AN EVENING WITH THE PRESIDENT

Brother Patrick Ellis, F.S.C., Ph.D., President of the College, will continue a program he began last spring and visit with alumni in Philadelphia’s northeast on March 25. The meeting will take place at the Shack Restaurant, Roosevelt Boulevard near Cottman Avenue, at 8:00 p.m. All interested alumni are welcome to attend.

Well received last year at out of state chapter meetings, the “Evening With the President” is designed to give area alumni an opportunity to meet the President and hear about the College and its future plans from the most qualified source.

The following week, on March 31, Brother Patrick will be the guest of the alumni Suburban Club at a dinner meeting at the Picket Post (formerly the Forest Inn), Welsh Road and Tennis Avenue in Ambler, Pa. Reservations are necessary and may be made through the Alumni Office, (215) 951-1535.

Also at this dinner, the senior education students will be inducted into the association, honorary memberships will be awarded, and a number of special guests will speak briefly concerning their experiences in education.

Persons interested in attending may call the Alumni Office, 951-1535.

The Concert and Lecture series, in cooperation with the Film Society and the History Department, is sponsoring a Vietnam War Film Series this semester. In addition to screenings of provocative films, a series of lectures is being offered by faculty members.

Following the January presentation of “Hearts and Minds” and discussion by Brother Gerard Molyneaux, F.S.C., Ph.D., the series continues with “The Green Berets” to be shown on March 2 (2:30 p.m. in the theatre) and March 3 (11:30 a.m. in Olney 100) and discussed by Dr. Joseph O’Grady of the History Department at 1:30 on March 5 in Olney 100.

The film “Coming Home” may be seen March 23, at 2:30 p.m. in the theatre or March 24 at 11:30 p.m. in Olney 100. This film will be discussed at 1:30 p.m. on March 26 by Mr. William Wine of the Communication Arts program.

“The Deer Hunter” will be presented in Olney 100 on March 31 at 11:30 a.m., and in the theatre on April 1 at 8:00 p.m., then discussed by Brother Daniel Burke, F.S.C., in Olney 100 at 1:30 p.m. on April 2. Finally, “Apocalypse Now” will be shown in Olney 100 on April 21 at 11:30 a.m. and in the theatre on April 22 at 8:00 p.m. Discussion will be offered by Dr. Richard Goedkoop of Communication Arts in Olney 100 at 1:30 p.m. on April 23.

The following week, February 17, a less enthusiastic view will be offered in the College Union Multi-purpose Room at 12:30 p.m. by Dr. Charles Dyke of Temple University’s Philosophy Department and author of Philosophy of Economics. On March 3, at 12:30 p.m., Dr. John Raines of Temple’s Religion Department will offer “Enterprise and Community” in the Multi-purpose Room.

On March 24 classical accordionist Robert Davine will display his virtuosity at 12:30 p.m. in the Art Gallery.

A debate on Handgun Control will be staged between Mr. John Schacht of the Pennsylvania Coalition to Control Handguns and a representative of the National Rifle Association in the College Union Multi-purpose Room on April 7.

A brief glimpse into the future may be provided on April 14 when Amory Lovins presents “Soft Energy Paths: How to Enjoy the Inevitable” at 12:30 p.m. in Olney 100.

A “Fun Run” will be held for all interested alums on Saturday morning, May 22 at 10:00 a.m. It will originate and end at Hayman Hall where lockers and showers will be provided. A $4.00 registration fee will include a T-shirt commemorating your participation. Then, at 1:00 p.m. a luncheon will be held in the new Multi Purpose room of the College Union honoring this year’s Hall of Athletes inductees (who are not known as of this writing). Reunion classes will be hearing from us in the coming weeks. If you are interested in receiving more information on the Fun Run and/or the Hall of Athletes luncheon, just call the Alumni Office (215) 951-1535, or drop us a post card, and we will be happy to send you more specifics as they become known.

As can be seen from the activities outlined in these pages, we have a busy Spring coming up. An alumnus or alumna can be as active as he/she wishes because the committees which plan and carry out these functions are always open. I urge you to step forward and participate. It’s your college, and though we don’t say it often enough, it’s a very good one.

Incidentally, if a friend or associate is looking at colleges, suggest they invest $5.95 in Peterson’s Guide to Competitive Colleges. It profiles 246 colleges and universities nationally (out of more than 3,000). La Salle is one of the half dozen area institutions found in its pages.

Stay interested in our alma mater and, as they are fond of saying in the South, “Y’all come back and see us now, y’heah?”

Sincerely yours,

James J. McDonald

They joined Explorers Joe Bryant, Larry Cannon, Frank Corace, Ken Durrett, Alonza Lewis and Hubie Marshall as members of the Big Five Hall of Fame.

The Explorer Basketball Association enjoyed a highly successful membership campaign which saw membership more than double from last year.
