LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

DEAN, SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
PHILADELPHIA, PA 19141-1199

June 30, 1995

TO: Campus Community

FROM: Barbara C. Millard
Dean, School of Arts & Sciences

DATE: June 27, 1995

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. James Devine to the position of Director of BUSCA and of the Graduate Program in Bilingual/Bicultural Studies, effective July 3, 1995. With his expertise in bilingual education and inter-cultural studies, Dr. Devine has taught in several programs in the University, including the MBA program and the Bilingual/Bicultural Program. He will be responsible for all administrative duties and curricular activities associated with the Bilingual/Bicultural Program and for the growing Bilingual Undergraduate Studies for Collegiate Advancement Program (BUSCA).

During July, Dr. Devine will be working with Dr. Leonard Brownstein to effect a smooth transition in the leadership of these programs. Dr. Brownstein, who pioneered and developed both programs as models of their type, will retire this August. We owe a tremendous debt to Len for the widely-acknowledged success of these programs. He deserves sincere thanks for his many years of inspired and inspiring service.

I also want to thank the other well-qualified applicants for their interest in this position and their dedication to La Salle. They made the selection process a rich, but challenging one.

Please join me in congratulating Dr. Devine on his appointment and in wishing him every success as Director of the graduate program in Bilingual/Bicultural Studies and of the BUSCA program.
