On Entering College

In planning your educational future, you are probably confronted with endless questions. Not the least of these is the question of choosing a college. One of the major purposes of this catalogue is to provide you with sufficient information about La Salle to help you decide whether it is the right college for you.

La Salle College is a Catholic college for men, founded in 1863 and conducted by the Brothers of the Christian Schools, a religious order dedicated solely to teaching. The college is located at Twentieth Street and Olney Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The first part of this book, "A Profile of La Salle," attempts to tell you in words and pictures what you can expect when you come to La Salle. The second part is a reference section in which you can find requirements for admission, probable expenses, course descriptions, and other useful information.

This catalogue, however, can only begin your introduction to La Salle. We invite you to visit the campus to complete your introduction, to talk with faculty members and administrators, to find out for yourself the answers to any questions not covered here. Phone the Office of Admissions to arrange such a visit.

Brother Daniel Bernard, P.S.C.
President, La Salle College
A Profile of La Salle
La Salle College was founded in 1863 by a group of Brothers, priests, and laymen. The nucleus for the new college was the Academy conducted by the Christian Brothers as an adjunct to St. Michael's School. Later the College moved downtown to a site in the shadow of City Hall. Outgrowing that location, La Salle moved north on Broad Street and began a 43 year stay at the Bouvier Mansion. This dignified old brownstone at 1240 North Broad Street had been the home of Mrs. Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy's ancestors.

In 1929, the expanding College made its last move. The new site on the edge of Germantown was part of historic Belfield Farm, once the home of American painter Charles Willson Peale. The College experienced some difficult years in its new home as first the Depression, then the War depleted the student population.

Just before the war ended, La Salle's enrollment was 90 students. A year later the campus was bulging with 1200 veterans and a new chapter in La Salle's history had begun. In meeting the postwar demand for education, La Salle became virtually a new college.

A small college no more, La Salle reorganized its administrative structure in keeping with its new size. In 1946, the Evening Division was founded, meeting the needs of the metropolitan area so well that its present enrollment equals that of the day division.

The face of the campus began a transformation that shows no sign of ending. First came a new library, then an unending procession of residence halls, a College Union, a Science Center, a student chapel, and still more residence facilities. In the planning stage at present are a classroom building and a physical recreation building.

This remarkable physical growth has been matched by a comparable academic development. Studies have shown a continuing improvement in the credentials of each new class. A thriving Honors program is in operation. A $400,000 library development program has substantially increased the library's holdings. The curriculum has been revised to provide greater flexibility and emphasis on individual effort. Faculty benefits and scholarship aid to talented students have both increased. An exhaustive self-study conducted by the College between 1963 and 1966 analyzed past progress and present and future needs, culminating in a ten year plan for continued improvement in every facet of teaching and learning.
The Physical Side

La Salle College is spread over thirty acres of ground at the crest of a hill at Twentieth Street and Olney Avenue on the edge of historic Germantown. To the south you look out over the expanse of trees that is Wister Woods. Looking east, you can barely make out the busy scene that is Broad Street. The campus may best be described as a blend of city convenience and suburban atmosphere. The location can be easily reached by automobile or public transportation from anywhere in the Philadelphia area or from surrounding sections of New Jersey as far north as Trenton. Yet the peaceful atmosphere of the campus is set by the quiet green wooded areas that border it on two sides.

La Salle is fortunate too in having ready access to the educational facilities of the Philadelphia area. "The Old Capital" contains rich cultural resources in art, music, and history. Its many libraries, museums, historic buildings, and great educational institutions offer a magnificent heritage to the student. Nearby Germantown is the site of beautiful old homes and memorable locations dating back to Revolutionary times.

Visually, the most striking thing about the campus is the contrast between the traditional Gothic structures and the more functional lines of contemporary architecture. The contrast might be considered symbolic of the character of La Salle College with its century-old tradition and amazing post-war renaissance.

First of the post-war buildings to go up was the library. This modern air-conditioned structure is already cramped for space, with a collection of 115,000 volumes and periodical files of some 525 journals.

The College Union, a great curving structure enclosing a portion of the stadium, was next to be built. The Union is probably the busiest place on campus. Here you can eat a meal, get a haircut, buy some books or clothes, see a performance by a visiting celebrity, listen to a concert in the Music Room, or perhaps even meet your future wife at a dance in the ballroom.

The Science Center, with its vast expanses of white marble, contrasts even more sharply with the predominantly brick buildings. Inside are the well-equipped laboratories and lecture rooms so necessary to a vital science program.

The residence halls, as the adjoining map indicates, are slightly removed from the busy classroom areas. Were it not for a few signs, you might easily mistake them for a new apartment development. In themselves they constitute a small city of 800 men, sharing an experience of living together and learning what college is all about.
The Human Side

More than buildings, more than books, more than lectures and examinations, education is a matter of people. It is the people who make up La Salle—the students and the teachers—who give the college its character. You may well ask, "What are they like, these people with whom I may spend my next four years?"

The students at La Salle come from some 150 public and private schools, most of them in the northeastern part of the United States. The majority come from a middle-class background and have a strong desire to prepare for a particular career. Studies indicate that about 60% plan graduate work in their field. There is a common bond between majors in a particular subject field that often ripens into permanent friendships.

Your teachers at La Salle are Christian Brothers, priests, and lay professors. All of them share the same goal: to be of as much help to you, the student, as they can be. St. La Salle's dedication to teaching is the informing spirit of the college, and you will be conscious of this spirit in the willingness of your professors to give that extra moment of explanation or advice which can mean so much. While many of these men are engaged in their own scholarship or research, their primary focus is always the classroom and their basic obligation is to you, the student.

Making the transition between high school and college is never easy, but at La Salle you will find many people who want to help, and who understand some of the problems you face perhaps better than you do yourself.

During the summer months preceding the start of classes you will be invited to participate in a counseling program. Several forms will be mailed to you to complete at home and these will become part of your personal file in the Counseling Center. Later you will come to the campus for a full day of conferences with a Dean, a member of the military science staff, and the counselors. At this time you will have an interview with your counselor to discuss your educational and career plans. Besides this initial counseling program, the Counseling Center offers continued diagnostic and counseling services throughout your college years. If you are unsure of your major or of your vocational plans, the staff is happy to assist you in making a sound choice based on your own interests and capabilities. The Center also offers personal counseling when requested, provides you with information about graduate and professional schools, keeps an up-to-date file of occupational information, extends psychiatric evaluation service, and generally seeks to meet your needs in guidance and counseling.
Before the beginning of regular classes in September, there is a special orientation period for freshmen to introduce you to some of the people, places, and attitudes you will find important to your college career. Faculty and student advisers will try to help you improve your study habits, your note-taking, and your ability to plan ahead. A recent popular innovation in the orientation period is a seminar discussion of one of your summer readings. These lively sessions under direction of faculty members are meant to be stimulating introductions to the pleasures of intellectual exploration. Orientation days also provide the opportunity for meeting your counselor, a professor designated to advise you on matters affecting your academic well-being. You will also meet upperclassmen representing the various activities who will suggest the clubs they feel are most important to your social well-being.

Nor is your physical well-being neglected. A College physician is always on call, and a registered nurse is in daily attendance in the Infirmary. Resident students are required to have a yearly physical examination, and medical insurance is available and recommended to all students.

In your senior year, if not before, you will become acquainted with another person who works for your benefit, the Director of the Placement Bureau. His office exists to help you find employment after graduation or part-time work while you are attending college.

All in all, you will find the human side at La Salle an important part of your education. Long after you have forgotten painfully memorized facts from a textbook or lecture, you will remember the teachers and students with whom you associated in your college years.
The Social Side

Although the social life at La Salle is varied and appealing, you will be a wise freshman if you keep it in perspective. The activities and sports you participate in may enhance your education or prevent it. If you choose your activities carefully and do not permit them to interfere with your serious purpose, you can make the social side of college an invaluable part of your educational development.

Each of the activities, sports, and social and cultural events distributed through the school year represents hours of practice or preparation. In these hours, dedicated students often learn things that supplement their classroom experiences. They learn to discipline themselves toward achieving a goal; they learn to work in close association with other men; they learn judgment and responsibility. And sometimes they simply learn how to relax and relieve the tensions of the daily grind.

All of these things are important in rounding out an education. You will miss something out of college life if you pass them all by. Athletics, for example, may be for you a real outlet of energies and tensions, whether you are participant or spectator. The athletic program at La Salle is arranged to allow competition at various levels, both intercollegiate and intramural. Varsity teams in basketball, baseball, swimming, track, cross-country, crew, soccer, and golf have been leaders in their fields. The basketball team is nationally known, and several brilliant individual performers in other sports have represented the United States in the Olympic Games.
Besides athletics, the social side of La Salle includes events ranging from lectures and concerts to dances and shows. The College Union, with its fine theater and ballroom facilities, is the focal point for most of these activities. Among guest performers in the past have been pianist Susan Starr, actors Hal Holbrook and Basil Rathbone, folk singers Leon Bibb and Odetta, and bandleaders Stan Kenton and Count Basie. The College also sponsors a professional Music Theater each summer which has earned critical acclaim for its productions of Broadway musicals.

Your Student Handbook will give you a complete list of the various clubs and activities, some of which will certainly interest you. If you participate sensibly, without losing sight of your primary goal, your educational experience will be that much richer.

The Academic Side

If you are like most high school students, it is not easy for you to imagine just what your school day at college will be like. One thing you know: it will be quite different from the traditional high school day of five or six classes in a row. Let us imagine, then, a typical schedule at La Salle.

To begin with, your day will not always start at the same time. Sometimes you will have a first period class at 8:30; other days your first class might be at 2:30 in the afternoon. Neither will you have the same schedule of classes each day. On Monday you might have only two classes, while on another day you will have four. On the average, you will spend eighteen hours a week in actual class attendance as compared to the thirty or more hours spent in high school classes. Obviously, you will have much more “free time” on your hands, and it is the way you use this free time that is the key to your academic success.
The most important adjustment to collegiate life you will have to make is in learning to budget your time wisely. No one will force you to learn; no one can. Instead, you will be treated as a mature, intelligent young man. You will be given assigned readings, papers, and projects in research to be turned in by a certain date. You yourself must plan when these assignments will be done; you yourself must bear the responsibility for meeting standards set by your instructors.

The standards for academic achievement are treated in some detail in the reference section of this catalogue and need not be discussed here. The important thing for you to realize about the academic side of your college life is that it is the central test of your maturity and sense of responsibility. Learning is sometimes hard work, but it is the most rewarding kind of effort, not only in grades but in the self-satisfaction of having met a difficult challenge successfully.

But the academic side of college is not just a bleak picture of “challenges,” “responsibilities,” and “standards.” The academic side really offers one of the deepest, most lasting joys a man can experience—the joy of understanding.

Suddenly some part of human experience fits into a pattern for you; suddenly you understand “why.” The best part of the joy of understanding is that it is endless. The deeper your understanding goes, the deeper the satisfaction you experience.

Perhaps you haven’t yet discovered this kind of joy; you may even doubt that it exists. Yet when you first experience it, you will begin to understand what education is all about and why many men willingly devote their lives to study and research.
The Philosophical Side

La Salle College is a group of buildings—brick, marble, limestone—situated on a hill overlooking Wister Woods. But it is also a great deal more. It is the embodiment of several great educational traditions: the Catholic tradition of striving for the perfection of one's God-given intellectual powers; the American tradition of educating men in the foundations and spirit of democracy and the roots of western civilization; and the La Sallian tradition of dedicated teaching and concern for the individual, which dates back to St. John Baptist de La Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers and Patron Saint of Teachers.

In the light of these traditions, La Salle College aims at developing the man who, in the words of Pope Pius XI, "thinks, judges, and acts constantly and consistently in accordance with right reason illumined by the supernatural light of the example and teaching of Christ; in other words, to use the current term, the true and finished man of character." At the same time the College recognizes that, as an institution of the twentieth century preparing its students for participation in a world of ever widening horizons and complex problems, it must be a dynamic organization with a flexible program adaptable to the changing needs of society and the individual potentialities of its varied students.

OBJECTIVES

In the area of religious, intellectual, social, and personal development, La Salle strives to accomplish the following:
To accord the student a higher education with the theology of the Catholic Church as an integrating and informing discipline in all fields of learning and, for the Catholic student, as an independent area of study.

To provide conditions for student growth in the theological virtues, in worship, and in moral integrity.

To offer the student a liberal education, through general and specialized courses, in which he learns to observe reality with precision, to judge opinion and events critically, to think logically, to communicate effectively, and to develop his esthetic perception.

To acquaint the student with a body of knowledge about God; about man—his nature, behavior, and values; and about the universe.

To give the student specialized knowledge and skill in one field of learning not only as preparation for graduate study or for immediate entry into professional life but also as a basic instrument for his liberal education.

To prepare the student for informed and responsible service and leadership in his immediate communities and in the state, the world and the Church.

