Experience the Hunger Banquet
Wed, Feb. 5
5pm ~ Music Room

La Salle Community: We invite you to join our 2nd annual Hunger Banquet! The Hunger Banquet is a powerful tool that brings to life the inequalities in our world and challenges us, as the more economically fortunate, to realize how our decisions affect others in the world. Participants leave filled with a greater understanding of the problems of hunger and poverty and the motivation to do something about it.

RSVP by January 29—x1804.
We do ask that a small donation (Gold Card or cash) be made at the door. Proceeds will go to Oxfam. We hope to see you!

This event is co-sponsored by Project on Justice and Society, Center for Leadership and Global Understanding, Soup Kitchen Program, and University Ministry and Service.

From: Anna Melnyk Allen, Assistant Dean of Students

Subject: Student Awards Nominations

Date: January 31, 2003

Nominations for the awards described in detail below are hereby solicited and will be accepted from members of the faculty and administration through Monday, February 10, 2003. A copy of the standard nomination form follows this memorandum. Please feel free to make or request additional copies. If the space provided on the form is insufficient, please feel free to attach additional sheets as needed. Students nominated will also be asked to have written recommendations submitted on their behalf.

Methods of Designating Recipients

1. Any administrator or faculty member may nominate a senior for the awards.
2. To compete for an award, a senior must be nominated by an administrator or faculty member. (Nominations for Flubacher Awards will be accepted from student organizations.)
3. Any senior who deems himself/herself qualified may request a nomination for one or more awards from an administrator or faculty member.
4. The appropriate awards committees will have the authority to adjudicate recipients from those nominated.

The Joseph F. Flubacher Student Leadership Award is offered to a graduating student who has made a contribution to the quality of student life by demonstrating significant leadership in student organizations, university governance, and/or intercollegiate athletics.

Qualifications

1. The recipient shall be a graduating senior from the Day Division of the University.
2. The student shall have demonstrated exceptional leadership skills throughout his/her university career. The student shall have significantly enhanced the membership, programs, and/or goals of a particular organization(s); made a contribution to the work of a university committee; and have had a positive impact on the general program of student life.
3. The student's record should be free from major disciplinary sanctions, i.e. probation.
4. Academic standing will be a major consideration but will be given less weight than evidence of leadership skills and accomplishments.

The Brother Emery C. Mollenhauer Award is presented to that graduating senior who best exemplifies those Lasallian values to which Brother Emery was committed during his tenure as Provost, in particular the values of charity and justice which are hallmarks of St. John Baptist de La Salle's pedagogy.

Qualifications

1. The recipient shall be a senior, graduating student of the University.
2. The recipient shall have demonstrated, over a period of time, a commitment to community service activities on or off campus.
3. The student should exemplify through his/her involvement in such activities a dedicated concern for the principles of peace and justice.
4. The student shall have at least a 2.5 cumulative Grade Point Average at the time of application.

The James A. Finnegan Memorial Award is offered to the member of the graduating class who by virtue of accomplishment and service is judged by the faculty to show promise of applying Judeo-Christian ideals of social justice in a political or governmental career.

Qualifications
1. The senior to be considered for the award should offer some prima facie evidence of participation in political affairs on and/or off campus. Leadership and participation in other extra-curricular activities are also to be considered, though given somewhat lesser weight. There should also be some indication on the part of the senior of intent to pursue a career in politics and/or government.
2. In exemplifying ideals of Judeo-Christian social justice, the recipient should exhibit integrity and courtesy in all of his/her endeavors.
3. Ordinarily, the recipient will be in the upper half of his/her graduating class.

The John McShain Award is offered to the member of the senior class who maintained an excellent scholastic record and is considered by faculty to have done the most for the public welfare of La Salle University.

Qualifications
1. The recipient shall be a senior, graduating student of the University.
2. High scholastic achievement normally shall be interpreted to mean Dean’s List standing.
3. In recognition of the monetary value of the award, the recipient should show evidence of his/her intent to attend graduate or professional school.
4. Primary consideration shall be given to leadership and participation in those activities which advance the good name of the University beyond the immediate campus and which enhance the role of La Salle University in the life of the region.

The Student Activities Achievement Awards are presented to those graduating seniors who have made significant contributions to La Salle’s program of extra-curricular activities. Traditionally, these awards have been intended to recognize those students who do not qualify for other award programs due to academic or other criteria that limit the number of award recipients. Faculty members and administrators, particularly those who work closely with student organizations, are invited to nominate as many students as they feel are deserving of these awards.

Roles for which a student is compensated by the University, i.e. office workers, Resident Assistants, scholarship athletes, and Union, Food Service, and Athletic Department Student Managers, are not by themselves given consideration. When nominating a student who falls into one of these categories, please also include all other known areas of participation.

When nominating students, please keep in mind that our intent is to recognize significant contributions. As the number of recipients has increased dramatically in recent years, concern has been expressed (often by students themselves) that nominators and selectors should discriminate carefully in order to assure that students recognized are truly distinguished.

Thanks very much for your attention and response to this request. Please do not hesitate to contact me or my assistant, Ms. Maureen Doyle, at x1374, if you have additional questions.

Writing Fellows Program Application Deadline
Friday, February 21

Application Forms in English Department Olney 141 and the Honors Center
See Dr. Margot Soven Olney 140, ext. 1148
What is a Writing Fellow?

A Writing Fellow is a good student writer who is assigned to a specific course to help students in the course revise drafts of their assigned papers. Fellows do not grade papers, but through written comments on the drafts and direct interaction in conferences, help students during the revision process.

Fellows will work approximately 60 hours per semester and receive a $300 stipend.

Who is eligible?

Undergraduate day students who have achieved at least sophomore standing in the Fall 2002 semester, in the School of Arts and Sciences, School of Business Administration and School of Nursing.

Application Procedure:

Students must submit two papers (two copies of each), preferably 4-15 pages, though we will consider longer papers, if they represent your best writing. A brief interview will also be required and an expressed willingness to enroll in English 360, Writing and the University (cross listed as Honors 360) in Fall 2003.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2003

What are the benefits of being a Writing Fellow?

Fellows will have a chance to improve their own writing as a result of taking the course and tutoring other students. Most professions and graduate schools often seek out good writers, and the title "Undergraduate Writing Fellow" should help convince future employers and educators of the Fellow's special strength in writing.
