LA SALLE UNIVERSITY'S WEEKLY INFORMATION CIRCULAR

Oct. 11th, 2002

MEMORANDUM

Date: October 11, 2002
To: University Faculty
From: Bro. John McGoldrick
Assistant Provost
Subject: Due Date for Final Grades

At its recent meeting the Academic Affairs Committee discussed once again the proposal that the University shorten considerably the time frame for submission of final grades. The due date now proposed for use in future years for both the Fall and Spring semesters would be no later than 5 calendar days after the end of the final examination period. While the Committee was quite sympathetic to issues raised in the comments submitted in Spring 2002, it realized that other rationales for making this change existed, including the following:

- Tuition reimbursements from employers are currently delayed by the system we use. Sometimes students are unable to register for the follow-on term because they cannot afford to do so
- Issues related to academic status are also affected, among which are the formal notifications of academic status or the uncertainty of registering for follow-on courses.

The committee itself was generally in favor of the revised proposal, but it nevertheless seeks comment from you. Any comments you want to offer should be sent to me either via campus mail, e-mail, or e-mailed attachment (mcgoldri@lasalle.edu). The latter two means are preferred, as it allows for easy assembly of all comments into a single document. I request that you submit your comments by no later than Friday, October 18, 2002.

Thank you.

Campus News is distributed weekly to foster communication and encourage information sharing among University departments. Articles submitted are the responsibility of their authors alone and do not imply an opinion on the part of La Salle University or the Department of Mail and Duplicating Services.

SECOND: N. Kirby

VOTE: In Favor: 11                      Opposed: 1                      Abstain: 0

DISCUSSION:

The Funding board members will be meeting with the Dean of Students on October 8 to discuss questions concerning their charge and issues with the annual budget procedure

Information Distributed:

- The history of the Student Activities Fee and the allotment to the Athletics Department
- The formulas used by the Business Office and the Activities Fee
- The information supplied last semester to the Funding Board from the Athletic Department concerning the allotment of the Student Activities Fee

Suggestions and Timelines for Changes to the Annual Budget Procedure:

The Athletic Department will be contacted in late October to attend a meeting (a meeting at which no Contingency Fund requests would be considered) to discuss the Student Activities Fee allotment. The meeting should take place in November 2002.

The idea of creating a Programming Board on campus was discussed. The Programming Board would be made up of student members. The Programming Board would alleviate some of the stress on student organizations to program so much. The Programming Board would start program planning the semester before the programs would take place and would be have access to the Backstage budget under supervision of the Programming Coordinator.

A suggestion was made to meet with the organizations that receive annual budgets to talk about co-sponsorship. The goal would be for student organizations to work on large-scale programs together. If this were to happen the planning would need to start in the late winter before annual budgets are completed in early spring. This suggestion was met with hesitation because the Funding Board members feel the student organizations already work together and that events that are run are self-contained and work well in that manner.

Concerns:

The Funding Board members have questions about the formula the Business Office uses for the Activities Funding Board.

The members feel they have control over some issues relating to the Activities Fee but not others and see that as a conflict.

David George, Ph. D. Economics Department

“Preference Pollution”

Tuesday, October 15 at 3:00PM
In the Music Room

According to most economists, if you smoke, it's because that is what you "prefer." If you eat foods that you know aren't good for you, it's because that is what you "prefer." Hear David George describe the main argument of his recently published book, Preference Pollution, in which he concludes that something important is missing from this ever more influential view of "freedom to choose." Humans can have preferences about their preferences, and Dave will explain why market forces are unable to create within us those preferences that we most want to have. He will provide some background on his 30-year struggle to get his ideas accepted, and will describe certain social trends that suggest the problem of "preference pollution" is a worsening one.

UNDERSTANDING THE “ACADEMY FOR LEADERSHIP IN GLOBAL UNDERSTANDING”

Thursday, October 17, 12:30-1:50

Location: Olney 209

Facilitators: Marjorie Allen & Bob Vogel

“Since 1999, the Presidents of nearly 450 colleges and universities have signed the Presidents’ Fourth of July Declaration on the Civic Responsibility of Higher Education. That declaration challenges institutions of Higher Education in America “to renew our role as agents of our democracy” and declares that challenge “a fundamental task” [www.Compact.org]. The Academy for Leadership in Global Understanding is our response to this “fundamental task.” One of the main concerns of that document is “the disengagement of college students from democratic participation.” The mission of the Academy is the “reengagement” of La Salle’s undergraduate students in the life of their communities, both local and global. ... We intend to place civic responsibility and global understanding at the center of a student’s education and at the center of the La Salle experience. The goal of the Academy is nothing less than transformation—of the individual students who take these courses and participate in these programs, of the faculty who teach in them and of the entire La Salle campus.” (From the mission statement for the Academy for Leadership in Global Understanding)

At this session you will have the chance to hear more about the ways in which the Academy will increase students’ understanding of their role in a global society through engaged learning and an emphasis on civic responsibility and also to ask questions and learn about opportunities for faculty involvement in this program.
