, both modern and classical; linguistics; literature; history; jurisprudence; philosophy; archaeology; comparative religion; ethics; the history, criticism, and theory of the arts; those aspects of social sciences which have humanistic content and employ humanistic methods. . . ."

Moreover, please note the comprehensive list of other eligible fields for Summer Stipends on the back of the NEH cover sheet in the application brochure. The fields include, for example, communications, media, theater and film, journalism history; or the history of science, technology and medicine; and other subjects. Any faculty member with a project in any of the fields listed may apply for nomination for a Summer Stipend. The field of the project determines eligibility for nomination to and application for NEH Summer Stipends, not the field of the applicant.

7) The NEH requests that institutions announce their nominating procedures to all potential applicants. The NEH does not prescribe the nomination procedure to be followed by an institution, but urges that the process be a fair one designed to nominate the best qualified candidates on each campus. These are the criteria that reviewers will use in evaluating Summer Stipends applications:

1. the significance of the contribution that the proposed project will make to thought and knowledge in the field of the project, and to interpreting and understanding the humanities generally;
2. the quality or promise of quality of the applicant's work as a teacher, scholar, or interpreter of the humanities;
3. the conception, definition, organization, and description of the proposed project;
4. the likelihood that the applicant will complete the project; and,
5. if applicable, the necessity of the planned travel and the appropriateness of the specific collection for the proposed project.

8) The nominees' Summer Stipends applications should be signed by the institutional officer coordinating the nomination process. Please use the three application brochures enclosed.

9) Finally, we ask the nominating official to send a letter identifying the institution's nominees. Send the letter to

Summer Stipends, Room 316
National Endowment for the Humanities
1100 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20506

Questions regarding the Summer Stipends program can be directed to the staff by calling 202-606-8551.

Enclosures: One Summer Stipends poster/Three Summer Stipends application brochures

All applications must be postmarked by October 2, 1995.

Re: Building in Benilde

This is an update on our mid-July move to Benilde Hall and a special thanks to the following departments who were an immense help in getting us “up and operational” in a minimum amount of time:

- Jack Porcelli and Stu Greentree and their Administrative Computing staff for a job well done;
- Hugh Thomas, Bob Veal, Eneida Inniss, and the staff of Physical Facilities/Custodial Services for their expertise in setting up and cleaning up;
- Chris Lydon and Wendy McLaughlin of Admissions/Financial Aid for furniture “loans” in our main lobby and mutual support;
- Brother Joe Grabenstein of Archives for naming and retrieving our Continuing Studies “history” and for serving as “official” photographer of the transition.

In addition to our new location, we have a new advisor, Kevin M. Cawley, who comes to us with an M.S. in Education Administration from Saint Joseph’s University. Kevin has a broad background in elementary, secondary, and higher education in the Philadelphia and Washington D.C. areas. He will be the primary advisor for Pre-Business students.

We are pleased to announce that we have already settled in and are busy preparing for the 95/Fall walk-in registration.

Please feel free to drop in and get acquainted with our new surroundings and our new advisor (first floor Benilde - center door entrance) as we continue to “build in Benilde” with our staff and students.
