The Third Annual
Shield of Lasallian Leadership
Awards

Call for Nominations!!!

The Shield of Lasallian Leadership Awards are now in their third year. They were designed to acknowledge the contributions registered student organizations make to the La Salle Community.

What are they?? Each spring, five student organizations and their members are honored for their contributions in each of five areas, represented by the components of the University shield, one of our most treasured symbols. The components and the qualities they represent, for the purposes of this recognition program, are:

- The Star: Guiding Others
- The Chevron: Upholding or Establishing Tradition
- The Helmet: Courage
- The Cross: Sacrifice
- The Motto: Fostering Learning that Enhances the La Salle Community

How are student organizations chosen for these honors?? Student organizations nominate other student organizations that they feel have met the above standards. Faculty and staff members, comprising the current Lasallian Leadership Institute team from our University, review nominations and determine the organizations to be honored.

How will student organizations be honored?? Members of chosen student organizations will receive tokens of recognition featuring the components for which their organizations are recognized. The names of the student organizations will then be engraved on the award plaque in the La Salle Union lobby. If, over time, all five awards are bestowed upon a student organization, that group will receive special recognition and tokens featuring the full shield. Awards will be announced at Spring Fling, Saturday, April 12!

Nomination forms are available in all Division of Student Affairs offices. Nominations are due in the Division of Student Affairs Suite, 123 La Salle Union by Friday, April 4.

To: The LaSalle Community

On behalf of University Ministry and Services we wish to extend our sincere gratitude to all who came and supported the 2003 Basket Bidding Fund Raiser! We greatly appreciate your enthusiastic participation with this annual event. All the preparation and support that went into the Basket Bidding has certainly paid off as we have managed to raise $1,822.91 that will directly benefit the UMAS service projects: Appalachia, Week of Hope and Los Niños. Furthermore, we would also like to extend our thanks to Food Services for providing such an extravagant feast and display yesterday as well! All the support we have received from the La Salle community enables UMAS to continue running these life-enriching events for our students and the communities in the Appalachia region, Boston and Tijuana, Mexico. Yesterday’s success has left us already looking forward to Basket Bidding in 2004.

Once again, thank you for all of your efforts to help ensure the continuation of the students’ service programs. We are indebted to the entire LaSalle community for helping us make this year’s event a success and we are certain, with your continued support, that next year’s Basket Bidding will be an encore performance!

Sincerely,

The Students & Staff of UMAS

SUBJECT: VOLUNTEERS FOR A WEB SURVEY

Your opinion counts!

It certainly means a lot to the staff of Connelly Library and the President of the University, Brother Michael McGinniss.

As we plan for the future of the Connelly Library, it is important that we understand our users' perceptions and expectations so that we can provide the services you need. In a few days, you will receive an email message providing you with a link to an automated, web-based, library service quality survey. By responding to the survey, you will provide essential information for us to use in planning our future. The survey is part of a North American effort led by the Association of Research Libraries to measure library service quality and identify "best practices" used by library staffs in support of your daily research needs.

We would greatly appreciate your help and interest. When you receive the email message in a few days, please take the time to go to the web survey link and complete it.

Thank you for your participation.

Sincerely,

The Ven. Palden Gyatso

Wednesday, April 9
1 pm
Dan Rodden Theatre

Co-sponsored with the Department of Religion

Palden Gyatso was born in 1933 and raised in a small Tibetan village. At the age of eighteen, he became an ordained Buddhist monk at one of Tibet’s most famous monasteries, Drepung Monastery. In 1959, when Communist China invaded Tibet, thousands of Tibetans who did not approve of the brutal occupation of their country were arrested and put in prison. Palden Gyatso was jailed by the Chinese authorities for being a “reactionary element.”

Palden Gyatso spent most of the next 33 years in Chinese prison. Every time he would finish serving one of his long sentences, he would be re-arrested for taking part in political activities opposing the Chinese occupation. While in prison, Palden Gyatso endured violent physical and psychological torture. The Chinese authorities tried every means possible to break his spirit of resistance and his will to continue fighting for Tibetan freedom. He was beaten, shocked with electric cattle prods, and suspended from the ceiling above a burning fire.

Palden Gyatso never gave up his determination to fight for his country’s freedom. In 1992, when he finally finished his last prison sentence, Palden Gyatso managed to escape to India, carrying with him some of torture instruments that had been used on him. Since his escape, he has traveled the world speaking to people about his horrendous experiences in jail and his continued mission to expose the injustice of the Chinese occupation of Tibet. He has testified in front of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights and the US Congress. Palden Gyatso is also the author of "The Autobiography of a Tibetan Monk" and "Fire Under the Snow: Testimony of a Tibetan Prisoner."

Free and Open to the Public
By all accounts, the integration of part-time faculty into the campus community is a critical issue facing any college or university that relies on part-time faculty for significant portions of the educational program.

This session, sponsored by the Teaching and Learning Center and facilitated by Brooks Aylor and Lynne Texter of the Communication Department, will use the example of one department’s approach to orienting and integrating part-time faculty as a stimulus for discussion of how other departments and programs can continue and improve on efforts to create a welcoming and enriching environment for their part-time faculty.

Save the Date – April 8, 12:30 – 2:00, Olney 109

Chairs and program directors are particularly encouraged to attend this session, but all faculty – and especially part-time faculty – are also very welcome. Please RSVP by April 7 to Sabrina DeTurk, x5005 or deturk@lasalle.edu.