To help the student develop mature attitudes and behavior in all human relationships.

At the practical level of everyday college life, these aims are carried out in a variety of ways. You will be taking courses in theology, but such formal instruction can be supplemented by your voluntary participation in religious services and your contribution to the unobtrusive but genuine Christian atmosphere that pervades the campus. You will have courses in philosophy aimed at developing a rational approach toward ultimate goals. Courses in history and literature help you explore the foundations on which our civilization and traditions are based; outside lecturers and co-curricular clubs will further extend your interest in such intellectual exploration.

In keeping with the philosophy of a broad education implicit in these objectives, the College often invites artists, scholars, and scientists from outside its regular faculty to offer lectures or independent study courses. In the past, distinguished writers like T. H. White and Dwight MacDonald, scientists like Werner Von Braun and Edward Teller, and public figures like Senator Eugene McCarthy and Governor William Scranton have lectured to students. Guest professors from Pennsylvania, Princeton, and Swarthmore have been among those offering independent study courses to honor students.
The Religious Side

La Salle embraces the ideal that a man's spiritual and intellectual development must go hand in hand, complementing and fulfilling each other. The religious concern of the College, therefore, is not in opposition to the search for truth which is the basic mission of a college. Rather it is a further extension of that search, encouraging a concern for the ultimate questions of human experience—questions sometimes ignored but more often posed in different frameworks in the secular college.

To be part of a Christian college is to assume that there is a final meaning and purpose to life and that education has the duty to explore that meaning and help man achieve that purpose. The Christian knows that he is in the world, however, not only to save his soul but to cherish and develop every human value. For the committed student, therefore, there is neither opposition between nor confusion of his secular study and his religious interests.

What the College does basically is help you to prepare yourself for intelligent leadership in the various communities of which you are a part. Some of the preparation is provided in theology courses which give a more mature understanding of the religious commitment you bring to the College and the relation of that commitment to individual and social behavior.
While your participation in the liturgy or in religious activities on the campus is voluntary, you will be offered frequent opportunities to join with other committed students and teachers in such service. The dialogue Masses offered several times daily permit a high degree of participation in the Holy Sacrifice. The spirit of liturgical worship extends to the newly-renovated chapel itself, which exemplifies the simple dignity of contemporary church art.

The Religious Side of La Salle offers you the opportunity to match your intellectual growth in the secular subjects with a similar and necessary growth in matters liturgical and theological. Only if you take advantage of that opportunity can you be a fully educated man.
General Reference
Qualifications for Admission

If you are well-motivated toward a college career and can show evidence of high academic achievement and ability, there is a good chance that the Admissions Committee will look with favor upon your application. In arriving at its decision, the Committee studies your high school record and the scores of your College Entrance Examination Board Tests, together with recommendations from your high school faculty, guidance counselor, and principal. The following are the specific requirements for admission:

A. High School Units.
Applicants for admission must present a minimum of sixteen units of high school work which should include the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject</th>
<th>Units</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>English</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mathematics:</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>History</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Natural Science</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Foreign Language</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total: 10 units
The remaining six units may be distributed as follows:

1. Applicants for the Liberal Arts program may present six other units in academic subjects.

2. Applicants for the Science and Mathematics program may present six other units in academic subjects but including an additional unit in algebra and one-half unit in trigonometry.

3. Applicants for the School of Business Administration may present six academic or commercial units, excluding typing.

B. Language Requirements.

All applicants should present two units in the same foreign language.

C. Additional Requirements.

Applicants to the freshman class are required to take both the morning and afternoon tests given by the College Entrance Examination Board:

a. Morning Program—Scholastic Aptitude Test.

b. Afternoon Program—

1. English Composition.
   - a. Level I (Standard)
   - b. Level II (Intensive)
3. Foreign language (to be taken by those who wish to continue the study of the language in college).

The results of the morning tests are used to determine the applicant's qualifications for admission; results of the English Achievement Test are used to supplement secondary school records and other test scores. These and the remaining required Achievement Tests are also used for placement in course programs.

Applicants for the fall term should take the morning tests in December, January, or March. The tests are also administered in May and August, but these may be too late for those who wish to apply for the following fall term.

Applicants who will live on campus must take the College Board Scholastic Aptitude Test no later than January of their senior year.

The English Composition Achievement Test should be taken no later than January of the senior year.

The required Mathematics and Foreign Language Tests may be taken on the same date, or postponed no later than the May testing date.
Four to six weeks prior to the date of the tests the candidate for admission should write to

The Educational Testing Service
Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey 08540 or Box 1025, Berkeley 1, California 94701.

Arrangements may also be made through the principal or guidance counselor of the applicant's high school.

Candidates for admission must request the Testing Service to forward test scores to the Office of Admissions, La Salle College, Philadelphia 41, Pennsylvania. The College Board (CEEB) and the College Scholarship Service (CSS) code number assigned to La Salle College is 2363.

EARLY ACCEPTANCE PLAN FOR HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS

The Committee on Admissions will considered a qualified applicant for an early acceptance one year before he will be graduated from a secondary school. The following credentials are required for this evaluation:

1. A completed application to La Salle College.
2. A transcript of his three-year high school scholastic and personality records.
3. The results of the College Board Scholastic Aptitude Test taken during his junior year or the following summer.

The successful early applicant must finish his senior year of high school with creditable grades, receive his diploma, and take the required College Board Achievement Tests for placement in his chosen course programs.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Each year a limited number of transfer students will be admitted. The number is limited by available space and academic restrictions. Candidates for admission from colleges which offer courses of study similar to those of La Salle College should submit a transcript of high school work and college work as soon after applying for admission as is possible. All transfer students are required to submit the results of College Entrance Examination Board Tests. A letter of appraisal from the Dean of Men of the college or university attended is recommended in most cases.

All of these records should be in the Admissions Office at least sixty (60) days prior to the beginning of the semester for which the student is applying.

The previous college record of the applicant must indicate good academic standing. No applicant will be accepted whose transcript reads "Academic Probation" or "Academic" or "Disciplinary Dismissal."

A student applying for transfer from a fully accredited college or university should have a grade point average of 2.00 or higher (on a 4.00 scale). Transfer applicants from colleges which have applied for regional accreditation will be considered if their grade point average is 2.50 or higher (on a 4.00 scale).

No credit is allowed for courses offered with the lowest passing grade given at the institution from which the applicant is transferring.

A transfer student may be required to make up certain courses which belong to the sequence required in the program of studies for which he is applying. End of course examinations may be required to obtain credit in some areas.

No student admitted to advanced standing will be permitted to graduate unless he has completed his senior year as a full-time student at La Salle College.

ADVANCED PLACEMENT PROGRAM

La Salle College participates in the Advanced Placement Program of the College Entrance Examination Board. Consequently, the College agrees to give credit and/or advanced placement to students who perform satisfactorily both in college level courses taken in secondary school and in the advanced placement examinations administered by the Board. The equivalents for the grading scale are:

5 or 4 = Advanced Credit and Advanced Placement.
3 = Same, on recommendation of departmental head.
2 = Advanced Placement only on recommendation.
1 = No Advanced Placement or Advanced Credit.
APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION
You may secure an application form from the Office of Admissions. When you receive this, you will also receive another form which is to be mailed directly to the College by your high school principal. The Office of Admissions will notify you as soon as possible after a decision has been made on your application. If accepted, you are asked to send along a $50.00 deposit with your confirmation; this amount will be credited toward your tuition when you register and attend, but will be forfeited if you do not.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR RESIDENTS
If you live beyond commuting distance and are unable to live at home or with relatives close to the campus, you will live in the College residence halls. After indicating on your application your intention to live on campus, you should reserve your room when you confirm your acceptance with the required deposit.

Half of the $50.00 deposit on acceptance is credited to your Damage Deposit Account; the remaining $25.00 is credited to your room and board fee. Loss or damage of residence hall equipment as a result of negligence or improper use will be charged against this Damage Deposit. Should you voluntarily decide not to occupy the room you have reserved, the entire advance deposit is forfeited.

The residence halls are attractively furnished with all necessary furniture and bed linens. You supply your own blankets and personal linens. You must also take care of personal laundry, dry cleaning and pressing. Many of the personal items needed, such as toilet articles, laundry cases, towels, and sportswear, may be purchased at the Campus Store.

Occupancy may begin the day before registration begins and continue until the day after the final examination; or, in the case of seniors, until the day after commencement. Residents are permitted cars on campus provided they have parental permission.

When you live on campus, your meals are served cafeteria-style in the College Union dining halls. Since meals must be planned on the basis of total participation by the resident community, no adjustment in fees can be expected for meals not taken on campus. Special diets for medical reasons may be arranged through the Director of Food Services. The dining halls are not open during school recesses at Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, or between semesters. Students on campus during these periods must purchase their meals elsewhere.

Each residence hall has several public phones. Calls for residents should not come through the College switchboard.

Recreation for residents includes a variety of sports, the games facilities of the Club Room, a fine films program, and a number of dances and social events.

REGISTRATION

Registration takes place during the week before classes begin in September. You will receive notice and complete instructions ahead of time. For students already in attendance, there is a pre-registration period for the following year during the Spring semester. When pre-registering, the student should keep in mind the fact that certain courses, especially in English and Languages, are offered in alternate years. Information about specific course offerings may be obtained from course advisors or from the Dean of your School.

Students who register or pre-register late must pay a penalty fee of ten dollars.
Expenses

In planning your college career, you will want to think carefully about the expenses to be met and the means at your disposal to take care of them. The College has traditionally struggled to prevent the rising cost of education from depriving worthy students of attendance: a number of scholarships are offered, part-time campus jobs are available, and, most important, a flexible bank loan plan has been instituted to make it possible to meet expenses in a series of regular payments.

The 1967-68 tuition for students carrying a normal schedule (as prescribed by the curriculum) is as follows:

Programs in liberal arts or business administration .............. $1150.00
Programs in the sciences ............................................. $1250.00

There are no additional fees for matriculation; registration; use of laboratories, library, athletic facilities, or dispensary services; participation in student activities; the student newspaper; or the student identification card for admission to athletic events. However, in the face of rising costs, La Salle College must reserve the right to amend or add to the charges at any time and to make such changes applicable to students presently enrolled as well as to new students.
Those taking less than a twelve credit hour schedule or more than the normal schedule will be charged at the rate of $30.00 per semester hour.

The cost of room and board for resident students is $900.00 a year. (Freshmen pay $925.00 to cover the extra orientation week.) This expense may be taken care of through the Bank Loan Plan, the Guaranteed Loan Plan, or a National Defense Student Loan. Information on these programs can be obtained from the Financial Aid Office of the College.

All new students—freshmen, and transfers from other colleges or from La Salle’s Evening Division—should bear in mind the $25.00 fee for counseling services. This fee covers all counseling and testing services provided by the Counseling Center throughout the time you are at La Salle, including the Pre-College Counseling Program which is required of all new students.
The books and supplies you will need can be purchased at the Campus Store. The estimated average cost of these items for the school year is about $60.00. If you are not presently covered, you may also wish to enroll in the Surgical-Medical Group Insurance Plan at a cost of $30.00 yearly. Further information is available from the office of the Vice-President, Student Affairs.

FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS
Most students or their parents plan to meet educational expenses either out of savings or out of income. At La Salle you may choose your financial arrangement accordingly. You may pay the full amount on the day of registration. (One-half the yearly tuition fee falls due on the day of registration.) On the other hand, you may wish to take advantage of the La Salle College Bank Loan Plan to pay tuition in regular installments over a fixed period of time. Many parents prefer this plan because it spreads the cost over current income. The plan is flexible and can be adjusted to the level of income. You can enter it at the beginning of any term during your college career. You may, for example, be able to pay for your first year out of savings but then enter the Loan Plan to finance the remaining three years out of income. You can obtain complete information on the College Bank Loan program from the Financial Aid Office.

NATIONAL DEFENSE STUDENT LOAN PROGRAM
A limited sum has been provided by both La Salle College and the Government of the United States for the purpose of making loans to students under the provisions of the National Defense Student Loan Program.

Students seeking information regarding eligibility and application should address their inquiry to the Financial Aid Director, La Salle College, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19141.

GUARANTEED LOAN PROGRAM
This program, which is similar to the National Defense Student Loan Program, was authorized by the Higher Education Act of 1965. Under this program, the student borrows directly from a bank or other financial institution instead of through the College. The major advantage of this program is that it provides the student with loan insurance. Students desiring further information on this program should direct their inquiry to the Financial Aid Director.
PENALTY FEES
The penalty fees as outlined below are to defray the expenses involved and to discourage indifference toward regulations.

Late Registration Fee. Students are required to complete their course registration within the period set forth in the College Calendar. Late registration is permitted only in the most unusual circumstances and requires the permission of the Dean of the School and the payment of a fee of $10.00.

