LA SALLE UNIVERSITY'S WEEKLY INFORMATION CIRCULAR

June 4th, 1999

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

OFFICE OF THE PROVOST

PHILADELPHIA, PA 19141 • (215) 951-1015 • FAX (215) 951-1602

TO: The Campus Community

FROM: Richard A. Nigro, Provost

DATE: June 4, 1999

Since many people generously surrendered their seats at Commencement, they may not yet know that this year's recipient of the Lindback Distinguished Teaching Award was Marianne Gauss of the Management Department.

Please join us in congratulating Marianne on this significant honor.

Thank you.

Campus News is distributed weekly to foster communication and encourage information sharing among University departments. Academic Affairs Committee
Minutes of the Meeting on April 16, 1999

Present: Megan Barnett, Joseph Brogan, Evelyn Cogan, Annie Hounsokou, Gerald Johnson, Ann Mickle, Barbara Millard, Nancy Youngblood,

Excused: Richard Nigro, Zane Wolf

Presiding: Dr. Millard

Topic: Minutes of the March 25, 1999 meeting

- Minutes of the March 25, 1999 meeting were approved with the following corrections (7 Approve, 0 No, no abstentions):
 - Change Steve Torpe to Steve Thorpe
- Inauguration of President, Friday, September 24, 1999.
 - Discussion:
 - Ceremony will begin at 3 PM
 - Faculty will be required to report for vesting at 2:15 PM in the Hayman Center. If the last class ends later than 1:20 PM the faculty will have difficulty getting attending to class responsibilities and then getting to the ceremony. Faculty is expected to march in the procession and be attired in academic regalia.
- Motion was made and approved (7 approved, 0 No, no abstentions) to change the academic calendar so that classes will end at 1:20 PM on September 24, 1999.

Topic: Task Force To Examine Scheduling Alternatives

- Discussion on the possibility of a task force to address the complaints about the current schedule. Students complain that they are not able to take the classes that they are interested in because of class conflicts. There have been numerous proposals in the past that have not been feasible.
- Provost to identify a task force to study the issue and make recommendations. Task force to convene before the end of the current academic year.
- The first meeting of the task force should be an organizational meeting to set goals for the task force for the next academic year.
- Tentative committee members were identified. The members will be specified at the next Academic Affairs Committee. It was recommended that the committee consist of representatives from the Graduate and Undergraduate Programs, the Rostering Department, representative from the Senate, Deans (or representatives) from each School, members of the Academic Affairs Committee and students.
- Suggestions for task force to consider are:
 - Length of class time
 - Length of semester
 - Inclusion of fall break
 - Starting and stopping dates for semester
 - Specific needs of each school
- Academic Affairs committee member volunteers are Megan Barnett, Nancy Youngblood and Ann Mickle. Additional members will be added at the next meeting. It is recommended that the task force have at least 10 members.

Topic: Continuation of Review of Social Science Cluster

The Committee continued review of Social Science Cluster, specifically, History, Sociology/Social Work and Political Science.

Meeting adjourned at 4:00 PM

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy M. Youngblood

DATE: May 27, 1999

In response to a suggestion from the Inauguration Committee, the Academic Affairs Committee has approved the cancellation of 7th and 8th period classes on Friday, September 24, 1999. The purpose of concluding the class day at 1:20 PM is to allow faculty and students to be free to prepare to attend the Inauguration of Brother Michael McGinniss at 3:00 PM that afternoon.

We ask faculty members to keep this schedule change in mind as they prepare their classes for the fall.

Thank you.

Nutrition Program Announcements

Nutrition Program Receives American Dietetic Association Approval

The Commission on Accreditation/Approval for Dietetics Education of The American Dietetic Association has approved La Salle's Nutrition Program for a period of 10 years. La Salle University joins 235 Colleges and Universities nationwide eligible to prepare students to be a Registered Dietitian (RD).

Minors in Applied Nutrition and Nutrition Science Available Fall, 1999

Minors in Applied Nutrition and Nutrition Science will be available to all La Salle undergraduate students beginning this fall. Both minors require 6 courses, including Principles of Nutrition (Nutr 165) and Life Cycle Nutrition (Nutr 200).

The Minor in Applied Nutrition may be applicable to students in health-related business majors, communication, education, nursing, psychology, and other allied health professions. It is also intended for any student interested in his or her own health and fitness. The Applied Nutrition Minor assumes minimal experience in college-level science. It includes basic science preparation with Chemistry 161 and Biology 210. Students then take Nutr 165, Nutr 200, and two additional 300-400 level nutrition courses.

The Nutrition Science Minor is intended for science majors. College-level chemistry is assumed and Biology 220 is required. Students then take Nutr 165, Nutr 200, and three additional 300-400 level nutrition courses.

Course descriptions can be found in the La Salle University Academic Bulletin.
