Department of Communication

June 15th, 2001

Thanks to the La Salle Community

As a member of La Salle's Master's Degree in Professional Communication program. I wanted to take a brief moment to thank the members of La Salle's faculty, La Salle's baseball team, and all other members of the La Salle community for their involvement in and assistance with my practicum this past semester.

Dealing with the challenges presented by the academic and athletic schedules of student-athletes, this project would not have been possible without your help.

For their time, effort and invaluable contributions to my project. I especially wanted to offer my sincerest appreciation to the following individuals:

Dr. Nancy Jones, Chair, NCAA Sub-Committee on Academic Integrity;
Kevin Currie, Director of Athletic Communication;
Annette O'Connor, Faculty Representative to the NCAA,
Kevin Manero '02 and Jon Palumbo '01, baseball team;
Lynne Texter, Communication Department;
Marsha Timmerman, ISBT;
Kathy McNichols, Finance Department.

I also want to express my gratitude to the thirty-six other members of the faculty who in the midst of final exams and grading, very generously took the time to complete and return my questionnaire. Your information has enabled me to complete a project that I hope will assist both faculty and students as La Salle encourages and supports the model of student-athlete on our campus

I want to offer special thanks to Brother Gerry Molyneaux for all of his guidance, patience, and assistance with my practicum.

Finally, if you would like a copy of the results of my study, please send your e-mail address to jpunchello@tesc.edu. As I am getting married in a week, a copy of these results will probably be sent to you in a few weeks, but I will certainly make sure that you get one.

Thanks again. I hope you all are having and will continue to have a tremendous summer.

Sincerely,

Robert Hoffman
