Dear Colleagues:

It is was a sense of sadness in seeing a friend and colleague depart, that I inform you of the retirement of Bob Levins, our Director of Security for the last six years, in October 2003. I am delighted that Bob leaves La Salle to fulfill personal and family plans. Bob and his wife Helen are looking forward to moving to their home at the New Jersey shore. Many people retire with great plans to enjoy just doing almost nothing. Bob, however, enters retirement with plans of a committed work schedule over the next year renovating their shore home. There is a saying that, in do-it-yourself projects, one’s own labor is worth 5 cents an hour. Bob plans to save a lot of nickels.

Bob brought to La Salle the experience gained from a long and successful career at the management level in the Philadelphia Police Department. During his time at La Salle, he incorporated many modern security management and technology practices in his department and was looked upon by the community as a source of wisdom and compassion.

I hope that you will join with me in extending our La Sallian best wishes to Bob and Janet.

Sincerely,

David C. Fleming
Vice President for Business Affairs