Change of Roster Fee. After the second day of class, a change of roster will be permitted only with the permission of the Dean of the School, and a payment of a fee of $5.00.

Delayed Examination Fee. Students are expected to take their final examinations during the regular examination period. Final examinations taken beyond the regular examination period require the permission of the Dean of the School and the payment of a fee of $2.00 for each examination.

GRADUATION FEE
A graduation fee of $35.00 is due and payable on or before the fifteenth of May preceding the candidate's graduation. The College cannot be responsible for the inclusion in the graduation program of any candidate who pays fees after this date. The graduation fee covers the yearbook, Founder's Day Exercises and Dinner, Baccalaureate Services, and the cost of the diploma, the use of cap and gown, and all other expenses incidental to the commencement exercises. No candidate may be recommended for a degree, diploma, or certificate until the graduation fee and all other financial obligations have been paid.

REFUND OR REMISSION OF TUITION
Under certain circumstances, the student who withdraws before the end of a semester may receive a refund or a remission of part of the unpaid balance of his tuition fee. Complete information on terms and conditions may be obtained from the Business Office.

Academic Programs and Procedures

LOWER DIVISION REQUIREMENTS
To qualify for admission to the Upper Division, the student must complete the work of the lower division with a minimum of sixty semester credit hours and a scholastic index of 1.75. Furthermore, he must make grades of "C" or better in those courses which are prerequisites for the advanced work in his chosen field of concentration. Under certain circumstances a student may be permitted to change from one lower division program to another when his record indicates that he may profit by such a change. Permission must be obtained from the Dean.

La Salle College, recognizing the basic importance of skill in the use of English in the whole educational process, requires a special test of Freshmen completing their initial writing courses. The Freshman Composition Test is a two-hour departmental examination in expository writing. Students failing this test must repeat English 102; those failing the test a second time will be asked to withdraw from the College.
UPPER DIVISION REQUIREMENTS
The general requirements of the upper division curricula are the successful completion of all courses specified for the core curriculum and the required courses in the major field as outlined by each department, including all free electives permitted.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS
A full-time student carries a minimum of twelve semester hours, although normal progress toward a degree requires an average of fifteen hours a week. A student's program will require more hours per week in some areas of instruction, as indicated later in this catalogue.

Explain in simplest form, a semester credit hour is equal to one lecture hour or two laboratory hours a week. If a course meets for three lectures weekly for a semester, it is said to be a three credit course. Fifteen weeks make one semester.

Part-time students carry a roster of less than twelve hours per week. Students in this category will require more than the normal four years in which to earn a degree.

Students who do not fulfill certain admission requirements may be admitted to follow particular courses and are considered as special students. They do not register for a degree-granting program. Credits earned by a special student may be counted towards a degree as soon as he has met all the requirements for admission and candidacy for a degree provided that the credits thus earned be applicable to his program of studies for the degree. A special student cannot hold a scholarship nor take part in extracurricular activities.

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM
Courses are numbered from 100 to 500. Ordinarily, courses numbered in the one and two hundreds are given on the Lower Division, which comprises the first four semesters or first two academic years. Courses numbered in the three and four hundreds are ordinarily given on the Upper Division, which includes the last four semesters or the last two academic years.

Some courses are described as two-semester courses. These are designated by consecutive numbers on a single line, e.g., Accounting 101, 102. Both parts of these courses must be passed to receive credit for either, and a student must pass successfully the first part before being permitted to take the second.
PROGRAM OF STUDIES
The program of studies prescribed by the student's adviser and approved by the Dean of the School in which the student is enrolled is his official roster of courses.

It is the student's responsibility to see that all the requirements of his program are fulfilled. He should have in writing from the Dean any exceptions to the prescribed program which may be granted him.

A student may be permitted to change from one Lower Division program to another, or from one area of instruction to another, only when his previous record indicates that he may profit by such a change. In any change of this type the student must have the written permission of his future course adviser and the Dean of his School. This change may entail taking approved summer courses or an additional semester in college. In no case may a student who transfers receive promotion or a degree sooner than he would have received it had he not transferred. No degree may be received less than one year after change of curriculum.

HONORS PROGRAM
The Honors Program is designed to provide the most academically talented students with an enriched program of general studies that will be both challenging and stimulating. The freshman honors student, as an apprentice in the program, studies in honors sections of two or three required courses. If he proves himself able and interested, he continues with honors courses in such areas as theology, philosophy, and English, which offer more depth and more advanced reading.

In his last two years, the honors student may substitute an Independent Study Course in each semester for any regularly scheduled course except theology or seminar. Such courses are usually given by distinguished visiting professors. Class meetings are less frequent, and emphasis is on individual reading and research.

"LA SALLE IN EUROPE"
Students who would like to broaden their educational background by studying in Europe may take advantage of the "La Salle in Europe" program. This program offers the opportunity of completing the Junior year at the University of Fribourg in Switzerland while receiving full credit at La Salle for course work there. The cost of this program is approximately equal to the regular combined tuition and residence expense at La Salle. Detailed information is available from the Director, "La Salle in Europe."
SUMMER SCHOOL
A variety of courses are offered during the summer. A student may use these courses to enrich his academic program, to lighten his regular schedule, to make up failures, or, in some instances, to accelerate his progress toward a degree.

A roster of summer courses to be offered is available around February 15 and may be obtained from the Director of the Summer School.

Properly qualified applicants from other accredited institutions are also admitted to the Summer School.

THE RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING PROGRAM
The primary purpose of the ROTC is to produce commissioned officers of Artillery in the Reserve or Regular Army.

ROTC instruction is divided into two phases: The Basic Course and the Advanced Course. The Basic Course consists of two academic years of instruction. All freshman students who are not veterans and who meet the following requirements are required to enroll in and complete successfully the first year of the Basic Course. They must be:

2. Physically qualified under standards prescribed by the Department of the Army.
3. Accepted by La Salle College as regularly enrolled students.
4. Not less than 14 years of age and under 23 years at the time of enrollment.
5. Pass such general survey or screening tests as may apply.

Students who have had previous military training may have the first year ROTC requirement waived.

Those students who have successfully completed the Basic Course and who are selected by the President of the College and the Professor of Military Science, may be enrolled in the Advanced Course. Eligible students enrolled in the Basic or Advanced Courses may be deferred from induction into the Armed Forces. Students who have not otherwise completed the Basic Course, may enroll in the Advanced Course after completing a Basic Summer Camp between Sophomore and Junior school years. However, these students would not be eligible for the two-year ROTC scholarship, which is available to a selected few.

The Advanced Course consists of two academic years of instruction and six weeks of training in a summer camp for artillery students. An average of two hours per week are devoted to military subjects during the first year of the Basic Course, three hours per week for the second year of the Basic Course, and four hours per week during the Advanced Course.

Students do not receive any pay while pursuing the Basic Course. While enrolled in the Advanced Course, students receive approximately $40.00 per month, and, while at the Advanced Course Summer Camp, receive approximately $117.00 per month, plus food, lodging, uniforms, equipment, medical care, and travel pay to and from the camp.

Uniforms, textbooks, and equipment are issued to the students at the beginning of each school year and must be turned in by the students at the end of the school year. Textbooks are issued for military subjects only. Uniforms must be worn on scheduled drill days.

The successful completion of the first year Basic Course ROTC is a prerequisite for a degree from La Salle College. Students are required to maintain a satisfactory scholastic standing in all subjects to remain in the final three years of the ROTC course.

Upon satisfactory completion of the ROTC course, students will be eligible for a commission in the U.S. Army Reserve. A few outstanding students will be eligible for a commission in the Regular Army.

Scholarships are available for four or two years to outstanding students.

Prospective students who desire information concerning the Reserve Officers' Training Program should communicate with the Professor of Military Science, La Salle College, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 19141.

ATTENDANCE POLICY
Students are expected to attend classes regularly. Absences are permitted to provide for conditions beyond the control of the student. Ordinarily, these would be equal to twice the semester hours scheduled for the course; for example, six absences in a three hour course. Attendance is noted from the first regular class meeting regardless of the time of registration.

EXAMINATIONS
The last week of each semester is set apart for final examinations. Examinations to measure student progress are given at mid-term. Students who, for satisfactory reasons, fail to take a semester examination at the scheduled time may take a delayed examination. A delayed examination permit must be secured in the Dean's Office.

MAKE-UP EXAMINATIONS
Make-up examinations are given when an "I" grade has been received. The "I" grade is a provisional semestral grade given by an instructor to a student who has otherwise maintained throughout the semester a passing grade in course, but who has failed to take the semester examination in the course for reasons beyond his control. All “I” grades that have not been removed within three weeks after the last regular examination of the semester become “F’s.” In cases where it is physically impossible for this grade to be removed within this time limit, the time may be extended only by the written permission of the Dean of the School.

GRADES
The following system of grades is used in measuring the quality of student achievement in courses:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Range</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>Superior</td>
<td>(93-100)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>Very Good</td>
<td>(84-92)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>Average</td>
<td>(77-83)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>Passable</td>
<td>(70-76)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>Failure</td>
<td>(below 70)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I</td>
<td>Incomplete</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>W</td>
<td>Withdrawal</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>

In the determination of final grades for courses, recitations, written assignments, and the results of the final examination are considered.

The “I” grade is counted as an “F” in computing averages for the first probation list, and it becomes a failure if it is not removed within the three weeks following the term in which it was given, unless for serious reason the Dean has permitted a longer delay in final examination.

The withdrawal grade “W” is assigned when a student withdraws from a course with the Dean’s permission before its completion. Ordinarily permission for withdrawal is not granted after the period of the mid-term examinations.

STUDENT REPORTS
A progress report is submitted to the Dean’s Office by each instructor at the middle of each term. Final grades are submitted at the end of a semester and these are made part of a student’s permanent record. A report of semester grades is mailed to the student’s parent or guardian within two weeks after final examinations.

At the end of each year a report is sent to the principal of the high school from which the student was graduated.

SCHOLARSHIP INDEX
A scholarship index system is used at La Salle to determine a student’s average grade. In determining the index, each letter grade is ascribed a numerical value, called grade points. “A” is valued at 4 grade points; “B” is valued at 3 grade points; "C" is valued at 2 grade points; "D" is valued at 1 grade point; "F" is valued at zero grade points.

A grade point score is calculated for each course by multiplying the numerical equivalent of the letter grade by the number of semester hours. The index, or the average grade of all courses, is found by dividing the sum of the grade point scores for all courses by the total number of semester hours of course work attempted.

ACADEMIC STANDING
First-year students are required to earn a minimum average of 1.50 to be in good academic standing; second-year men, 1.75; third-year men, 1.90. Averages are computed at the completion of each semester.

DEANS' HONOR LIST
The Deans' Honor List is published at the termination of each semester. Those students who have a cumulative average of 3.4 are placed on the Deans' List. To be eligible for this list, a student must have complied with all the regulations of the College and must be free of all academic censure. Freshmen are not eligible for inclusion on this list.

While students on the Deans' List are excused from class attendance regulations, they are expected to fulfill the requirements of every course rostered. They are also eligible for courses in the College's Honors Program.

ACADEMIC CENSURE
Academic censure may assume any one of four forms, depending on the gravity of the situation calling for scholastic discipline. An evaluation of student records is made at the end of each semester.

(a) Warning. An official warning is given to a student who has received "Failure" grades in one-third of the semester hours which comprised his official roster for the semester.

(b) Probation. A student is placed on probation when: (1) he has attained a cumulative scholarship index of (a) less than 1.50 after the first or second term of his freshman year, (b) less than 1.75 after the first or second term of his sophomore year, (c) less than 1.90 after the first or second term of his junior year; or (2) he has received "Failure" grades in more than one-third of the semester hours which comprised his official roster for the semester last completed. Such a student will be continued on probation until he has satisfied the conditions for good standing. A student on probation automatically forfeits the privilege of cuts, participation in extracurricular activities, and eligibility for class office.
(c) Suspension. This is forced withdrawal from courses and residence with the privilege of returning at the discretion of the Dean of his School.

(d) Dismissal. This is forced withdrawal from courses and residence without the privilege of seeking readmission.

A student is subject to dismissal: (1) when he has attained a cumulative scholarship index of (a) less than 1.00 during his freshman year, (b) less than 1.50 during his sophomore year, (c) less than 1.75 during his junior year; (2) if he has received “Failure” grades in one-half of the credit hours of his official roster for that year; (3) if he has been on probation for two successive semesters; or (4) whenever, in the opinion of the Dean of his School, a student shows by poor scholarship that he is no longer profiting by the educational program of the College.

CREDIT FOR OFF-CAMPUS COURSES

Course work taken at other institutions by regularly enrolled students at La Salle College may not be offered for credit unless the student has had written permission in advance from the Dean of his School to take such courses.

REQUIREMENTS FOR A DEGREE

The candidate for a degree must have completed course work equivalent to a minimum of 126 semester hours; beginning with the class of 1970, the requirement will be 120 hours. Certain curricula may require a number of hours exceeding this minimum.

