A Prayer for September
from University Ministry & Service & the Project on Justice and Society

O God, we pray for all those in our world who are suffering from injustice:

For those who are discriminated against because of their race, color or religion;

For those imprisoned for working for the relief of oppression;

For those who are hounded for speaking the inconvenient truth;

For those tempted to violence as a cry against overwhelming hardship;

For those deprived of reasonable health and education;

For those suffering from hunger and famine;

For those too weak to help themselves and who have no one else to help them;

For the unemployed who cry out for work but do not find it.

We pray for anyone of our acquaintance who is personally affected by injustice.

Forgive us, Lord, if we unwittingly share in the conditions or in a system that perpetuates injustice.

Show us how we can serve your children and make your love practical by washing their feet.

RE: Leaves and Grants

During October and November, the Leaves and Grants Committee will review and recommend on these grant applications, which are due in the Provost's Office by October 11:

- Research leave for one semester of the 2003-2004 academic year;
- Degree completion leave for one semester of the 2003-2004 academic year;
- "Other Type" grants which would be implemented before May 15, 2003;
- Course reduction grants for one course during the 2003-2004 academic year.

In the spring semester, applications will be available for (a) summer 2003 grants; and (b) "Other Type" grants that would be implemented between May 15, 2003 and September, 2003.

Current policies on funds for these grants are as follows:

- Six full semesters of leaves are available;
- The amount available for grants other than semester leaves is equal to the mean Full Professor salary;
- Up to eight one-course reductions are available for 2003-2004;
- "If one or more of the six full semester leaves is unused, there should be a transfer of funds from the annual leaves budget to the summer and other type grant budget. The amount recommended is one-third of the middle step of the Associate Professor scale. Should more than one not be used, this motion is intended to cover just one instance." (College Council, December 14, 1981). For this calculation, the mean Associate Professor salary will be used.

1 All full-time faculty are eligible to apply for grants. Tenured and tenure-track faculty are eligible to apply for leaves.
Review Criteria

In consideration of the Committee's previous work, it has established the following as the criteria by which applications for all types of leaves and grants will be reviewed:

- Quality of the Project
- Quality of the Proposal
- Preparation for the Project
- Feasibility of Timetable
- Relationship of Project to Faculty Member’s Professional Development
- Relationship of Project to La Salle University Community

The letter required from the Department Chair is confidential correspondence and will assist the Committee in evaluating several of these issues from a disciplinary perspective.

Focus of Applications

The Leaves and Grants Program is intended to enhance faculty development primarily through supporting research and scholarship.

While course development is an essential aspect of each faculty member's regular responsibility, proposals for instructional development that are in some way beyond normal course development can be considered for funding.

Ordinarily, travel grants and work that is administrative in nature are not funded through this Committee.

Application Forms

Forms for applying for research leave, degree completion, “Other Type,” and course reduction grants are now available. Please email Assistant Provost Bro. John McGoldrick (mcgoldri@lasalle.edu) for an application, or you may call for one at ext. 1015.

Should you wish further information on applying, you might check with any member of the Leaves and Grants Committee:

Sister Ellen Dauwer to Spend Academic Year at La Salle University as a Fellow of the American Council on Education

Sister Ellen Dauwer, SC, of the College of Saint Elizabeth in Morristown, NJ, will be spending this academic year at La Salle University as a Fellow of the American Council on Education (ACE). Sister Ellen will be working with various faculty and administrative departments to learn more about higher education administration, particularly in the areas of technology, distance learning, financial management and institutional advancement.

“I wanted to come to an urban campus, with a diverse city and a diverse student body,” said Sister Ellen, who was one of 36 educators selected for an ACE Fellowship. “I also wanted to be placed at a Catholic university.” She was most recently the Associate Dean of Continuing Studies at the College of St. Elizabeth and plans to work in distance learning education programs when she returns.

“I think it’s a good match for me,” she said about coming to La Salle. “There are similarities between the College of St. Elizabeth and La Salle, but the differences will stretch me into new areas.”

La Salle University President Brother Michael McGinniss said, “We’re delighted to have Sister Ellen here, and we’re honored she chose us for her fellowship. I believe Sister Ellen’s time here will be a mutually beneficial experience.”

In her application for the fellowship, Sister Ellen wrote, “As an educator in the field of technology, interest in distance learning is a natural fit. I have spearheaded a number of distance learning initiatives at the College of St. Elizabeth and have been given the responsibility to expand them in the future. Educational institutions, including those in higher education, are struggling to respond appropriately and effectively to the needs of the world and to the needs of students in the area of technology.”

At La Salle, she will work with “mentoring teams” from various academic and administrative areas.

Sister Ellen was graduated from The College of St. Elizabeth in 1977 with a degree in Education and minor in mathematics. She entered the Sisters of Charity in 1978, and started teaching math and science at a Massachusetts middle school. She earned her M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from New York University. She joined the faculty of the College of St. Elizabeth in 1988 as a member of the Computer Information Systems program, and later was chair of the Business Administration and Economics Department.

Abstract: A talk followed by dialogue and debate on the events of 9-11. A Socratic questioning of media hype, with a Nietzschean critique of herd mentality. Goal: to see the larger picture and to put apocalypse in historical perspective. Jesus: "As you sow, so shall ye reap;" Gandhi: "An eye for an eye only makes the whole world blind."

Faculty and staff are invited to join. Limit: 20 participants each semester. There will be no charge for the books.

The text for the fall semester is Making the Most of College by Richard J. Light, Harvard University. “The book answers two key questions:

SELF DISCLOSURE IN PSYCHOTHERAPY

Allan B. Elfant, Ph.D., ABPP
Clinical & Consulting Psychologist
Friday, September 20, 2003
1:15-4:15 P.M.
Main Campus – Dunleavy Room

Dr. Allan Elfant is a clinical and consulting psychologist in State College, Pennsylvania. He serves on the American Psychological Association Council of Representatives representing the Division of Group Psychology and Group Psychotherapy (Division 49), and has been on the Board of Directors of the American Group Psychotherapy Association. He frequently leads workshops on the issues pertinent to intensive psychotherapy.

The psychotherapeutic relationship is pertinent to our work with patients. The clinician’s personal experiences in the clinical dialogue and exchange can provide a textured connection to the patient’s inner world. Disclosure of such experiences may enrich the patient’s odyssey in search of healing and transformation. However, evocation and expression of psychotherapist responses and self disclosure also pose possibilities of risk and injury to the patient and to therapeutic progress. This intensive workshop will explore the potentially creative and possibly harmful effects of the therapist’s subjective reactions and the revelation of these reactions. Ethical issues will be raised pertaining to the therapist’s proper role, function, and task in considering the use of self and self disclosure in the clinical encounter. It is requested that participants bring illustrations from their own practices.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS

La Salle University’s CE Program is approved by the American Psychological Association to offer Continuing Education for psychologists. La Salle University maintains responsibility for the program.

La Salle is recognized by the National Board for Certified Counselors to offer Continuing Education for National Certified Counselors. The University adheres to NBCC Continuing Education Guidelines. Each workshop provides 3 hours of CEUs for Certified Counselors.
