New Chairs/Directors Named in Arts and Sciences

Following consultation with faculty and with the approval of the Provost, I am pleased to announce the following re-appointments and appointments of leaders in several departments and graduate programs within the School of Arts and Sciences:

Re-appointed:

Department of Philosophy

-Marc Moreau, Chair

Department of Psychology

-Brother Joseph Burke, Chair

M.A., Clinical-Counseling Psychology

-John Rooney, Director

M.S., Computer Information Science

-Tom Blum, Director

M.S., Information Technology Leadership

-Tom Blum, Director

New Appointments:

Department of Communication

-Lynne Texter, Chair

Department of Education

-Frank Mosca, Chair

Department of Sociology, Criminal Justice, and Social Work

-Janine Mariscotti, Chair

M.A., Professional Communication

-Michael Smith, Director

M.A., Prof. Communication, Prague

-Brother Gerard Molyneaux, Director

M.A., Education

-Greer Richardson, Director

M.A., History/History for Educators

-George Stow, Director

La Salle University is fortunate to have individuals of this caliber willing to assume leadership roles in these important academic departments/programs.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank the outgoing chairs/directors for their past service to the institution. Some of these individuals have accepted new administrative responsibilities, others are leaving academic administration. All have had a great influence on the university and the students served by their department/program.

Brother Gerard Molyneaux (Chair, Department of Communication)

Deborah Yost (Chair, Department of Education)

Finn Hornum (Chair, Department of Sociology, Criminal Justice, and Social Work)

Richard Goedkoop (Director, M.A., Professional Communication)

Michael Smith (Director, M.A., Professional Communication, Prague)

Frank Mosca (Director, M.A., Education)

La Salle University owes a great debt to these individuals, each of whom has provided excellent leadership and each of whom leaves a distinct mark on their department/ program. On behalf of their students and colleagues – Thank you!

Tom Keagy, Dean
School of Arts and Sciences