He must have obtained a “C” average or cumulative index of 2.00 in his prescribed program of studies.

He must have fulfilled all course requirements prescribed for him by the chairman of the department in which he majored and approved by the Dean of the School in which he is enrolled.

He must have fulfilled the requirements in philosophy and theology.

He must have completed eight semesters as a full-time student, including the two semesters of his senior year.

HONORS

The bachelor’s degree with honors is conferred on a student who has completed his course at the College with an average of all marks not lower than 3.4 and who has not incurred the penalty of loss of good standing for disciplinary reasons.

The candidate for the bachelor’s degree who has earned an average of 3.8 in all courses is graduated with the distinction Maxima Cum Laude.
The candidate who has earned an average of 3.6 is graduated with the distinction Magna Cum Laude.

The candidate who has earned an average of 3.4 is graduated with the distinction Cum Laude.

Honors are computed on the basis of the work done for eight semesters.

WITHDRAWALS

A student who withdraws from the College must submit a Withdrawal Notice to the Dean of his School. In the event that a student withdraws without submitting an official Withdrawal Notice, honorable dismissal is not granted and he forfeits the privilege of returning to the College. The date of filing the Withdrawal Notice is considered as the date of withdrawal in all cases.

TRANSCRIPTS

Students may apply at the Registrar's Office for a transcript of their collegiate work. There is a fee of one dollar for every copy of a transcript requested after the first. The College requires at least one week's notice for the issuance of a transcript.
School of Arts and Sciences

The School of Arts and Sciences offers general or liberal arts programs and programs in science and mathematics. Within these two areas you may further specialize in a major field of study. In the liberal arts, the Bachelor of Arts degree is offered in Classical Languages, Economics, English, History, Modern Languages, Philosophy, Political Science, and Sociology. Concentration in the science area may lead to a B.A. degree in Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics, or Psychology. The School also offers programs designed as preparations for Law, Medicine, Dentistry, Teaching, and Social Work.
OBJECTIVES
The objectives of the School of Arts and Sciences are essentially those of liberal education in general: to provide you with the opportunity to develop your intellectual faculties as fully as possible and to acquaint you with our cultural and scientific heritage.

The programs are organized to give you a variety of general courses in your first two years which lay the foundation for more specialized courses in your last two years. If you are undecided about your eventual major, the acquaintance with a wide variety of courses may help you choose the subject in which you would like to concentrate.

This concentration in your last two years permits you to deepen your knowledge in a particular area and prepares you for further study in graduate or professional school or for entry into such professions as social work, teaching, personnel work, government service, or the communication arts.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE PLACEMENT
Students who perform well in their high school language courses and earn an above-average mark in their College Board Achievement test are normally placed in Language 202-204 in their first year. They may thereafter take an elective or another language course in their sophomore year.

Students who plan to enter graduate school are urged to acquire a good background in Modern Languages, since many graduate schools require a knowledge of several languages before granting higher degrees.

THE CORE CURRICULUM
The School of Arts and Sciences requires a core curriculum of courses in theology, philosophy, English, modern languages, science, and the social sciences. This program varies slightly according to area of concentration (Arts or Science), and also contains certain options—notably in mathematics, science, and social science courses—which the student may exercise according to his preference. These options are indicated in the programs listed on the pages following. The Science course in Freshman year may be either Biology 117-118 (6 credits), Geology 101-102 (6 credits), Chemistry 101-102 (8 credits), or Astronomy 101-102 (6 credits).

Programs of Study
Students who wish to prepare for careers in medicine, dentistry, teaching, or law will find pertinent information in the paragraphs immediately following. Those planning to major in any of the other Arts or Sciences will find a full four year listing of prescribed courses under the departmental heading.
Departments are listed alphabetically in the following pages, and each major program is given in detail, along with descriptions of the courses offered in that department.

PREPARATION FOR MEDICINE

Most students preparing for medical school major in either Biology or Chemistry, since these programs include the courses generally required by the medical colleges. However, a prospective medical student may major in any program that allows completion of the following basic science courses which most members of the Association of American Medical Colleges require:

- Chemistry ........................................... 12-16 sem. hrs.
- Physics ............................................. 8
- Biology ........................................... 8
- Mathematics ....................................... 0-6

In addition to these courses, some medical schools specify or recommend certain others. It is advisable, therefore, that the premedical student familiarize himself with the exact requirements of the school to which he will apply.

Only those students who do better than average work in their courses will qualify for a favorable recommendation from the faculty.

PREPARATION FOR DENTISTRY

The basic requirements for admission to most dental schools are the same as those for admission to medical schools. The special courses, however, vary with each school. It is recommended, therefore, that the prospective dental student acquaint himself with the requirements of the school which he plans to enter.

Most prospective dental students major in Biology or Chemistry and at the same time meet the requirements for dental school.

PREPARATION FOR TEACHING

The teacher preparation program leads to eligibility for a provisional certificate to teach in the secondary schools of Pennsylvania and provides a foundation for those desiring to go on to further studies in the field. A student planning to teach in a state other than Pennsylvania should acquaint himself with the certification requirements of that state.

A career in teaching should be considered only by those students who possess above-average scholastic ability, physical fitness, emotional maturity, a balanced personality, interest in young people, and a desire to teach.

The Teacher Education Committee, consisting of faculty representatives of the several academic divisions of the College, assists the faculty of the Education Department in the planning and scheduling of courses, in the screening of prospective teachers, and in the presentation of a program consistent with the objectives of a liberal arts college.

For specific information on the teacher preparation program, see pages 59-60.

PREPARATION FOR LAW

The entrance requirements for most law schools are such that a Bachelor's degree in any particular field of study will meet the minimum entrance requirements. The program listed below, therefore, is suggested preparation, not a requirement of law schools. It emphasizes the broad background of knowledge which law schools deem desirable in candidates for admission.

BIOLOGY 117, 118. General Biology.
A terminal course for those who can take only one year of biology. Structure and metabolism of seed plants and vertebrate animals; brief survey of the plant and animal kingdoms. Concludes with matters of heredity as illustrated by plant and animal breeding. Two hours lecture, two hours laboratory; two terms. Six credits

BIOLOGY 201. The Living Organism.
Integrated principles of modern Biology; the attributes of Life and hypotheses of its genesis; the continuity of Life and its diversification; energy sources and the biological energy cycles; cells, organisms and their structure and communities. Required of all Biology Majors. Prerequisite: General Chemistry. Three hours lecture, two hours laboratory. Four credits
Field work in aquatic ecology, a cooperative course with Chestnut Hill College.

BIOLOGY 202. The Invertebrates.
Life processes, phylogenetic advances, and basic classification of the major pre-Chordate phyla with emphasis on their ecologic and economic significance to Man. Required of all Biology Majors. Three hours lecture, two hours laboratory. Four credits

BIOLOGY 302. The Plant Kingdom.
Functional anatomy, phylogeny, and basic systematics of non-vascular and vascular plants. Required of all Biology Majors. Three hours lecture, two hours laboratory. Four credits

BIOLOGY 303. The Vertebrates.
Comparative systemic anatomy of the vertebrate classes; hypotheses of origin and radiation of the Phylum Chordata. Laboratory dissections of representative Chordates from Amphioxus to Mammal. Required of all Biology Majors. Two hours lecture, four hours laboratory. Four credits

BIOLOGY 405. Histology.
Minute structure of various tissues together with their relationships in the formation of animal organs. Two hours lecture, four hours laboratory. Four credits

BIOLOGY 406. Embryology.
Fundamental processes underlying vertebrate development and differentiation; the frog, chick and pig form the basis of instruction. Two hours lecture, two hours laboratory. Three credits

BIOLOGY 407. Microbiology.
A lecture-laboratory course concerned with the role of microorganisms in nature and especially in human affairs. One hour lecture, four hours of laboratory per week; one term. Three credits

BIOLOGY 408. The Cell.
Physical properties, chemical structure, and metabolism of simple and specialized cells; recent advances in the techniques of cell culture and investigation. An elective course. Prerequisite: Organic Chemistry. One hour lecture, four hours laboratory. Three credits

BIOLOGY 409. Aquatic Ecology.
Ecological principles associated with the aquatic environment and populations of aquatic organisms: environmental influences in flowing water, still water, and marine habitats. Two hours lecture and field work.
Three credits

Study of plants and animals in their relation to each other and to the environment: interrelations between organisms in populations and communities. Two hours lecture and field work.
Three credits

BIOLOGY 411. Microtechnique.
Histochemical and cytological techniques associated with the preparation of animal and plant materials for microscopic study. One hour lecture, two hours laboratory.
Two credits

BIOLOGY 412. Genetics.
Mendel's Laws of heredity as observed in plants and animals; the scope and method of modern genetics.
Two credits

BIOLOGY 413. Genetics Laboratory.
Prerequisite: Biology 412, which may be taken concurrently. Two hours laboratory.
One credit

BIOLOGY 414. Taxonomy of the Angiosperms.
A study of the classification of flowering plants. Practice in the use of keys of identification; phylogeny and economic importance of the leading families of flowering plants. One hour lecture, two hours laboratory.
Two credits

BIOLOGY 415. Horticultural and Forest Botany.
Relation of man to cultivated plants; soil, plant propagation, the elements of landscape horticulture together with the basic problems of forestry are included; visits to greenhouses and botanic gardens; lectures and practical work.
Two credits

BIOLOGY 418. General Physiology.
Metabolic processes and associated physicochemical phenomena of living organisms. Current hypotheses of muscle, endocrine, neural, respiratory, cardiovascular, and nutritional physiology. Prerequisite: Organic Chemistry. Two hours lecture, two hours laboratory.
Three credits

BIOLOGY 419. Neuromuscular Physiology.
A physiological study of cardiac, skeletal, and smooth muscle and their relationship to the central and autonomic nervous systems. One hour lecture, four hours laboratory.
Three credits

BIOLOGY 422, 423. Biological Research.
Laboratory or theoretical research under staff supervision (permission of Chairman required). Hours to be arranged.
Two to four credits

BIOLOGY 425. Radiobiology.
Nuclear technology as applied to life sciences, theory, instrumentation, and use of radioactive isotopes in animals and plants. One hour lecture, four hours laboratory.
Three credits

BIOLOGY 427. Seminar.
Presentation of review papers and discussions of assigned topics from main currents of biological research; participants to be recommended by Department staff.
Two credits

GEOLOGY 101. Physical Geology.
Principles of Physical Geology, including classification of rocks, weathering, earthquakes, volcanoes, glaciation, marine erosion and mountain building. Two hours lecture, two hours laboratory.
Three credits

GEOLOGY 102. Historical Geology.
The geological history of the world, with special reference to eastern North America. The evolution of life through the ages. Two hours lecture, two hours laboratory.
Three credits

GEOLOGY 201. Physical Geography.
A study of genesis, formation, and characteristics of land forms. Laboratory exercises include an interpretation of land forms from topographic maps and aerial photographs. Two hours lecture, two hours laboratory.
Three credits

This program meets the standards of the American Chemical Society. ACS certification will be awarded only to those Chemistry majors who maintain the required grades.
CHEMISTRY 101, 102. General Chemistry.
A Terminal Course. Designed specifically for students who wish to obtain a general knowledge of chemistry in one survey course. Descriptive chemistry and the quantitative aspects of chemical principles are discussed. Three hours lecture, three hours laboratory; two terms. Eight credits

CHEMISTRY 111, 112. General Chemistry and Qualitative Analysis.
Fundamental concepts, laws, and theories of chemistry: emphasis on the principles of ionization, chemical equilibria, solubility, property, hydrolysis and complex ions. Laboratory experiments stress the quantitative aspects; experiments of the latter half of the second semester are devoted entirely to qualitative analysis. Three hours lecture, three hours laboratory; two terms. Eight credits

CHEMISTRY 302. Quantitative Analysis.
Neutralization, oxidation-reduction, chemical equilibria, colorimetry and the methods of quantitative chemical analysis. Thorough training in volumetric, gravimetric, and colorimetric techniques. Two hours lecture, six hours laboratory. Four credits

CHEMISTRY 303, 304. Organic Chemistry.
Principles of chemistry extended and applied to the study of carbon compounds, including both aliphatic and aromatic derivatives. Typical organic compounds prepared and studied. Prerequisites: Chemistry 111-112. Three hours lecture, three hours laboratory; two terms. Eight credits

CHEMISTRY 311, 312. Organic Chemistry.
The same content as Chemistry 303, 304; however, emphasis is placed on the modern approach to structure and reaction mechanisms, intended for Chemistry majors. Prerequisite: Chemistry 111, 112. Three hours lecture, three hours laboratory per week; two terms. Eight credits

CHEMISTRY 401. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry.
A study of special topics in the field of inorganic chemistry designed to deepen the student’s grasp of fundamental concepts. Theoretical aspects of the chemical bond, complexation: aqueous and non-aqueous solutions, and recent developments in radiochemistry. Prerequisites: Chemistry 111, 112. Two hours lecture; one term. Two credits

CHEMISTRY 402. Quantum Chemistry.
Quantum mechanics applied to the solution of some elementary systems. Discussion of chemical bonding. Introduction to elementary statistical mechanics using results derived from quantum mechanics. Two credits

CHEMISTRY 403, 406. Physical Chemistry.
Elementary principles of physical chemistry discussed and illustrated by suitable laboratory experiments. The ideal gas, real gases, liquids, solids, elementary thermodynamics, thermochemistry, solutions, equilibria, kinetics, electromotive force, electrical conductivity, and chemical thermodynamics. Prerequisites: Chemistry 311, 312: Mathematics 206, 207. Three hours lecture, three hours laboratory; two terms. Eight credits

CHEMISTRY 407. Qualitative Organic Analysis.
A study of the classifying reactions of organic compounds as exemplified by the analysis of compounds and mixtures in the laboratory. Restricted to Chemistry majors. Prerequisites: Chemistry 311, 312. Eight hours of laboratory per week and individual conferences. Four credits

CHEMISTRY 408. Advanced Quantitative Analysis.
Theory and practice of physical measuring instruments with particular attention to the use of the instruments. Modern trends in analytical chemistry. Two hours lecture, six hours laboratory. Four credits

CHEMISTRY 410 and or 411. Chemical Research.
Individual laboratory or theoretical work under supervision of a staff member. Restricted to Chemistry majors. Hours to be arranged. Four credits per term
CHEMISTRY 430. ADVANCED ORGANIC Topics.
Designed to extend the knowledge of organic chemistry; emphasis on those topics not fully developed in the elementary course. An introduction to the literature of chemistry is also included. Prerequisite: Chemistry 311, 312. Three hours of lecture.

