To: The Campus Community

From: Bud Dotsey, '69 – Director of Alumni Relations

It is with regret that I inform the La Salle Community of the pending departure of Kirstin Shrom, '96, from her position as Assistant Director of Alumni Relations for Class Programs.

Kirstin will be resigning from the University effective June 16 in order to accept a position in the area of international service and mission work in Blacksburg, Virginia.

Everyone who has had the pleasure of working with Kirstin can appreciate the depths of the loss we will feel with her departure. While in the Alumni Office, Kirstin has made significant contributions in working with all the myriad constituencies which make up the La Salle Community – Alumni, Staff, Faculty, and Students. Her list of accomplishments in a short time has been impressive, and has include the revival of the Alumnae Association, her work with student groups and activities, and, most recently her thematic and programing efforts in ensuring the success of REUNION 2000 – 2000 MEMORIES.

While we will miss Kirstin, her vivacious personality and unparalleled talents, in the Alumni Office, we wish her well in her new position, and in answering a calling which is near and dear to her.

Dear Colleague in the Arts and Humanities:

Re: Information Sessions on PCA Fellowships, Including Arts Commentary: Critical Issues in the Arts
Tuesday, June 27, 2000, 3 p.m. and 6:30 p.m., at the Painted Bride Art Center

We write to encourage you to attend information sessions being held in Philadelphia to introduce individuals in the arts to the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts' 2001 Fellowships. In addition to fellowships for artists, staff from the PCA and the PHC will discuss the new fellowship category Arts Commentary: Critical Issues in the Arts which recognizes individuals whose work comments on the arts. The Pennsylvania Humanities Council is administering this new fellowship category and is co-hosting the sessions.

The Arts Commentary fellowship recognizes individuals whose work examines critical issues in the arts and promotes public understanding of the arts. The work may focus on any artistic discipline or combination of disciplines, including architecture, crafts, dance, design, folk and traditional arts, interdisciplinary arts, literature, media arts (audio, digital, film, and video), music, theater, and the visual arts. Both published and unpublished work are accepted, and may take the form of articles, essays, books, and scripts, text, or treatments for projects in film, electronic, and digital media. Fellows will receive awards of $5,000 or $10,000.

Two information sessions will take place on Tuesday, June 27, at 3 p.m. and 6:30 p.m., at the Painted Bride Art Center in Philadelphia. If you are interested in attending, please contact the PHC by e-mail at phc@libertynet.org or by phone at (800) 462-0442 or (215) 925-1005, and let us know which session you would like to attend. The enclosed flyer provides additional details about the workshop.

If you are unable to attend but are interested in the Arts Commentary fellowship, please do not hesitate to get in touch with the PHC. We would be more than happy to forward you the guidelines and application form and assist you with your application.
