August 18, 2000

TO: The Campus Community
FROM: Richard A. Nigro, Provost
RE: Opening Convocation on August 24, 2000

As you probably know, part of our opening weekend of activities is an Academic Convocation. The event will be in the Gola Arena at 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, August 24.

In addition to a welcome for our new students, the Convocation will feature the presentation of the Provost's Distinguished Faculty Award. May I cordially invite all members of the La Salle Community whose schedules permit to join us in welcoming our new students and honoring the award recipient's distinguished service to the University.

Thank you.

Campus News is distributed weekly to foster communication and encourage information sharing among University departments. Please excuse us if this causes an inconvenience, but this is the best way for the students to learn about their new community.

Dear Colleagues:

After a spell of R. and R. thanks to having taken early retirement a couple of years ago, I am about to rejoin the ranks of the gainfully (moot point?) employed: I plan to teach a French class this fall, and am writing this note to ask if you or someone you know, e.g., a student who might like to earn a few dollars, would be in a position to drive me to and/or from La Salle, either on a regular basis or once in a while. The rides would be in exchange for collegial chat (or silence, whichever is preferred) and monetary compensation.

The class will meet MWF at 9:00 a.m.; I live at School Lane House, corner of Wissahickon Avenue and School House Lane in Germantown, about an 8-minute drive. Unfortunately, I come with baggage, to wit: a lightweight folding wheelchair which can generally fit into the back seat of most 4-door cars, or in the trunk. I have bad knees, but can quite easily get out of my chair and in and out a vehicle (provided the latter is not moving at the time).

I thought this would be the best way to communicate with many folks without putting any one on the spot. Your help in any guise--driving or referral--would be much appreciated. I can be reached at (215) 844-2397, or at school, ext. 1210. Thank you very much.