Three credits

CHEMISTRY 431. BIOCHEMISTRY.
The chemistry of carbohydrates, fats, proteins, vitamins, enzymes, and hormones; emphasis on their roles in biochemical processes. Laboratory work illustrates common techniques used to prepare, identify, and assay biochemical materials. Prerequisite: Chemistry 303, 304, 311, 312. Three hours lecture, three hours laboratory.

Four credits

CHEMISTRY 433, 434. ANALYTICAL.
PHYSICAL AND BIOLOGICAL CHEMISTRY.
The techniques of analytical chemistry, including instrumental analysis, and the theories of physical chemistry applied to biochemical reactions. Intended for Biology majors. Prerequisites: Chemistry 304, Mathematics 106, Physics 212. Three hours lecture, three hours laboratory.

Eight credits

GREEK

GREEK 101, 102. Elementary Greek.
An introductory study of forms and syntax; includes reading and translation exercises and frequent practice in prose composition.
Eight credits

Grammatical review; exercises in composition and selected readings. Prerequisite: Greek 102, or a passing grade in placement examination.
Three credits

GREEK 204. Xenophon.
Selections from the Anabasis; frequent exercises in prose composition based upon the readings.
Three credits

GREEK 304. Homer.
Selections from the Iliad; study of the epic meter and style.
Three credits

Selected passages; special attention to the forms peculiar to New Testament Greek.
Three credits

GREEK 312. Lyric Poetry.
The lyric poets from Archilocus to Theocritus; analysis of the meters; special emphasis on Pindar's odes.
Three credits

GREEK 407. Plato.
Selections from the Apology with special attention to the syntax; Platonic philosophy and contemporary life in Athens.
Three credits

GREEK 408. Drama.
Selections from the repertory of Greek drama; attention to the subsequent influence of this genre on world literature.
Three credits

GREEK 421. Survey of Greek Literature.
A detailed study of the literary history of Greece; significant Greek classics read and discussed. Knowledge of Greek not required; open to upperclassmen who desire a cultural course of this nature.
Three credits

GREEK 422. History of Greek and Latin Languages.
Identical with Latin 422.

LATIN

LATIN 101, 102. Elementary Latin.
Thorough grounding in forms and vocabulary; aural-oral method used.
Six credits

LATIN 202, 204. Intermediate Latin.
Review of elementary grammar; readings of selected prose and poetry.
Six credits

LATIN 309. Cicero.
The works to be read will depend on the interests of the class.
Three credits

LATIN 310. Livy and Roman Historiography.
Selected passages of Livy's History of Rome; study of Roman historical theory.
Three credits

Study of the Horatian Ode; comparison with other Latin lyric poets.
Three credits

LATIN 314. Latin Poetry.
Selections from one or several of the Roman poets. Readings may be chosen from works of: Vergil, Catullus, Lucretius, Tibullus, Propertius, Martial, Ovid, Horace, Juvenal, and Persius.
Three credits

LATIN 413. Roman Comedy.
Selected plays of Plautus and Terence will be read.
Three credits

Three credits

LATIN 416. Medieval Latin.
Selections from the various writers from the fifth to the thirteenth centuries of the Christian era. A study of changes in Latin forms and syntax and in the meaning of words; relations of medieval Latin to the vernaculars.

Three credits

LATIN 421. Survey of Latin Literature.
A detailed study of the literary history of Rome and the influence of Latin literature on Western thought. Its indebtedness to the literature of Greece will be clearly noted. Some significant Latin classics read and discussed; knowledge of Latin not required; open to upperclassmen who desire a cultural course of this type.

Three credits

LATIN 422. History of Latin and Greek Languages.
Latin and Greek traced from earliest stages to their transformation into the various daughter languages of the modern world (the Romance languages and Modern Greek). Reading knowledge of Latin and Greek not required.

Three credits

Fundamental economic principles and processes as they appear in such phenomena as production, exchange, price, distribution, consumption and national income. A prerequisite for all other economics courses except Economics 415 and 416.

Six credits

ECONOMICS 203. Monetary Theory.
An analysis of the role of money and the monetary system in determining income, employment, and the price level.

Three credits

ECONOMICS 313. Economics and Business Statistics I.
General introduction to the basic ideas and procedures of statistical analysis with special emphasis on their application to economics and business. Methods of statistical description, index numbers and time series analyses.

Three credits

ECONOMICS 314. Economics and Business Statistics II.
Foundations of statistical inference as applied to decision-making on the basis of limited information. Basic concepts of probability, probability distributions, estimation and test of hypotheses, regression and correlation techniques.

Three credits

ECONOMICS 317. Labor Problems in America.
Study of the sources of the union movement, its history, structure, and functions. Attention to the development of economic, political and social power, as well as to the problems involved in the use of this power; management rights and management reaction to unions are also treated.

Four credits

ECONOMICS 322. American Economic History.
History of the growth and development of the economic institutions of the United States from the Age of Discovery to the "New Deal" and their influences on political and social organizations.

Three credits

ECONOMICS 325. Introduction to Mathematical Economics.
Designed to acquaint the student with certain topics in algebra, analytic geometry, and calculus which are most useful in their application to micro- and macro-economic analysis.

Four credits

Four credits

Theory of the level of income and employment. Theories of economic growth, traditional and modern. Theories of economic fluctuations, stabilization policies, and forecasting.

Four credits

ECONOMICS 415. History of Economic Thought.
A detailed study of the leading economic concepts and schools of economic thought from the Greek philosophers up to and including the Marginal Utility School.

Three credits

A continuation of Economics 415 until Keynesian economics has been treated; a history and analysis of socialist and Marxist thought culminating in a comparative study of the structure and function of the economies of the United States and the Soviet Union.

Three credits

ECONOMICS 420, 421. Seminar.
A study of methodology in economics and of the techniques of preparing research reports. Second semester includes readings, discussions, and presentation of individual research reports. Required of majors in economics and open to others with permission of the department chairman.

Six credits
EDUCATION

WILLIAM J. BINKOWSKI, M.A., Chairman

Since a major program is not offered by the Education Department, the student selects his major in the field in which he plans to teach. During the first two years, he follows the program prescribed by that department for its majors.

Application for admission into the teacher education program is normally made during the second semester of sophomore year. Admission requires the approval of the chairman of the department of the major subject, the chairman of the Education Department, and dean of School of Arts and Sciences, based on evidence that the candidate possesses the physical, emotional, and personal qualities necessary for successful teaching. The candidate must have and maintain a scholarship index of at least 2.00 for admission and retention in the program.

In his last two years, the student preparing to teach follows the program below, together with courses designated by the department chairman of his major subject.

Student Teaching (Education 402-03) may be taken in either term. The student must have an index of 2.50 or over in his major subject and approval from chairman of the department of the major subject, the chairman of the department of Education, and dean of School of Arts and Sciences to be accepted for student teaching.

Students not preparing for teaching may elect courses in education with the approval of the Department of Education.

EDUCATION 301, THE SCHOOL:
INTRODUCTION TO EDUCATION.
The role of the public school in American society. Particular attention to historical, social, and philosophical background. Fall semester only. Three credits

EDUCATION 302, THE CHILD:
EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY.
Study of psychological principles as they apply to the pupil and the learning process at the secondary school level. Spring semester only. Three credits
EDUCATION 303. THE TEACHER:
GENERAL METHODS OF TEACHING

*History majors planning on attending graduate school are advised to select one of the seminars in Section D.

SECTION A: STRUCTURAL SURVEY.

HISTORY 123-124, HISTORY OF WESTERN CIVILIZATION.

A survey of the political, social and cultural development of Western civilization from its Graeco-Roman origins to modern times. (A prerequisite for all other History courses at the discretion of the chairman.)

Three or six credits

SECTION B: CHRONOLOGICAL SURVEYS.

HISTORY 309-310, THE ANCIENT WORLD.

A survey of the ancient Near East and Greece, with emphasis on the political and cultural achievements of the city-state; Alexander the Great and the Hellenistic world; Republican and Imperial Rome, from the revolution to the Pax Romana of Caesar Augustus; the later empire to Constantine and his successors.

Three or six credits

HISTORY 311-312, MEDIEVAL EUROPE.

The rise and expansion of Christian Europe, from the decline of the Roman Empire in the west to the pontificate of Innocent III; the new Europe of the 13th century and the role of the universities in the civilization of a wider world; the controversies of the 14th and 15th centuries in the struggle between the forces of change and the forces of continuity.

Three or six credits

HISTORY 313-314, EARLY MODERN EUROPE, 1500-1815.

The history of Europe from the Renaissance through the era of the French Revolution and Napoleon, with some consideration of scientific and cultural developments as well as European overseas expansion.

Three or six credits

HISTORY 315-316, MODERN EUROPE, 1815-1960.

The history of Europe from Napoleon to the Cold war. Emphasis on the forces of continuity: Church, monarchy and nobility, and on the forces of change: nationalism (including imperialism), democracy and socialism.

Three or six credits

HISTORY 320, HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES AND PENNSYLVANIA.

A survey of the development of the United States with special attention to the history of Pennsylvania from the founding of the colonies to the present. Satisfies State requirements for teacher certification for those not majoring in History and Government.  Three credits

HISTORY 419-420, THE UNITED STATES AND PENNSYLVANIA.
A more detailed study of the development of the United States and Pennsylvania from the founding of the colonies to the present than is presented in History 320. Required of those seeking teacher certification in History and Government.

Three or six credits

SECTION C: REGIONAL AND TOPICAL STUDIES.

HISTORY 329-330, AMERICAN COLONIES AND REVOLUTION.
First semester: a survey of Colonial America emphasizing the role of the colonies in the British Empire and the social, economic, intellectual, and political factors which influenced later American history. Second semester: a survey of the period 1763-1789 with emphasis on the causes, character and results of the revolution through the Confederation period.

Three or six credits

HISTORY 331-332, THE NATIONAL PERIOD.
The development of political, social and economic institutions in the United States from the Constitution to the Jacksonian period.

Three or six credits

HISTORY 333-334, CIVIL WAR AND RECONSTRUCTION (1850-1877).
From the rise of sectionalism to Reconstruction in both the South and the North, stressing the causes, personalities and military events of the disruption and reunion of the United States.

Three or six credits

HISTORY 435-436, NINETEENTH CENTURY AMERICAN SOCIAL AND CULTURAL HISTORY.

Three or six credits

HISTORY 437-438, AMERICA IN THE 20TH CENTURY.
Detailed study of the United States from the Progressive Era to the present, with emphasis on the role of the United States in international affairs and the increasing role of government in domestic life.

Three or six credits

HISTORY 318-319, THE DYNAMICS OF LATIN AMERICAN HISTORY.
The Iberian and Indian Background: Spanish colonization, colonial administration, and colonial society analyzed as formative stages in Latin American history and the prelude to the modern period. Caudillism, militarism, revolt, and violence interpreted as aspects of traditional society in 19th century Latin America.

Economic and social changes treated as the background to new political forces, such as reformism, nationalism, Indianism, Fidelism, and communism, all of these challenges to traditional Latin American society in the 20th century.

