La Salle University
Celebrate the start of the semester with a FABULOUS and FREE Open House Deli-Lunch...

It's not too early to mark this on your calendar!!!

Tuesday, January 14, 2003

It all starts in the Chapel Lounge (lower level of College Hall) at 11:30 AM!!!

ALL members of the university community are invited!!!

Campus News is distributed weekly to foster communication and encourage information sharing among University departments. Articles submitted are the responsibility of their authors alone and do not imply an opinion on the part of La Salle University or the Department of Mail and Duplicating Services.
Dear Colleagues,

When we created the Web site for the Office of the Provost (www.lasalle.edu/provost) this past fall, a goal was to provide a place where the scholarly and creative accomplishments of our faculty and students could be highlighted and celebrated. We need your help to begin making that goal a reality.

Beginning in February 2003 the Web site will include a page (ultimately pages) devoted to news about faculty accomplishments. While initially these items will simply be listed by category, eventually we plan to create featured areas of the site that will focus on particular projects or achievements and include relevant photos, Web links, multimedia or other supporting materials. We also will initiate this project by including information only on faculty projects, though it is our hope to expand the site to include student research within the coming academic year.

To get started, we are asking that all faculty (full- and part-time) submit information on recent projects and accomplishments according to the guidelines listed below. Information received by January 22 will be included in the first version of this site - the site will be updated three times a year and newly received information will be added accordingly (and previously displayed information removed). We are asking faculty to provide us with information about their recent (since 9/1/02) accomplishments in any of the following areas:

- conference papers
- books and other publications
- research leave or sabbatical projects
- awards and grants
- professional leadership activities (such as chairing a conference session, serving as an officer of a professional association, or editing a journal)

Please forward information about your accomplishments – your name, department, and a brief description of the work (include relevant publication or presentation information and an abstract if applicable) – to Sabrina DeTurk, Assistant Provost for Learning Support and Faculty Development, no later than January 22. Please submit information by email (deturk@lasalle.edu) in the body of an email message or as an attached Microsoft Word document. Department chairs may wish to coordinate an effort to gather information from all faculty in their departments and submit a single document.

Thank you for your participation in this new initiative and we look forward to creating a vibrant and engaging display of your achievements.

Health Advisory Committee Minutes - December 10, 2002

Present: Co-chairs: Lane B. Neubauer, Dina Oleksiak; Members: Earl Goldberg, Kristal Hankinson, Danielle Landwher, Chris Mickel, Mary Ellen Wydan, Bonni Zetick
Absent: Nick Angerosa, Colleen Bauer, Sister Eileen McGowan, Ricky Palladino, Scott Tajarian
Guest: Anne Bullard

I. Health Fair Update
   A. Einstein Hospital will be providing Glucose and Cholesterol screenings
   B. Several on-campus groups have committed themselves to participate in the Fair
   C. La Salle Dance Team and Cheerleaders will be contacted to see if each would be interested in doing a demonstration during the Health Fair; SAVE will be providing a self defense demonstration
   D. Funding proposal will need to be submitted early next semester.

II. Smoking Survey
    A. Tabled until next semester

III. AOD goals for the Health Advisory Committee
    A. Discussion as to what the HAC's role is in addressing the directive to the Student Affairs' teams and committees to change culture regarding AOD issues even though this charge was not directed to our committee.
    B. HAC will work to support the Student Affairs' committees addressing these concerns and will make recommendations if appropriate when and if issues are brought to the attention of the Health Advisory committee.

IV. OSHA issues - staff who handle body fluids and/or are involved in high risk situations concerning bloodborne pathogens
    A. Human Resources is following up on this.
    B. They are developing a survey to be distributed to department heads
    C. They will compare La Salle's procedures to other Universities of similar sizes and will make recommendations for training.
    D. Concerns were raised about Community Development staff who are often confronted with situations where bodily fluids are involved (i.e. vomit, blood, etc.). Resident Assistants (undergraduate students) often feel obligated to clean these up because it is after housekeeping's hours. Although Physical Plant has offered to make 'clean up' kits available, the HAC discussed several safety and risk issues concerning undergraduate staff or other staff who have not been properly trained being placed in this type of situation.

V. Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services
    A. Sister Eileen McGowan, Dina Oleksiak and Danielle Landwher met to review the "directives" and to assure that they are being followed.
    B. Several of the "directives" address the work of Health Services and Campus Ministry; after review it was concluded that Health Services and Campus Ministry are in compliance with "directives".
    C. HAC checked with Neighborhood Nursing. NNC reports that all of their staff have received the "directives" and have been instructed to carefully review them.
    D. "Directives" also address research. Since all research must go through the Institutional Research Committee, the IRB would need to review the Ethical and Religious Directives.

VI. Next Semester's meeting time
    A. Miraculously, it seems that everyone on the committee is free on Wednesday afternoons!
    B. HAC meetings will be 2:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. on the following Wednesdays in 2003: Jan. 22, Feb. 19, Mar. 19 & Apr. 16.

Respectfully submitted by Lane B. Neubauer Ph.D.

Did you miss Bill Sullivan's presentations on “The Liberal Arts and the Professions”?

Would you like to revisit some of the themes addressed or share them with colleagues and students?

Videotapes of both of Bill’s lectures are now available for you to borrow from the Teaching and Learning Center.

Here’s your second chance to hear this engaging teacher and scholar speak on topics of interest to the La Salle University community:

“The Core and the Professions: How Are They Connected?”

“Why the Professions Need the Liberal Arts”

Contact Sabrina DeTurk in the Teaching and Learning Center (ext. 5005 or deturk@lasalle.edu) to arrange to borrow one of the videotapes.
The English Department congratulates our colleague,

whose edition of Owen Wister's previously unpublished novel,

Romney,

published by Pennsylvania State University Press

was named

most notable book of the year

by the

Columbus Dispatch.
Do you need help with a computer problem? Tired of leaving voicemails and then waiting?

Call x1860 for the Information Technology Help Desk.

A technician is standing by the phone ready to talk to you about your problem Monday through Friday from 8:30AM to 4:30PM. The IT Help Desk is located in Olney Hall Room 200B. Feel free to stop by and ask a question in person.
Experience the Hunger Banquet
Wed, Feb. 5
5pm ~ Music Room

Faculty & Staff: We invite you to join our 2nd annual Hunger Banquet and to encourage students to participate! The Hunger Banquet is a powerful tool that brings to life the inequalities in our world and challenges us, as the more economically fortunate, to realize how our decisions affect others in the world. Participants leave filled with a greater understanding of the problems of hunger and poverty and the motivation to do something about it.

RSVP by January 29—x1804.
We do ask that a small donation (Gold Card or cash) be made at the door. Proceeds will go to Oxfam. We hope to see you!
