RE: Departure Announcement

I wish to inform you that Bud Dotsey, '69, has announced that he is leaving his position as Director of Alumni Relations, effective July 14th to pursue other interests.

While there is seldom a good time for the departure of a key senior administrator, such as Bud, we are grateful that he has agreed to stay on through mid-summer, which provides La Salle the greatest opportunity for success in finding a suitable replacement while also fitting well with Bud's plans.

Over the last five years, as the University's Director of Alumni Relations, Bud has made significant contributions to his alma mater including: increasing the number of alumni for which the University has good records, communicating more broadly with an increasingly mobile and diverse alumni population, successfully lobbying for the reestablishment of an Alumni Newsletter (the first issue of which will appear this summer), increasing outreach to alumni clubs, chapters and affinity groups, raising the number of alumni sponsored programs and events, and steadily advancing the number of alumni attending Reunion and other events.

Please join me in thanking Bud not only for all that he has done for La Salle, but also the highly professional manner in which he has carried out his responsibilities here.

I know you will also join me in wishing him great success in his future endeavors.

Re: New Staff

Please join us in welcoming Aimee Rogers, formerly Assistant Director of Admissions at La Salle, to the University Advancement staff. Aimee assumed the position of Director of University Events on June 5th. In this capacity, she is responsible for providing assistance in planning, coordinating and managing the logistics for all University sponsored events and meetings involving members of the external community. Events for which she will provide support include University Advancement receptions and dinners, presidential events, Homecoming, Reunion, alumni club events, academic award ceremonies and receptions, Commencement, convocations, Parents' Weekend, etc.

Aimee will be working closely with advancement officers and other members of the La Salle University community, who have responsibility for events, receptions and gatherings that serve to promote the University. She will also serve as the point of contact for external groups who have an interest in using La Salle University's facilities for meetings and receptions.

Aimee can be reached at Ext. 1837 or rogers@lasalle.edu.