The vast struggle to control change in Latin America interpreted thematically and through case-histories of the Caribbean, Central America and South America.

Three or six credits

HISTORY 349-350, RENAISSANCE AND REFORMATION.
First semester: a study of selected intellectual and esthetic elements of Renaissance civilization against a background of economic change in interrelation with social and political institutions of Western Europe (1400-1500). Second semester: an introduction to the historical details of religious controversy during the 16th century, and an examination of the immediate effects of Christian disunity (1500-1600).

Three or six credits

HISTORY 351-352, MODERN BRITAIN SINCE 1603.
A treatment of the broad social, political, and economic trends in the shaping of Modern Britain. Concentration in the first semester on the 17th and 18th centuries with particular attention to constitutional developments. Emphasis in second semester on political and social developments down to World War II.

til the present.

_Three or six credits_

_HISTORY 444-445. The Far East in the 19th and 20th Centuries._
Concentration on the two major powers of the area, China and Japan: their political developments and cultural contributions.
First semester: a general history of the Far East from the arrival of the first Westerncers by sea in 1514 to the end of the 18th century as essential background to the period beginning with the Opium War.

Second semester: from the Boxer Rebel-ion of 1900 to the present, with emphasis on the Communist take-over of China and the spread of the movement into Southeast Asia.

_Three or six credits_

_HISTORY 371-372. Divided Christendom._
First semester: a consideration of topics in the History of Christianity related to contemporary ecumenism; emphasis on the interrelation of political, cultural, and thetical differences between Rome and Byzantium, 330-1054 A.D. Second semester:
the role of Christianity in relation to critical religious problems of the present; the historical causes of separatism and the rea-sions for the failure of earlier ecumenical efforts to unite Christianity, 1054 to 1517
A.D.

_Three or six credits_

_SECTION D: SPECIAL STUDIES._

_HISTORY 341-342. Methodology and Directed Reading._
An introduction to the methodology of historical research; selected readings; reports and research assignments.

_Three or six credits_

_HISTORY 471-472. Seminar in American History._

_HISTORY 473-474. Seminar in European History._

_HISTORY 475-476. Seminar in British History._
An introduction to the aims and methods of the historian through the preparation of papers on selected topics in the general field specified—American, European, or British—along with their discussion in small group meetings or tutorial conferences.

Qualified students will be placed in a more advanced sequence of courses.
ASTRONOMY 101, 102. DESCRIBTIVE ASTRONOMY.
The celestial sphere and its coordinates; the telescope and other astronomical instruments; time and the calendar; the solar system; the stars—their distances, motion, spectra, luminosity and development; binary and multiple star systems; nebula; and the external galaxies. Six credits

MATHMATICI 101, 102. SURVEY OF MATHEMATICS.
Logic; sets; counting procedures; probability; functions; linear systems and matrices; linear programming; and elementary calculus. A terminal course. Six credits

MATHMATICS 103. ALGEBRA AND TRIGONOMETRY.
Operations of algebra; complex numbers; logarithmic, exponential, and trigonometric functions and equations; linear systems and matrices; inequalities; series; and introductory probability. Four credits

MATHMATICS 106. CALCULUS AND ANALYTIC GEOMETRY I.
Functions; limits and continuity; differentiation of algebraic functions; applications to maxima and minima, curve tracing, velocity and acceleration; integration with application to areas, volumes, surfaces and work; the fundamental theorem of the calculus. Prerequisite: Mathematics 103. Four credits

MATHMATICS 216. CALCULUS AND ANALYTIC GEOMETRY II.
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions; techniques of integration; improper integrals; conic sections; polar coordinates. Prerequisite: Mathematics 106. Four credits

MATHMATICS 217. CALCULUS AND ANALYTIC GEOMETRY III.
Analytic geometry of three dimensions; partial differentiation; multiple integration; infinite series and Taylor expansions; indeterminate forms. Prerequisite: Mathematics 216. Four credits

MATHMATICS 219, 220, 221. CALCULUS AND ANALYTIC GEOMETRY.
Entering freshmen who, in the opinion of the department, are capable will be invited to follow this sequence; content is the same as Mathematics 216, 217; treatment is more rigorous and extensive. Twelve credits

MATHMATICS 308. DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS.
Differential equations of the first order; linear differential equations of higher order; Laplace transforms; series solutions; applications to the physical sciences. Prerequisite: Mathematics 217 or 221. Three credits

MATHMATICS 310. ADVANCED CALCULUS.
Partial differentiation; multiple integration; improper integrals; and infinite series. Prerequisite: Mathematics 217 or 221. Three credits

MATHMATICS 312. MODERN ALGEBRA.
Sets and mappings; groups, rings and homomorphisms; Sylow theorems; quotient structures; polynomial rings; ideals; introduction to fields and vector spaces. Three credits

MATHMATICS 350. PROJECTIVE GEOMETRY.
Relationship of projective spaces to vector spaces; duality; collineations and correlations; theorems of Desargues, Pappus, Pascal and Brianchon; conic sections; pole-polar duality. Prerequisite: Mathematics 312. Three credits

MATHMATICS 412. VECTOR ANALYSIS.
Differential and integral calculus of vectors; application to dynamics of systems of particles and rigid bodies. Prerequisite: Mathematics 310. Three credits

MATHMATICS 419, 420. SEMINAR.
Presentation and discussion of papers at weekly meetings. Two credits

MATHMATICS 450. NUMERICAL ANALYSIS.
Solution of algebraic, transcendental and differential equations; difference equations; matrix inversion; Gauss and Cheby-schev functions. Prerequisite: Mathematics 308 and 310.

MATHEMATICS 460. PROBABILITY AND STATISTICS.
Sample spaces; distributions; random variables; deviation; analysis of variance; and sampling theory. Prerequisite: Mathematics 217 or 221. Three credits

MATHEMATICS 470. SPECIAL FUNCTIONS.
Generating functions; orthogonal systems of functions; Legendre, Hermite, Bessel, Fourier, Gamma and Beta functions; partial differential equations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 308 and 310. Three credits

MATHEMATICS 480. LINEAR ALGEBRA.
Finite dimensional vector spaces and linear mappings; dual spaces; matrix algebras; invariant factors and elementary divisors; unitary spaces; the spectral theorem for normal operators; linear groups. An Honors Course. Prerequisite: Mathematics 312. Three credits

MATHEMATICS 485. COMPLEX VARIABLES.
The Cauchy-Riemann equations; Cauchy’s integral formulas; series expansions of analytic functions; and conformal mapping. An Honors Course. Prerequisite: Mathematics 308 and 310. Three credits

MILITARY SCIENCE
Colonel Stephen Silvasy, Chairman

MILITARY SCIENCE 101, 102. BASIC FRESHMAN MILITARY SCIENCE I.
An introduction to Basic Military Science: Organization of the Army and ROTC; Individual Weapons and Marksmanship; U.S. Army and National Security; School of the Soldier and Exercise of Command. One hour of lecture, one hour of drill; and, in lieu of thirty hours of military instruction, students will substitute an academic subject that is required in the student’s normal academic curriculum during his Freshman Year, providing it falls into one of the following general academic areas: Effective Communication, Science Comprehension, General Psychology, or Political Development and Political Institutions; two terms. Two credits

MILITARY SCIENCE 201, 222. BASIC SOPHOMORE MILITARY SCIENCE II.
A continuation of MS I: American Military History; Map and Aerial Photograph Reading; Introduction to Artillery Tactics and Techniques; Counterinsurgency; School of the Soldier; Hand to Hand Combat; Physical Training; Exercise of
MILITARY SCIENCE 301, 302.

Advanced Course Military Science III.
Provides basic military education and, with other college disciplines, develops individual character and attributes essential to an officer: Leadership; Military Teaching Principles; Artillery Tactics and Techniques; Infantry Tactics, Techniques, and Communications; and Pre-Camp Orientation. MS III students will exercise command. In lieu of forty-five hours of military instruction, excluding the aforementioned subjects, students will substitute from the following general academic areas: Science Comprehension; Effective Communication; General Psychology or Political Development and Political Institutions. The substitution need not necessarily be from junior year subjects. Two terms. Six credits

MILITARY SCIENCE 401, 402.

Advanced Course Military Science IV.
A continuation of MS III. Develops an appreciation of command and staff responsibilities; Army Administration; Military Law; Operations; Logistics; The Role of the U.S. in World Affairs; Field Artillery Tactics and Techniques; and Service Orientation. MS IV students will exercise command. In lieu of forty-five hours of military instruction, excluding the aforementioned subjects, students will substitute from the following general academic areas: Science Comprehension; Effective Communication; General Psychology or Political Development and Political Institutions. The substitution need not necessarily be from senior year subjects. Flight training (light aviation) is available to a limited number of cadets on an extracurricular basis (70 hours). Two terms. Six credits

*By independent study or by electing lower division courses, the Italian major will achieve sufficient competence in a second language for intermediate or, preferably, advanced courses in his senior year.
ITALIAN 101, 102. ELEMENTARY ITALIAN.
An introductory study of the phonetics and grammar of the language including graded work in reading and composition. Intended for those who are beginning the study of Italian. One required hour per week in language laboratory. Six credits

ITALIAN 202. REVIEW GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION.
Grammatical review, exercises in composition and selected readings. Prerequisite: Italian 102, or a passing grade in the Italian placement examinations. Three credits

ITALIAN 204. INTERMEDIATE READINGS.
Selected readings of intermediate difficulty from writers of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries with a view to introducing the student to the literature and civilization of the country. Three credits

ITALIAN 305. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION.
Training in the use of correct idiomatic Italian and in the practical application of grammatical principles; exercises in written expression and in translating standard English prose into Italian. Prerequisite: Italian 201. Three credits

ITALIAN 306. STYLISTICS.
Includes intensive oral exercises with a view towards improving the student's pronunciation and increasing his active vocabulary. Students make frequent use of audio aids. Prerequisite: Italian 201. Three credits

ITALIAN 308. SURVEY OF ITALIAN LITERATURE: PART 1.
Designed to provide a fundamental knowledge of Italian literature from its origins to the sixteenth century, with particular stress on Dante, Petrarch, and Boccaccio, and their contribution to Italian Humanism and the Renaissance. Prerequisite: Italian 201. Three credits

ITALIAN 309. SURVEY OF ITALIAN LITERATURE: PART 2.
A comprehensive study of Italian literary currents from the "Marinismo" to D'Annunzio and Pirandello through neo-classicism, romanticism, and futurism, with comparative references to European literature. Prerequisite: Italian 204. Three credits

ITALIAN 402. MODERN AUTHORS.
Includes a survey of Italian narrative and poetic production in the late nineteenth century and in the first half of the twentieth century. Prerequisite: Italian 204. Three credits

ITALIAN 405. HISTORY OF THE ITALIAN LANGUAGE.
Deals with the Italian language in its origins in the seventh century up to modern times. By means of a very few philologic and glottologic rules, the student will acquire a knowledge of the origins and transformation of Italian from Vulgar Latin, in chronological progression. Prerequisite: Italian 201. Three credits

ITALIAN 413. READING LIST: PART 1.
Gives an acquaintance with excerpts of Italian writers including the poets of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, such as Cino da Pistoia, Guido Guinizelli, Cielo D’Alcamo, Jacopo da Lentini, Guido Cavalcanti, Dante Alighieri, Francesco Petrarca, Angelo Poliziano, Lorenzo de Medici, and others. Prerequisite: Italian 201. Three credits

ITALIAN 414. READING LIST: PART 2.
Italian poems of knighthood, with particular emphasis on L’Orlando Furioso by Ludovico Ariosto and La Gerusalemme Liberata by Torquato Tasso; reference to the antecedents of this literary genre. Prerequisite: Italian 204. Three credits

ITALIAN 420. SEMINAR: MANZONI.
A comprehensive study of the author's major work and Italy's greatest novel, I Promessi Sposi; consideration of the author's two historic poems, "L’Ardelchi" and "Il Conte di Carmagnola." Three credits

ITALIAN 421. SEMINAR: LEOPARDI.
A study of the works of Leopardi including "Le Operette Morali," "I Canti," and "I Pensieri." Three credits
ITALIAN 422. DANTE.
A comprehensive study of Dante's Divine Comedy, viewed in its different aspects: an exciting adventure story, an exposition of the poet's political action and feelings, a love story, a compendium of history, science and theology, and, finally, a program of political organization. Prerequisite: Italian 308.

ITALIAN 423. HISTORY OF THE ITALIAN THEATER.
A chronological survey of Italian theater, from the religious medieval representations in the open to modern realistic drama. Special attention to Alfieri’s tragedies and their influence on Italian “Risorgimento.” Prerequisite: Italian 308; 309.

