The Writing Fellows Program

- If you interested in the assistance of a Writing Fellow for the fall, 2003 please return the tear-off by Monday, June 9, 2003
- Writing Fellows read the drafts of papers you assign in one of your courses and give students one-on-one assistance with their writing. They read the drafts, write comments, and see each student in a short conference.
- Writing Fellows' assisted courses should include at least two papers (3-7 pages long) written for a grade.
- The first drafts should be due no sooner than the end of the 4th week of the semester. The last set of drafts should be due no later than the 12th week of the semester.
- All students in Writing Fellows' assisted courses are required to participate in the program.
