Re: Early Deadline for Payroll ending 11/24/02

Due to the Thanksgiving Holiday, the Human Resource Department will need to process the payroll for week ending November 24, 2002 early. We are asking your cooperation in submitting all payroll information, including timesheets for this payroll, no later than Tuesday, November 19, 2002 at 3:00 p.m. Any timesheets or other payroll information received after this deadline will be processed in the following payroll.

Because the University will be closed for the holiday, paychecks will be dated and distributed on Wednesday, November 27, 2002. Thank you for your cooperation in adhering to this deadline.

The Human Resources Staff would also like to take this opportunity to wish you and your family a Happy Thanksgiving.

Sincerely,

Margurete Walsh
Director of Human Resources
MEMORANDUM

Date: November 15, 2002
To: University Faculty
    Academic Deans
From: Richard A. Nigro
      Provost
Subject: Submission of Final Grades

I write to announce that, following input from both faculty and students as well as lengthy discussion at meetings of the Academic Affairs Committee, the policy regarding the submission of final grades has been changed. Effective in the Fall 2003 semester, final grades henceforth will be due five (5) calendar days following the end of the examination period for the Fall and Spring semesters.

While the arguments presented by several Departments and a number of individual faculty members were reviewed by the Committee, the majority of the members were in favor of making this change.

This change will be present in the 2003-04 Academic Calendar, and I ask you that you also note it now for your own course planning.
TO: Faculty
FROM: John J. McGoldrick, F.S.C.
   Assistant Provost
DATE: November 15, 2002

Funding is available for City As Classroom activities for the Spring 2003 semester. Applications will be accepted until Friday, December 6, 2002. An electronic application form (i.e., a “Word” document) is available. Please contact me (#1015; e-mail: mcgoldri@lasalle.edu), and I will e-mail a blank form to you.

The Council of Deans has adopted the following guidelines for review of City As Classroom funding applications:

Goal to facilitate the use of the resources of the Greater Philadelphia Metropolitan area in the educational experience of students.

Guidelines for funding evaluation:

1. Priority will be given to funding for undergraduate classes.

2. Priority will be given to funding for activities that will not be available in future semesters (e.g., a special exhibit at a museum, a concert or play and so forth).

3. Priority will be given to discrete events rather than underwriting continuing costs of student participation in activities required by a course.

4. The number of participants can be given priority in decisions on funding.

5. Funding of admission costs will be limited to $12.00 per person.

6. When transportation is involved, the first choice is University-owned vehicles. If that is not feasible, rental must be arranged through the University’s Purchasing Office.

La Salle University’s Christmas Poets – and Artist

Think of the companion who did not talk,
Who knew it’s the quiet memories that last.

“Palimpsest,” “Winter Birth,” and “In Unseasonable Decembers” are three poems that were penned by the charter members of La Salle University’s Christmas Poets: Claude Koch, Brother Daniel Burke, and Gerald Johnson (GJJ) respectively. Accompanying festive poems by these poets in this exhibition is the seasonal artwork of James T. Lang, another longtime member of La Salle’s faculty. We invite you to peruse this holiday exhibit and enjoy the literary and visual cheer created by members of our community.

Unlike the “companion who did not talk,” we encourage each of you to become one who is willing to share your “quiet memories” with the rest of our scholarly community.

This exhibit can now be viewed by visiting the first floor of the Connelly Library.
You are cordially invited to join La Salle University Alumni at these upcoming events:

"Much Ado About Education"
300 years of education in 50 minutes

Tuesday, November 19
12:30 – 1:45 pm
Dunleavy Room, Student Union

An amusing and informative skit presented by Dave Odorisio, Jillian Szczepaniak-Gillece, and Dave Reinhert - students in Dr. Preston Feden's Honors class, "How Humans Learn"

The skit will trace some of the major developments in education, starting with John Locke and ending with Constructionists. The program will offer new, innovative approaches to seeing the differences between the styles and reforms of education. Changes made by Horace Mann, John Dewey, and Piaget will also be addressed. There will be an opportunity for comments and discussion from the audience at the end of the performance.

UNDERSTANDING & TREATING SOCIAL ANXIETY DISORDER FROM A COGNITIVE BEHAVIORAL PERSPECTIVE

Cynthia L. Turk, Ph.D.
Friday, November 22, 2002 – 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.
Newtown, Bucks County Campus

Dr. Cindy Turk earned her Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Oklahoma State University. She also completed a sub-speciality in Health Psychology and Behavioral Medicine. Dr. Turk will begin her stay at La Salle this fall as a Clinical Supervisor and Professor who will be developing an Anxiety Disorders Clinic out of our Community Center for Counseling and Psychological Services. Dr. Turk comes to us from Temple University where she is Associate Director and Post Doctoral Fellow with the Adult Anxiety Clinic.

The theoretical and empirical work that forms a basis for a cognitive behavioral understanding of social anxiety disorder will be reviewed. After reviewing the empirical support for the use of exposure and cognitive restructuring in the treatment of social anxiety disorder, a specific treatment protocol will be presented. Common themes and clinical issues that arise during the course of treatment will be discussed.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS

La Salle University’s CE Program is approved by the American Psychological Association to offer Continuing Education for psychologists. La Salle University maintains responsibility for the program.

La Salle is recognized by the National Board for Certified Counselors to offer Continuing Education for National Certified Counselors. The University adheres to NBCC Continuing Education Guidelines. Each workshop provides 3 hours of CEUs for Certified Counselors.