PHILOSOPHY 107. Logic.
An introduction to the science of correct thinking as reflected in the processes of definition, construction of syllogisms, and analysis of common fallacies. The course includes both traditional and modern approaches to logic. Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 206. Philosophies of Man.
An investigation of the nature and powers of man, the origin and destiny of the human soul, and the nature of human knowledge and human freedom, with emphasis both on the Aristotelian-Thomistic approach and contemporary variations. Prerequisite: Philosophy 107. Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 302. Problems of Knowledge.
A survey of the nature and limits of human knowledge as presented by the major philosophers. Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 305. Metaphysics.
An analysis of the broadest and most fundamental aspects of reality and knowledge as conceived by the major philosophers, including a discussion of the existence and nature of God. Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 313. Introduction to Moral Philosophy.
The course seeks to establish rational foundations for moral living drawing upon science, history, psychology, and philosophy. Prerequisite: Philosophy 206. Required of all students not taking Theology. Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 314. Applied Moral Philosophy.
An application of the basic principles of ethical theory to specific situations and problems in family, political, business, professional, and international societies. Prerequisites: Philosophy 206, Philosophy 318. Required of all students not taking Theology. Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 315. Advanced Moral Philosophy.
A detailed approach to the moral philosophy of Aristotle and Thomas Aquinas and other major thinkers, with specific reference to the more abstract problems of the moral order. Required of all philosophy majors; open to others approved by the chairman. Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 400. Philosophies of God.
An investigation into the variety of philosophical approaches to the existence and nature of God in the writings of classical philosophers from the ancients through the contemporaries. The course will examine the themes of theism, atheism, agnosticism, pantheism, and panentheism. Offered in spring semesters 1967-69. Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 401. Aesthetics.
A consideration of the nature of art, art activity, art appreciation, and the function of art, with special reference to Art History. The course seeks to provide the student with an elementary basis for forming a critical judgment with respect to art (and fine art) in general and specific works of art in particular. Offered in spring semester 1968. Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 402. Eastern Philosophy.
A comparative study of Asian thought with special emphasis on philosophies originating in India and China. Logical, metaphysical, epistemological, ethical, and political problems will be used as a framework for the study. Offered in spring semester 1967. Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 403. American Philosophy.
A study of vital American thought in three periods: New England transcendentalism; the classical group (Peirce, James, Royce, Santavana, Dewey, Whitehead); and the contemporary movements as seen in the philosophies of Perry, Hocking, Mead, Sellars, Lovejoy, and Brightman. The course will discuss American thought in its relationship to pragmatism, process philosophy, and personalism. Offered in spring semester 1967. Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 405. Phenomenology and Existentialism.
An approach to contemporary existentialism through the philosophies of Hegel, Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, Husserl, and Heidegger. The course will study in detail the existentialist philosophies of Sartre, Marcel, Jaspers and Unamuno, and will investigate the religious existentialism of Buber and Tillich, and the literary existentialism of Camus and Simone de Beauvoir. Offered in spring semester 1968. Three credits
PHILOSOPHY 406. Philosophy of Science.
An investigation of the relationship between philosophy and science from the standpoint of knowledge and method. The course will deal with philosophical problems common to the natural and social sciences, including the role of laws and theories in scientific explanation and prediction, the problem of induction and confirmation, and the nature and role of measurement and scaling. An historical survey will discuss the development of scientific method and the nature of scientific progress. Offered in spring semester 1969.

Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 407. Analytic Philosophy.
A study of the basic writings of Moore, Russell, Wittgenstein, Ayer, Strawson, Austin, Ryle, and Wisdom. Topics may include: the method of linguistic analysis and its application to traditional philosophical problems; the problem of meaning and truth; the relation between language, thought, and reality; logical positivism and the faith of the verification principle; meaning and verification of statements in religious language, ethics and metaphysics. Offered in spring semester 1967.

Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 408. Symbolic Logic.
A study of the following branches of modern or symbolic logic: truth-functional logic; quantificational logic; and the logic of relations. Principles of Aristotelian logic will be evaluated, and the relationship between modern logic and Aristotelian logic will be analyzed. Offered in spring semester 1968.

Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 409. Philosophy of Communism.
A study of dialectical materialism considered as the philosophical foundation of contemporary socialism and communism. The basic writings of Marx, Engels, Lenin and their immediate disciples will be analyzed, along with the works of the French and British socialists. Offered in spring semester 1969.

Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 410. Principles and Problems of Ethics.
An exposition of the principles governing the rightness and wrongness of human actions, along with an analysis of human happiness, the role of the natural moral law and the nature of virtue. Instruction in the application of ethical principles in the solution of problems in family, political, business, professional and international societies. Offered in spring semester 1969.

Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 413. History of Ancient and Medieval Philosophy.
A survey of philosophy from the early Greek thinkers through the decline of Scholasticism. Required of all philosophy majors. Offered in fall semesters 1967-69.

Three credits

A survey of philosophy from the Renaissance period through contemporary thinkers. Required of all philosophy majors. Offered in spring semesters 1967-69.

Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 425. Seminar.
Basis of the course will be papers prepared by individual students. Emphasis on integral and integrating nature of philosophy. Required of all philosophy majors; open to others approved by the chairman.

PHYSICS 103. METEOROLOGY.
A non-technical treatment of the fundamentals of meteorology. Topics treated include the composition and properties of the atmosphere, observation of essential weather elements as well as the effects of weather and climate upon man and his activities.
Three credits

PHYSICS 111, 112. GENERAL PHYSICS I & II. For freshman physics majors. Topics considered include mechanics, special relativity, electricity, and magnetism. Prerequisite: Mathematics 103 and 106 concurrently. Three hours lecture, two hours laboratory; two terms.
Eight credits
PHYSICS 211, 212. General Physics.
Mechanics, heat, light, sound, electricity and magnetism, and modern physics. Prerequisite: Mathematics 106. Three hours of lecture, two hours of laboratory; two terms.
Eight credits

PHYSICS 213. General Physics III.
Includes topics relative to wave phenomena and modern physics. Prerequisites: Physics 112 or 212; Mathematics 216 concurrently. Three hours of lecture.
Three credits

PHYSICS 304. States, Waves and Photons.
A modern introduction to optics encompassing matrix representations of optical systems and polarization states of light; the Jones calculus, the Mueller calculus and the Stokes representation; states of light as eigenstates of operators, expectation values, the bra-ket product and probability amplitudes; an approach to scalar diffraction through Green's theorem and Fourier transforms; the electromagnetic field and its quantization. Prerequisite: Physics 309. Three hours of lecture and one laboratory period per week.
Four credits

PHYSICS 308. Circuit Theory.
A study of electrical networks, their response and the common network theorems. Prerequisite: Physics 112 and Mathematics 216. Two hours of lecture and one laboratory period per week.
Three credits

PHYSICS 309. Electricity and Magnetism.
Physical and mathematical properties of electric fields, potential, dielectrics, magnetic fields, induced emf, magnetic materials, electromagnetism and Maxwell's equations. Prerequisites: Physics 212; Mathematics 310 either previously or concurrently. Three hours of lecture.
Three credits

PHYSICS 405. Thermodynamics.
Topics treated include the first, second and third law of Thermodynamics; kinetic theory of gases; transport phenomena; Maxwell-Boltzmann statistics; Bose-Einstein and Fermi-Dirac statistics. Three hours of lecture.
Three credits

Lectures and problems dealing with the special theory of relativity, black body radiation, photoelectric and thermionic emission, wave-particle duality, uncertainty principle, Rutherford scattering, the Bohr-Sommerfeld atom, the Schroedinger equation and its application to the hydrogen atom. Additional topics include the interaction of radiation with matter, X-rays and the diatomic molecule. Prerequisite: Physics 308 and Mathematics 310. Three hours lecture, one laboratory period per week.
Four credits

PHYSICS 408. Nuclear Physics.
Introductory course in nuclear physics; covers such topics as fundamental particles, properties of nuclei, radioactivity, and nuclear reactions. Prerequisite: Physics 407. Three hours of lecture, two hours of laboratory.
Four credits

PHYSICS 409. Atomic Physics.
Similar to Physics 407 except that no laboratory is required. Intended for those not majoring in Physics. Prerequisite: Physics 212 and Mathematics 310.
Three credits

PHYSICS 410. Electronics.
An introductory course dealing with vacuum tube and transistor circuits. Prerequisite: Physics 308, Mathematics 217. Two hours of lecture, one laboratory period per week.
Three credits

Topics include the single particle and systems of particles in one, two and three dimensions; rotation of a rigid body; moving coordinate systems; and the mechanics of continuous media. Lagrange's and Hamilton's Equations are developed and tensor methods are introduced in their non-relativistic applications. Prerequisite: Mathematics 310. Three hours of lecture; two terms.
Six credits

PHYSICS 416. Quantum Mechanics.
An introductory course. Prerequisites: Mathematics 308, Physics 213.
Three credits
PHYSICS 419, 420. Seminar.
Students engage in individual studies, present papers, and become acquainted with the literature. Required of all physics majors. One hour weekly; two terms.

Two credits

PHYSICS 421. History of Science.
An introduction to scientific thought and scientific discoveries from the earliest times to the present. Individual work in the history of physics. Two hours of lecture.

Two credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 103. GEOPOLITICS.

A survey of the geographic factors influencing the real and potential economic and political development of nations.

Three credits
POLITICAL SCIENCE 301. American Federal Government.
An examination of the organization and functions of the federal government of the United States; a study of the separation of powers and relations with the states. Required of all Political Science majors. Three credits

A study of state and local governments in the United States with special reference to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 303. American Constitutional Law.
An analysis of the development of the Constitution via the interpretations of the Supreme Court. Principal topics are the federal system, judicial review, separation of powers, powers of Congress and the President, the Commerce Clause, and political and civil rights. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 401. United States Foreign Relations.
The historical development of United States diplomacy and foreign policy from the period of the Revolution to 1914. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 402. United States Foreign Relations.
A continuation of Government 401, from 1914 to the present. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 405. Municipal Government.
A study of the organization and functions of government at the municipal level and an analysis of trends and types of municipal governments. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 406. Comparative Government.
A comparative analysis of the constitutional principles and governmental organizations of the major European powers. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 407. International Relations.
An analysis of the basic patterns and major factors underlying international politics. Consideration to current international problems. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 409. American Political Parties.
A view of the political problems of the United States as revealed in the major and minor political parties that have arisen during the country's history. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 410. Modern Political Thought.
A consideration of major trends in political philosophy from the 18th century to the present. Required of all Political Science majors. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 413. Non-Western Political Systems.
A study of the governmental institutions and political processes of the emergent nations of Africa, the Middle East, and South Asia. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 415. Seminar I.
A study of methods of research and scholarly writing. Directed research and reports on individual assignments. Required of all Political Science majors. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 416. Seminar II.
Supervised research and writing on major topic. Weekly presentation and group discussion of individual papers. Submission of written thesis. Required of all Political Science majors. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 118. Constitutional History of the United States.
Identical with History 418. Three credits

POLITICAL SCIENCE 480. Advanced International Relations.

Catholic students follow certain courses in Theology. This framework of religious study is related to the purposes and objectives of the College. The curriculum in Theology stresses the essential truths which are basic to our Judeo-Christian civilization and without which there can be no truly Christian intellectual and cultural formation. Non-Catholic students follow a different sequence of courses designed to enhance appreciation of the religious elements essential to a true education. This sequence includes Theology 108, Philosophy 313 and 314, and an option chosen from among Theology 313, 410, or History 371-372.

Catholic students whose background indicates considerable deficiency in the basic elements of religion take Theology 100 in their first semester; thereafter they follow the same program as other Catholic students.

Unless noted otherwise, all one-term courses are offered in both semesters. In courses with a two-term sequence, odd-numbered courses are given in the fall, even-numbered courses in the spring semester.

THEOLOGY 117. SACRED SCRIPTURE.
An introduction to contemporary biblical studies through an analysis of selected books of the Old and New Testaments with focus on the unifying themes and the theological thought they contain. Required of all Catholic students. Three credits

THEOLOGY 117. CHRISTIAN MAN IN THE MODERN WORLD.
The nature of faith as an essential facet of the mature personality; an examination and discussion in the light of modern discoveries of some selected problems contemporary man faces, particularly regarding free will, sex, love, and the historicity of man. Three credits

THEOLOGY 317. GOD AND MAN'S SALVATION.
The study of salvation: its need, nature, promise and fulfillment, as set forth in Sacred Scripture and theological tradition; the Triune God, Author of Man's salvation; man's need for salvation and the ways modern man recognizes this need; the Incarnation, the sign and realization of God's redemptive love. Three credits

THEOLOGY 417. SACRAMENTAL ENCOUNTER WITH THE RISEN LORD.
Through an examination of Sacred Scripture, Patristic, Conciliar, and contemporary theological thought the sacraments, particularly of Christian Initiation—Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist—are studied as efficacious means of personal encounter with the Risen Lord and existential participation in His sanctifying worship. Three credits
THEOLOGY ELECTIVES AND COURSES FOR SPECIAL GROUPS

THEOLOGY 100, SURVEY OF CATHOLIC DOCTRINE.
An exposition and discussion of the principal truths of the Catholic Faith; required of Catholic freshmen whose academic background indicates considerable deficiency in the knowledge of the basic dogmas of the Faith. Non-Catholic students may elect this course. Three credits

THEOLOGY 108, SURVEY OF THE BIBLE.
An introductory course in the Bible with emphasis on the history of the Chosen People and on the life, work, and character of Jesus. For Non-Catholic students. Three credits

THEOLOGY 123-124, SCRIPTURE STUDIES.
Fall term: A comprehensive study of the books of the Old Testament focusing on their content and literary composition. Spring term: An introduction to the theology of St. Paul through an intensive study of key texts taken from various Epistles. Open only to the Brothers Scholastics. Two terms. Six credits

THEOLOGY 223-224, CONTEMPORARY MORAL THEOLOGY.
Studies the nature of responsible, Christian, human activity with detailed application of principles to contemporary problems. These courses, open only to Brothers Scholastics, are oriented to the students' future teaching commitment. Two terms. Six credits

THEOLOGY 313, THE DEVELOPMENT OF JEWISH RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.
An extensive survey of the Jewish Religion, including discussion and analysis of Jewish theology, religious practices, ritual, and customs, treated in the light of other great religions of the world. Open to all Non-Catholic students. Catholic students may elect this course as a substitute for Theology 217, 317, or 417. Three credits

THEOLOGY 323-324, DOGMATIC THEOLOGY.
The Triune God; relations of the Divine Persons to one another and their role in the Redemption of man; the Son of God who became man: his attributes and qualities; the deeds of his life in the salvation of the human race; the presence of the mystery of salvation in the liturgical action of the Church. Organized as a preparation for teachers of Kerygmatic Theology, the course examines each of these mysteries according to the Biblical theme, patristic teaching and the development of the doctrine in the history of the Church, and the theology of St. Thomas. Open only to Brothers Scholastics. Two terms. Six credits
An introduction to sacramental worship, exploring the sacramental nature of salvation and the concept of a sacrament. Fall Term: the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. Spring Term: Sacraments of Reconciliation: Penance and Anointing; and, the two Social Sacraments: Orders and Matrimony. Open only to Brothers Scholastics. Two terms.

Six credits

THEOLOGY 430. Historical Origins of World Religions.
A cultural and historical approach to the rise and development of Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and the major oriental religions. Given in the spring term only. For Non-Catholic students. Catholic students may take this course as a substitute for Theology 217, 317, or 417.

Six credits

THEOLOGY 451. The History and Theology of Liturgical Worship.
A study of the growth and development of the Baptismal and Eucharistic Liturgy through a consideration of its historical sources: discussion of Conciliar teaching and contemporary thought on the Christological and ecclesial dimensions of sacramental encounter. Given in the spring term only. Open to students of the Honors Program.

Three credits

See p. 68 of the History section of the catalogue for a description of these courses. Either course may be taken as a substitute for Theology 217 or 317; also open to Non-Catholic students. Two terms.

Six credits

PHILOSOPHY 313. Introduction to Moral Philosophy.
See p. 81 of the Philosophy section of the catalogue for a description of this course. For Non-Catholic students. Given in the fall term only.

Three credits

PHILOSOPHY 314. Applied Moral Philosophy.
See p. 81 of the Philosophy section of the catalogue for a description of this course. For Non-Catholic students. Given in the spring term only.

Three credits
The School of Business Administration was established as a separate division of the College in 1955 to offer an increased variety of programs to students preparing for a business career.

The School offers programs of study leading to the Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting, General Business, Finance, Industrial Management, Industrial Relations, and Marketing.

Concentration in one of these areas will prepare you for entry into that particular area of business endeavor or for further graduate study in the field of business. Moreover, all of these curricula provide a sound core of courses in the humanities, science, and the social sciences to further the intellectual development of the whole man.
OBJECTIVES
Over and above the general objectives of the College, the School of Business Administration, while providing a sound general education through a substantial program in the liberal disciplines, strives to give a basic understanding of business as a foundation for specialization in a particular area. This broad background is provided through a study of the organization and structure of business as an enterprise; a study of economic forces and the problems created by them; a study of the legal foundations of business and of the fundamental skills used in business organizations.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY
ACCOUNTING
The Accounting curriculum is designed to ground the student in all of the accounting processes that he will need to know in entering business, in preparing for the licensing examinations for the professional degree of Certified Public Accountant, or in entering a graduate school of accounting.

FINANCE
This curriculum studies the structural organization and operation of our economic and financial systems and their inter-relationships with the specific techniques and practices of financial institutions of all types in the United States.

GENERAL BUSINESS
This curriculum is designed to prepare the student to enter the business world well-equipped with a general knowledge of the principles that govern business operations, or to enter a graduate school of business.

INDUSTRY
This curriculum stresses the various factors that enter into the organization and operation of a business establishment; these factors are integrated with specialized courses in such subjects as time and motion study, industrial relations, etc.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS
This curriculum is substantially similar to that in management. Emphasis, however, is placed upon personnel relations and labor organizations.

MARKETING
This curriculum studies those activities—sales, advertising, sales management, wholesaling, retailing, merchandising, sales promotion, marketing research—which are involved in the flow of goods and services from the point of production to the consumer.
EXPLANATION OF OPTIONS
A full four-year listing of the courses prescribed for each of the above programs will be found under the departmental listing in the pages following. Departments are listed alphabetically. Since the general business program does not fall under any single department, however, that curriculum is listed first.

In the programs for majors listed on the pages following, you will note that sophomores may elect either mathematics or science. The science course chosen may be either Biology 117-118 (6 credits), Astronomy 101-102 (6 credits), Geology 101-102 (6 credits), or Chemistry 101-102 (8 credits)

Scholarships and Financial Assistance

All applicants for financial assistance must submit to the Office of the Financial Aid Director at La Salle the Parents' Confidential Statement of the College Scholarship Service. These forms may be obtained from the high school guidance counselor.

Scholarship awards by the College are of two kinds—those offered in open competition and those granted to specific high schools.

COMPETITIVE SCHOLARSHIPS

La Salle College sponsors four National Merit Scholarships annually. To be eligible for one of these scholarships, a student must take the regular National Merit Scholarship Test and must indicate his intention of attending La Salle College. These scholarships are administered by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation: it uses the regular procedures of its national competition and assigns the amount of the award based on need with a maximum of $1500 each year for four years.

In addition to these scholarships, La Salle College also provides partial grants to other qualifiers in the National Merit competition. Inquiry concerning these latter grants should be directed to the Office of the Financial Aid Director at the College.

Ten competitive scholarships, open to Catholic men who are high school seniors or graduates, are offered annually. Application forms for the competitive scholarships may be obtained from the Financial Aid Director of the College or from the applicant's high school principal. The completed form must be received by La Salle College not later than February 1st. The applicant must arrange to take the tests of the College Entrance Examination Board in Scholastic Aptitude no later than the January testing date. Arrangements for the tests must be made directly with the College Entrance Examination Board, Princeton, New Jersey. Applicants must request the Board to send results to the Admissions Office, La Salle College, Philadelphia 41, Pennsylvania.

PRINCIPAL'S SCHOLARSHIPS

A number of high schools enjoy the privilege of appointing a male honor graduate to La Salle College each year. Their scholarships cover full tuition and are renewable for four years provided the recipient maintains a "B" average. Winners of these scholarships have typically been students who (1) rank among the first members of their senior class, (2) have English or Mathematics Achievement scores above 600, and (3) combined Scholastic Aptitude scores of about 1300. The Principals who have the opportunity of appointing students to these scholarships are those of every high school conducted by the Christian Brothers in the Baltimore Province and every archdiocesan Catholic high school in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Applications for these scholarships are made to the Principal of the high school, early in the senior year. Awards are announced by March 15th.

SCHOLARSHIPS FROM OTHER SOURCES

A certain number of scholarships and grants are annually made available by various agencies in the Philadelphia community to students entering the College or to upper-classmen already in attendance. A number of students each year also have scholarships which they have won in open competition at the city, state or national level. Among the chief grants of the first type are the following:

Food Fair Stores Scholarships: The Food Fair Foundation grants annually one scholarship valued at five hundred dollars per year for four years, to employees, sons of employees, or sons of deceased employees. Applications are made directly to the College. Awards are made on the basis of civic interest, leadership and scholarship.

The Martin de Porres Scholarship: valued at approximately $860 to $910 per year for four years. This scholarship is awarded on the basis of the high school record and the College Board Scholastic Aptitude Test scores. It is available to a Catholic Negro student residing within 100 miles of Philadelphia. Candidates should apply before May 6th. to M. H. McCloskey, III, Martin de Porres Foundation, 2050 Suburban Station Building, Philadelphia, Pa. 19103.

A grant of $1000 from the Philadelphia Council of the Knights of Columbus is given to La Salle College annually to be divided among four students who show evidence of financial need, who have affiliation with the Knights of Columbus, and who are capable of maintaining above average scholastic standing.

Information about off-campus grants frequently held by La Salle students which involve competition or appointment can be obtained from the following:

2. State Competitive Scholarship, Department of Public Instruction, Division of Testing, Harrisburg, Pa. 17126.
Awards

5. State Veteran's Scholarship, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Military Assistance, South Office Bldg., Harrisburg, Pa.
7. New Jersey State Scholarship, Department of Education, 175 W. State Street, Trenton 8, N. J.

AWARDS AND HONORS

The following prizes are awarded annually:

The Beverly A. Finkle Award of fifty dollars in memory of the late Dr. Beverly Finkle is offered to the student of the senior class who has the best record in scholarship.

The Harrity Memorial Award for Religious Instruction, founded by Mrs. William F. Harrity, in memory of her husband, the late Honorable William F. Harrity, is open to all college students. It is awarded through a competitive examination.

The Anastasia McNichol Award for English Essay, founded by the late Honorable James P. McNichol, is open to all college students.

The William T. Connor Awards totaling one hundred dollars, in memory of William T. Connor, Esq., '00, LL.D., '39, Trustee of the College, are offered to those seniors who have excelled in certain subjects.

The John McShain Award of fifty dollars, donated by Mr. John McShain, is offered to the senior who has maintained a high scholastic record and who was most active in promoting, apart from athletics, the interests of the College.

The John J. Mooney Award, established under the will of Anna E. Wingert, in memory of John J. Mooney, an alumnus of La Salle College, is granted to the senior with the best scholastic record in language and literature.

The Honorable Vincent A. Carroll Award, donated by the Honorable Vincent A. Carroll, is offered to the senior who has the best scholastic record in Philosophy.
The Vernon Guischard Award of fifty dollars is granted annually to the student in the Upper Division of the Department of French who has maintained the best scholastic record in the study of the language and literature of France.

Two medals, provided by the French Government, are awarded annually to students proficient in the language and literature of France.

The Monsignor John J. Bonner Award is offered to the senior who has the highest over-all average in the area of Business Administration.

The Charles V. Kelly Memorial Award is offered to the senior with the best scholastic record in English studies.

The Philadelphia Chapter of the Pennsylvania Society of Public Accountants Award is offered to the senior with the highest scholastic average in accounting.

The Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants Awards presented to two seniors in recognition of their high scholastic record in accounting subjects and the demonstration of qualities of leadership.

The Alpha Epsilon Honor Society Award, donated by the Society, is offered to a senior with an excellent scholastic record who has shown great interest in extracurricular activities.

The Biology Department Award is granted to the senior giving evidence of the best mastery of the arts and techniques employed in Microscopy and Micrology.

The Alpha Epsilon Delta Award is given to the outstanding senior who proposes to enter one of the "healing" professions or intends to do research in biology.

The La Salle Alumni Medical Association Award is presented to the outstanding senior preparing for the medical profession.

The James A. Finnegan Memorial Award is presented to the senior who exemplifies in an eminent manner Christian ideals of social justice in student government and campus political affairs.

The Roman Catholic High School Alumni Association Awards are given to the two alumni of that high school having the highest scholastic average in the School of Arts and Sciences and the School of Business Administration respectively.
The Philadelphia Chapter of the American Marketing Association offers an award to a senior with a superior scholastic record who shows unusual capacity for growth in the field of Marketing.

The Masque Award is presented to the member of the senior class who, while maintaining a high scholastic average, has done most for the La Salle College Theater.

Military Science Awards

The Governor's Award presented by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the graduating cadet with the highest academic excellence in all studies.

The Army ROTC Sabre presented by La Salle College to the graduating cadet with the highest academic excellence in Advanced Course Military studies.

The Superior Cadet Ribbon Awards presented by the Professor of Military Science to the outstanding cadets for each academic year.

Other awards are given by the Philadelphia Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association, Sons of the American Revolution, The Military Order of World Wars, The Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Catholic War Veterans, The National Guard Association of Pennsylvania, and the Association of the United States Army to cadets who have exhibited outstanding qualities of leadership, high moral character, and academic distinction.
